msa_sc2915_scm1013-0259 ©Maryland State Archives

St James' Parish Record

A. A. Co.

Copied in 1885

Md.

Indexed page 470-1926

Index in back of the book

ST. JAMES, LOTHIAN
Like Many Of Its Fellows, Its Churchyard Graves Surround It And Vines Hang Heavy Over It

From The Sun
March 1, 1931

Att a Court Hold att London Towne the 31th day of 8 Jan.ry Anno Dom: 1694 And in the Sixth yeare of the Reign Soverigne Lord & Lady Will.m & Mary (by the grace defend.r of the faith &c: By the Justice & Councell unto Authorized. W.th the most Principall freeholde There Called for the Layeing out the County of Ann Arund.l &c Into Districts & Parishes. In Pursuance to an act of Assembly Entitulled an act for the Service of Almighty God Establishm.t of the protestant Religion in this province made att the Citty of St. Marys the tenth day of May Anno Dom. 1692

Councell.rs & Justices Present.

Coll Nicholas Greenbury
The Hon.ble Thomas Lench esq.r } Councell.rs

Mr. James Sanders
Maj.r Henry Ridgley
Capt. Nich Gasaway } Justices

Mr. Henry Constable
Mr. Phillip Howard
Mr. John Porsey
Mr. Seth Biggs

Whereas In pursuance of the Authority to as given the afore mentioned act: It is found Convenient and upon Concluded that this County of Ann Arund.l &c be devided Into four parishes: The Bounds & Limitts of St. James Parish Then Called by the name of Herring Creek Prsh in Herring Creeke Hundred W.th the Residue of West River Hundred begining Att the South most Bounds of South River prsh the Land of Eaven upon Everton now In the possession of Richard Gallaway and boundeing on the East with the Bay of Chessepeake Lieing Downe Southerly to Called fishing Creek, Then West with