Great inconvenience having arisen from the practice of using loose papers in the argument of causes before this Court, which papers in many instances belong to the files of other Courts, and are consequently not always accessible to the members of this Court, after such causes are argued. For the purpose of obviating the same in future, it is ordered, that hereafter no paper shall be read or referred to, in the argument of any cause hereafter to be brought before this Court, unless such paper be copied into, and form a part of the Transcript, filed in the office of the Clerk of this Court or is of record in this Court, or unless the permission of this Court is previously obtained upon a written application to it, for that purpose.
