By The United States in Congress Assembled /

September 1.st 1783.

100

The Delegates for the State of Pensylvania laid before Congress Sundry Resolutions of the General Assembly of that State, which were read and ordered to be entered on the Journal as follows -

"State of Pensylvania, In General Assembly

Friday August 29.th 1783. - A. M.

The report of the Committee appointed to consider of the most eligible means for the accommodation of Congress should that honorable body determine to reside within this State read August 27.th Instant & was read the second time, whereupon

Resolved Unanimously, that until Congress shall determine upon the place of their permanent residence it would be highly agreeable to this house, if that honorable body should deem it expedient to return to & continue in the City of Philadelphia; in which case they offer to Congress the different Apartments in the State house and adjacent Buildings which they formerly occupied for the purpose of transacting the national business therein -

Resolved, Unanimously, That this house will take effectual measures to enable the Executive of the State to afford speedy & adequate support and protection to the honor and dignity of the United States in Congress, and the persons of those composing the Supreme Council of the Nation Assembled in this City -

ARCHIVES OF THE STATE OF MARYLAND.

Resolved /