Deed No. 1.

From King Freeman & King Will, of Cape Palmas.

Executed the 14 th February 1834.

Know all men by these presents, that for considerations hereinafter mentioned, we King Freeman alias Parmah of Cape Palmas, king Will alias Weah Boles of Graway, & King Joe Holland alias Pachpleer of Grand Cavally, have granted and sold, and do by these presents, grant & sell to the Maryland State Colonization Society of Maryland in the United States of North America; the following tract of land of which we are lawfully seized at this time by right of possession and descent; viz: commencing on the sea beach about three miles to the N. West of Cape Palmas at a cocoa nut tree known as the large cocoa nut, separating this territory from that of the king of Rock Town, thence running in about an east north east direction, one days journey until it shall reach the territory of Kava, king of the interior; from thence running east south east, six hours walk, until it shall reach the town of King Tom on the Cavally river; from thence down the Cavally river to its mouth; then running along the beach passing the town of Cavally; Grahway and Cape Palmas to the point at starting, viz: the large Cocoa nut tree, including all the rivers, bays, creeks, anchorages, timber, & mines, on the same; excepting as follows: a tract of land deeded, and given sometimes since, by the above named King Will, alias Weah Boles of Grahway, to king Yellow Will of little Cavally. Also, excepting so much of the said territory as is now under cultivation by the
