Kell — Rositer Scott
vs
9. Walter Simpson surviving admr of George Dent

Be it remembered, that heretofore, to wit, on the fourteenth day of July in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ten, the said Rositer Scott by Thomas Kell his attorney prosecuted and sued forth out of the court of appeals here, of and upon a judgment in the said court, affirming a judgment rendered in the County Court of Baltimore, a writ of the state of Maryland of fieri facias, to the Sheriff of Baltimore County directed, in the words, and of the tenor following, to wit: Maryland, ss. The State of Maryland to the Sheriff of Baltimore County, Greeting. Whereas at a County Court, begun and held at the City of Baltimore in and for Baltimore County on the first monday in February in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and four, a certain Rositer Scott by the Judgment of the said court, recovered against a certain Walter Simpson surviving administrator of George Dent late of Baltimore County deceased, as well the sum of two hundred and fifty pounds current money, for his damages which he had sustained by occasion of the non performance of certain promises and assumptions to the said Rositer Scott by the said George Dent in his life time before that time made, as the quantity of eight hundred and sixty four pounds of Tobacco for his costs and charges by him about his suit in that behalf laid out and expended: to be levied of the goods and chattels which were of the said George Dent at the time of his death remaining to be administered in the hands of the said Walter Simpson to be administered, if so much thereof in his hands he had; and if so much thereof in his hands to be administered he had not, then the costs and charges aforesaid, to be levied of the proper goods and chattels of the said Walter Simpson, as by inspecting the record and proceedings, brought before the court of appeals for the Western Shore, at the city of Annapolis, by reason of errors alleged to have been therein manifestly appears: And whereas it hath been adjudged in the said court of appeals, at the city of Annapolis aforesaid, on the third monday in June in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ten, that the said judgment, given in form aforesaid, be in all things affirmed and ratified, and that the said Rositer Scott might have execution against the said Walter Simpson surviving administrator as aforesaid for as well the damages, costs and charges aforesaid, as adjudged unto him in the said County court, as also for the sum of twenty five pounds current money additional damages adjudged by the said court of appeals, as the sum of thirty one Dollars and sixty seven cents for his costs and charges by him sustained by reason of delaying the execution of the judgment aforesaid, by means of the prosecuting a certain appeal by the said Walter Simpson surviving administrator as aforesaid before the said court of appeals for the correcting of errors of and upon the premises: to be levied as aforesaid and so forth. as of record it likewise appeareth. Therefore you are hereby commanded that of the goods and chattels which were of the said George Dent at the time of his death being to be administered in the hands of the said Walter Simpson surviving administrator as aforesaid, being in your bailiwick, you cause to be made the damages, costs and charges aforesaid, if so much thereof in his hands to be administered he hath, and if so much thereof in his hands to be administered he hath not, then the costs and charges aforesaid to be levied of the proper goods and chattels of the said Walter Simpson: and have you those sums before the said court of appeals, to be held at the city of Annapolis on the third monday in December next, to render unto the said Rositer Scott the damages, costs and charges aforesaid. Hereof fail not at your peril, and have you then and there this writ. Witness the Honourable Jeremiah Townley Chase, Esquire, chief judge of the court of appeals, the eighteenth day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ten. Issued the 11th day of July 1810. (Kell) Th. Harris, Jun. Clk
