MANUFACTURER of Cutlery and Surgical Instruments. Keeps constantly on hand and makes to order Trusses and Spinal Supporters, and Apparatus for Deformed Limbs. He also most respectfully recommends to the Medical department and Doctors, his newly invented CLUB FOOT APPARATUS, which he guarantees to give entire satisfaction.

N. B.—Orders sent from the country be as follows—for a Truss, the measure around the body below the hip, and inform me if the Rupture is severe or light; also say if right or left side. For spinal brace all that will be required is a measure around the body, above the hip. For Club Foot Apparatus, send the measure around the body, the length from hip joint to knee, and from knee to ankle, and the measure around the thigh and around the calf of the leg, and the measure of foot. n24y

Daily's Patent Ventilated Truss

FOR HERNIA.

Gutta percha, weighs half an ounce, and is perforated so as to admit air to the ruptured part, and let off the perspiration without absorption, thus keeping the body pure and healthy.

Persons suffering with HERNIA or RUPTURE can have my Ventilated Truss applied with the greatest ease at my private rooms.

Those residing at a distance from the city will have a circular sent them, free of postage, by sending me their address.

Private rooms for Ladies, attended by a lady who will use everyendeavor to give satisfaction

Baltimore, Md., July 17, 1860.

Mr. W. F. DAILY,—Dear Sir:—You request my individual and professional experience in the use of your improved Ventilated Truss.

Having been necessitated for the last ten years to wear a truss for Inguinal Hernia, during which time I have worn trusses made by the manufacturers of our principal cities, and for the last twelve months your own, I unhesitatingly give it the preference for applicability of purpose and comfort to any other.

Those of my patients who have been fitted by you express their positive choice over every other they had previously applied.

Respectfully, JOHN S. MONKUR, M.D.,
Late Professor of Medicine,
Washington University of Baltimore.

I have constantly on hand, both of my own manufacture and importation, the following articles, in varieties too great to name, and will also make to order any instrument for physical deformity needed.

Surgical and Dental Instruments, Trusses of various kinds, Abdominal Supporters, Suspensary Bandages of Silk, Linen and Cotton, of twenty different kinds, Elastic Silk and Cotton Stockings, Knee Caps and Anklets for Swelled Legs or Varicose Veins, Shoulder Braces, Syringes of every description, Ear Trumpets, Auricles, Artificial Tympanums, Conversation Tubes, Silver Tubes for the Ear, Breast Pumps, Nipple Shields, Nursing Bottles, Piles-Trusses, Pile Syringes, Galvanic Batteries for Medicinal and Dental purposes; Money Belts, Respirator, Pessaries, &c.

The $100 Reward.

Kind Reader, you have doubtless read,
In the weekly papers,
The effusions of the little Jew,
(And don't he cut queer capers?)
He would have you all to think
That he was really some
In Philadelphia where he keeps
His Clothing Emporium;
To attempt to gull the public,
We think it is a pity:
If any of you ever go
To the Quaker city,
At 128 South street,
(For he will not be "outdone,")
In a small room eight by ten,
You will find his Emporium.
The public is acquainted with
Our true position,
And they all know the little Fop
Is opposed to competition.
He rented the house over our head,
And proved himself some,
And swore we should not open here
A cheap Emporium
He says for twenty years or more,
His clothing he has made;
The truth is not fully told
In this case I'm afraid,
For it has not been many days,
Not seven years or more,
Since this young fop was running wild
On Germany's 'ishland' shore.
So to E. NUNES' you must go
For Clothing to buy,
His goods are his manufacture,
And to please you all he'll try;
No slop-shop work is bought by him—
And at the lowest price
His goods are warranted to wear,
And found to fit you nice.

By the Governor of Maryland.

MARYLAND, SS:

To the People of the State.

Peace, prosperity, and blessings without number, to the State, have crowned the year, now drawing to its close.

While in other lands, Pestilence, or Scarcity have spread misery or want; and War, even for Right and Liberty, has desolated homes;—for us, the Earth, with unaccustomed energy, has poured forth her Abundance: Commerce and Industry have revived: Health and Prosperity have dwelt among us.

It is the bounden duty, of a Christian People to acknowledge these blessings by some public Act of Gratitude.

