INTELLIGENCER.

DENTON, Md.

TUESDAY, MAY, 31. 1831.

We are authorised to state, that the Rev. Mr Vardon, will preach in the court house at Denton, next Friday evening at 8 o'clock.

APPOINTMENTS BY THE PRESIDENT.

Edward Livingston, of the State of Louisiana, Secretary of State, in the place of Martin Van Buren, resigned.

Levi Woodbury, of the State of New Hampshire, Secretary of the Navy, in the place of John Branch, resigned.

The office of the Secretary of the Treasury, which has become vacant by the resignation of Samuel D. Ingham, has been offered to Louis M'Lane, of the State of Delaware, at present Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of the United States to Great Britain. Messrs. Livingston and Woodbury have entered upon the duties of their respective Departments. Mr. Ingham, we understand, will remain in the Treasury Department until some unfinished business, upon which he is engaged, is completed. Hugh Lawson White, of Tennessee, who, on the 9th ult. was offered the appointment of Secretary of War, in the place of John H. Eaton, resigned, has declined accepting it. We understand that the vacancy in that Department will be forthwith supplied, and that in the meantime its duties will be performed by Mr. Eaton.—Wash. Globe.

Died at his residence in this county, on Friday the 27th inst. Mr John Towers.

On Thursday the 26th Mary consort of Mr. John Bradly of this county.
