

and maintainers and all subjects of his Majesty of Swedenland all which premises and contrary to the form and intent of an act of parliament made in the fifteenth year of the Reigne of King Charles the second that now is — and entitled an act for encouragement, of trade and in such cases made and provided

Whereupon the said Benjamin Rorer prayeth — the advice the advice of this court and that the Ship all her gunns munition tackle furniture and apparell with the goods thereon, may be forfeited and adjudged — according to the force of the statute that is to say our third part to his Majesty Charles the second, that now is King of England &c and our third part to his Excellency Charles Calvert Esq^r Capt^l general & chief Governour of this Province and the remaining third part to the said Benjamin Rorer, as informer due to him for informing & suing for the same and that the said Sander Sanders come into court and answer the premises and the said Sander Sanders by Thomas Notley his attorney specially admitted by the favour of the Court hereto cometh and prayeth the hearing of the said information and it is read unto him which being read and by him understood the said Sander Sanders complaigneth him to be by colour of the premises in the information specified to be grievously troubled and vexed and not justly, and yet for plea to the said information and as to the supposed breaches of the act of parliament in the said information mentioned he the said Sander Sanders sayeth he is nothing thereof nor of any of them guilty and of this he prayeth the judgment of the Court and the said Benjamin Rorer who as well he knoweth — Whereupon the court commands the said informant Rorer to proceed to the proofs of his information aforesaid said who producing one William Sanders master of the Ship Propowell of London, who being sworn made oath that the