It is very right, that, in a Christian State, some Day should be designated, to that end, by the Civil Authority.

IN CONFORMITY, therefore, with the usage, established by my Predecessors in Office, sanctioned by the acquiescence and approval of the People, I, THOMAS HOLLIDAY HICKS, Governor of Maryland, do, by this my Proclamation, designate and appoint THURSDAY the 29th day of NOVEMBER, instant, to be observed, throughout this State, as a Holliday of Thanksgiving and Prayer.

And I cordially invite all the good People of this State then to lay aside their customary business, and worldly vocations and unite, in their respective places of Worship, or at their Homes, on that day, with the People of other States, in public and private Acts of Devotion and Gratitude to ALMIGHTY GOD.

I invite them also, in offering to Him thanksgiving for favors past and present, that they earnestly implore His protection and blessing for time to come:

That He will continue to us the fruits of the Earth; and make sure the reward of Labor:

That He will grant us Health, Prosperity and Peace:

That Dissension and Strife may depart from among us; that Concord and Love of Country may prevail:

That those in Authority may have His guidance; so disposing the hearts of the people, and ordering the State, that the happiness and peace, the power and abundance, with all the unnumbered blessings, which, through this Union, the God of our fathers gave to them, and to us may suffer no diminution, through our follies or crimes; but, safeguarded through His mercy, and multiplied by His favor, descend to our children's children. Given under my hand and the GREAT SEAL OF MARYLAND, hereunto affixed, at the Executive Chamber, in the City of Annapolis, this seventh day of November, in the year of Our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and sixty, and of the Union and Independence of the United States, the eighty-fifth.

THOS. H. HICKS.

Facts Speak Louder than Words!

THE reward offered last week in the "Conservator" of $100 will be increased to $300 this week if there is any person who will go to Philadelphia (all expenses will be paid by me) and find The own Manufacturing Establishment of the certain Storekeeper, who is still, in the most pernicious way, attempting to palm off upon the public, Goods pretending them to be all of his own make! when we can prove at any moment, where his Goods are bought! The public will please bear this fact in mind. L. MASTBAUM.

N. B. We wish it to be distinctly understood that Our Establishment is not known all over Philadelphia (like some) for making up the commonest Auction Goods, and is not known for paying the rent in connection with any Slop shop Establishment on Second street. L. M.

POSTPONED SALE.

Valuable Farm

AT PUBLIC SALE.

The subscriber will sell at Public sale on Tuesday, the 27th of November,

1860, at the Hotel Porch of John McDaniel, Esq., in Chestertown, at 2 o'clock, P. M., his VALUABLE FARM, situated in Kent county Maryland, on the state road leading from Middletown, Del., to Chestertown, Md., 17 miles below Middletown depot, and bounded by the state road, lands of Messrs. Merrit, Price, Janvier and Archibald. The whole tract contains

520 Acres of Land,

and now divided into two farms.

No. 1 contains 300 acres and is fronting on the state road, divided into five fields with large Brick Dwelling House, Brick Barn and stable, and frame Granary, with apple and peach Orchards.

No. 2 Is immediately back of No. 1, and contains over 200 acres, with Frame House, and is divided into four fields, with small Orchards, all under good fencing, with an abundance of Wood and Timber

This Land is within a half mile of the village of Harmony where there is a Post Office, store, wheelwright and blacksmith shop; is near churches, schools and mills, and in a pleasant neighborhood.

Both farms are well watered and for all farming and grazing purposes cannot be surpassed in any State. The soil is well adapted to the growth of Peaches, as the young orchard gave evidence this year. The most of the land has been limed twice and is now producing well.

There is a landing on the farm where lime can be landed. The farm is within 3 miles of Turner's creek landing where vessels run regularly to Baltimore. There is a prospect of a railroad being made through the country to connect with the Delaware Railroad, and will run very near the farm.

THE TERMS

will be made easy as two-thirds of the purchase money can remain on the farm. To any person who wishes to purchase land for farming purposes or to the growth of Peaches, here is a rare chance that seldom offers.

For particulars inquire of the Hon. JAMES B. RICAUD, Chestertown, Md., or to the undersigned, New Castle, Delaware.

Mr. Samuel Todd, one of the tenants on the farm will take pleasure in showing them.
