Patapsco, which said navigable river by the whole time aforesaid, used to flow & reflow, to and upon said piece of ground uninterruptedly, & the Plaintiffs in fact say, that upon said piece of ground, where the same bounds & lies on said river, there was, during the whole time aforesaid, a certain Wharf, whereof the Plaintiffs are & were possessed as aforesaid; by means of which said navigable river & said piece of ground, & the buildings & appurtenances thereon, & of said wharf, the said Plaintiffs, during the whole time aforesaid, had enjoyed the advantages of sailing to & from the said piece of ground, with all manner of vessels, and of unloading at said ground & said wharf, all manner of goods, wares and merchandize, & by & on account of the Wharfage of Vessels, & of the use & employment of said ground, & the buildings & appurtenances thereon as aforesaid, & of said wharf, the said Barron & Craig became entitled to, & derived, & had & enjoyed, large Valuable profits, issues, benefits, advantages & rewards, during the whole time aforesaid; and at the time of the committing the grievance hereinafter mentioned, which said profits, issues, benefits & advantages & rewards the said Plaintiffs ought to have had, & still ought to have. And whereas the said Plaintiffs, before and up to & at the time of the committing the grievance hereinafter mentioned, was, & thence hitherto have been, and still are, lawfully possessed of a certain wharf or quay, at the City of Baltimore, at the County aforesaid, situate in that part of the City of Baltimore, called Fells Point, and bounding on the Waters of the river Patapsco, & commonly called & known by the name of Craig & Barron's Wharf, & the buildings thereon, & their appurtenances; & by reason thereof, the said Craig & Barron became entitled to, & derived & had & enjoyed from said wharf, by & on account of the wharfage of Vessels, & of the use & employment of said wharf, & its buildings & appurtenances as aforesaid, large & valuable profits, rewards, issues, benefits & advantages, before & up to, & at the time of committing the grievance hereinafter mentioned, which said profits, rewards issues, benefits and advantages, the said Craig & Barron, during all the time aforesaid ought to have had, & still ought to have; Yet the said Mayor & City Council of Baltimore, well knowing the premises, but wrongfully & unjustly contriving and intending to injure the said Craig & Barron, in that behalf, & to deprive them of the use, benefit, & full enjoyment & advantage of said pieces of ground, & of the said Wharves, their buildings & appurtenances aforesaid, & whilst the said Craig & Barron were so seized & possessed respectively of the pieces of ground & the wharf & wharves severally & respectively mentioned and described in the preceeding Counts hereof, to wit, on the first day of January, in the year Eighteen hundred & fifteen, at the City of Baltimore, to wit, at the County aforesaid, & on divers other days and times between that day and the day of impetrating the writ in this cause & up to the time of impetrating said writ wrongfully & injuriously turned & diverted certain streams of water, and graded and paved certain streets, and cut down certain grounds, and erected and made certain dams and ditches and embankments by means and in consequence whereof the waters, wherein & whereat the said pieces of ground & wharves in the first & second counts hereof, & the said wharf in the last count thereof mentioned, so severally and respectively lie & bound as aforesaid, were, at the times aforesaid & continually up to the time of the impetrating the writ aforesaid, obstructed & filled up with sand & dirt, and clay, and otherwise the depth of said Waters lessened, and the said Craig & Barron disturbed in the use & deprived of the benefits & advantages aforesaid, of said pieces of ground and wharves & wharf, &

of