To All Mills in Maryland:

The new requirements which limit the amount of wheat supplied to any customer, including farmers who bring their wheat to the mill to be ground into flour, provide that no case shall an amount be given in exchange for wheat which exceeds a thirty days' supply. This thirty days' supply is based upon the new ration of one-pound-and-a-half of wheat flour per person per week and in every case includes all wheat flour already in the possession of the person purchasing or exchanging wheat for flour.

AIRSHIPS LAND IN KENT

The aerial mail carrier between Washington and New York lost his bearings Monday, and after flying over Chestertown and other places, landed at Worton Manor Beach. The flyer returned by special boat to Washington and on Tuesday Flyer Toulson and machinist Russell, in another machine, came to the rescue of the disabled ship. Miss Ida Crew was at the home of Carroll Loller, Worton Station, and waved a newspaper to them. They answered the "call" and were given a warm welcome by Mr. Loller and his family besides all the neighbors. After a hearty dinner the ship reached Worton Manor. After repairing the disabled car both ships left for their destination.

A TERRIFIC STORM

The extreme heat wave was broken by a vivid electric and wind storm Wednesday evening.

The home of Joseph P. Norris, of Lynch, was the scene of the lightnings freakish work. The parlor chamber was simply wrecked. Window sash, mouldings, etc., were torn up and a glass on an easel broken and the easel left intact. A member of the family was asleep in the room over this one and did not know of the occurrence. Mr. Norris and his wife were down stairs and said the noise was like someone breaking up boxes, glass, etc. The windows of the room were up and shutters closed.

A stable on Dr. Dudley's farm, at Perkins' Hill, was destroyed by fire Wednesday night. Insured in Joseph N. Wheatley's company.

The lightning set fire to a bed in the house of A. S. Turner, Worton, and in extinguishing the fire Mr. Turner burned two fingers. He was fortunate in putting out the fire.

W. H. Bonwill lost a cow killed by lightning.

Capt. Henry Urie lost his stable and contents Wednesday night at Rock Hall. By the valiant help of neighbors and friends his home was saved. The Captain desires us to express his sincere appreciation of this help.

The residence of James A. Pierce, near Cecilton, was struck by lightning and completely burned.

Frisby Hynson's house in Pondtown was burned.

A cannery at Hayden's Station in Queen Anne's was struck by lightning and destroyed. The blaze could be plainly seen for many miles.

The schooner "Alice Corey," Capt. Wm. Ashley and belonging to John C. Wood was blown away from Tolchester and seriously pounded on a pile of stone near the wharf. The boat was loaded with 900 bushels of wheat belonging to Dixie Hague, John Bramble and John Burgess. There was no insurance.

HEAT PLAYS HAVOC TO STOCK

The extreme hot wave was certainly hard on humanity but horses and mules showed their suffering even more. Harper Carter, George Rash, Robert G. Nicholson, each lost a horse. Spencer Boulden lost a horse and a number had to quit work because of the heat. In a ride to Centreville Wednesday evening there were 9 dead horses seen lying in fields. One farmer lost five.

RED CROSS NEWS NOTES

The regular monthly meeting of the Kent County Chapter American Red Cross was held August 5th, at 10 a. m., at Rock Hall High School. After the business session the members were guests of the Rock Hall Red Cross Auxiliary at a most delightful luncheon which was thoroughly enjoyed and appreciated.

All the Red Cross organizations are expected to have their alotments completed and at the Chapter House not later than August 10th, as the last two weeks of August are to be vacation period from all Red Cross activities in the county.

The Chapter is instructed to ship all finished articles, including sweaters, socks and other knitted articles to the Potomac Division.

Heretofore we have partly outfitted our boys as they left for camps, etc., and we were much pleased and interested in furnishing our own county boys.

Now headquarters have given us orders to ship direct to Washington and we must obey as all good soldiers do.

We must not, however, stop knitting but keep on with the good work that the Government may have these supplies for the Army.

We want the boys to know why we can no longer give them outfits as they leave for camp.

Edward J. Clark has been appointed Chairman of the Junior Red Cross to succeed L. C. Robinson, resigned.
