FEDERALSBURG

The Federalsburg High School Soccer Team, which won for our school the state championship, and the F. H. S. Girls' Volley Ball Team, which met no defeat in the county during the past season, were tendered a banquet at the high school last Friday evening, January 19.

The event, which had been deferred owing to Captain Smith Taylor's illness, proved a briliant occasion. Mr. William A. Pittman, of the Public Athletic League, was present and was among those who delivered addresses. Mr. Pittman had that afternoon presented the Public Athletic gold medals to the soccer team, so the day was a memorable one in high school annals.

Needless to say all did justice to the appetizing turkey dinner served and the delightful program rendered afterward.

Club to Give Party

The Woman's Club has decided to depart from its usual strictly feminine functions and to include the masculine element in a Valentine party which will be held on the evening of February 13th.

The committee in charge of this social event is composed of: Mrs. Leon Dill, Mrs. Harry Spicer, Mrs. Frank Short, Mrs. Lena Jefferson, Mrs. Harry Poole, Mrs. Herman Noble, Mrs. T. S. Holt, Mrs. Harvey Long.

Mr. Martin James Smith

Mr. Martin James Smith, aged 20 years, died at his home on Holt Avenue on Sunday, January 16, after a long illness.

He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard S. Smith, a widow and infant child.

Funeral services in charge of Rev. T. S. Holt were held Tuesday afternoon in Christ Methodist Protestant Church, and interment made in Mt. Pleasant Cemetery.

Mrs. Winnie Hicks

Mrs. Winnie L. Hicks died early Monday morning at her home here on Academy Avenue after a brief illness. She is survived by her husband, two son and two daughters. Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon.

F. F. & P. Association Reorganizes

A meeting of the Federalsburg Fruit and Produce Association, organized last summer, was held recently at the home of Mr. Victor Dean, when a discussion of prospective crops was held. As a result, the members agreed to grow forty acres of tomatoes and fifty-four of cantaloupes. The Association also purchased forty bushels of Ford Hook bush beans for planting.

The Association, whose objective is raising the standard of produce grown and shipped through the advantages of combined harmonious effort, is rapidly growing.

The recently elected officers for 1923 are: President, Victor Dean, secretary, James Dew; treasurer, Nicholas Langneil; executive committee, John Rosser, Christian Nagle, Walter Trice.

Mrs. Dean Guest of Honor

Mrs. Raymond O. Dean was guest of honor at a card party and shower given at the apartment of Mrs. P. C. Cantner, on Main Street, Saturday afternoon, January 13.

The bride received numerous attractive and useful gifts for her newly-established home and after a pleasant hour at the card tables the guests enjoyed refreshments of chicken salad, olives, sandwiches, ice cream, cake and coffee.

Those present were: Mesdames Raymond Dean, Victor Dean, H. H. Spicer, Leon Dill, Alice Davis, Cheivor Davis, J. R. Charles, J. W. Stowell, Miriam Longaker, H. M. Carroll, Byron Griffith, F. T. Brooks, Robert Eddington, Arthur Johnson, P. C. Cantner, and Misses Lillian and Katherine Cox, Preston, Myrtle Messick, Edith Babcock, Nellie Hackett, Louise Stevens, Hilda Covey, May Thompson, Mary Davis, Hilda Elben, Katherine Cohee, Blanch Jackson, Mary Wright Preston and Mrs. Irvin Jones of Greensboro.

Clues to Robbers Sought

In an effort to apprehend the robbers who recently made such an intensive raid upon a section of the town, the Town Commissioners have posted placards in public places offering rewards for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the guilty persons.

No clues have yet been obtained, nor has there been any reptition of the offense. Night watchmen continue to patrol the streets.

Social Items

Miss Delia Mace, of Easton, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Mowbray, the past week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Dill are entertaining Mrs. Dill's aunt, Miss Annie Bradley, of Salisbury.

She leaves to mourn her loss her husband, and five children—Mary E., Fanny C., Mable O., Sarah., and Armstead E., Jr., a father and stepmother, Mr. and Mrs. James H. Carter, 2 sisters, Mrs. David Smith, of Greensboro, Mrs. Harry Brown of Ridgely, and a host of relatives and friends.

PINCHOT TO WAR ON VIOLATORS OF LIQUOR LAWS

Says Pennsylvania Must Determine If Criminals Are To Control State

WOULD SAFEGUARD INDUSTRIES

Harrisburg, Pa., Jan. 16— Gifford Pinchot, who was inaugurated in Pennsylvania today, declared in his inaugura address that the policy of the common wealth and the chart of the new order upon which the Government of this state is about to enter is:

Governor's Program

To drive all saloons out of Pennsylvania.

To prevnt and punish bootlegging.

To maintain and secure good laws for the protection of working children, women and men.

To safeguard the industries of Pennsylvania and promote the prosperity of the state.

To advance the interest of the farmerss, who feed us all.

To give our children the best schools in America.

To check centralization and give more home rule to cities, counties, townships and school districts.

To maintain the direct primary and protect the rights of women voters.

To meet the just needs of those who served in the world war.

To rvise and equalize taxes, establish a budget system and reorganize the state government on business basis.

To keep the expenses of the state within it's income.

To get a dollar's worth of service for every dollar spent.

Blot On State, He Says

"I regard the present flagrant failure to enforce the Volstead law as a blot on the good name of Pennsylvania and the United Statse," said the Governor. "If allowed to continue it will amount to a serious charge against the fitness of our people for genuine self-government. I share in the belief that no determined concerted effort to enforce the law has yet been made and I propose not only to press with all my power for the abolition of the saloon, but also to make sure that the government of this State takes its full and effective part in such an effort.

"Pennsylvania must either control the criminals who are openly breaking the law or be controlled by them. With all good citizens, I believe that this commonwealth is greater and more powerful than any band of law breakers whatsoever, and I intend to act on that belief. I shall expect and demand from every public servant appointed by me, or subject to removal by me of the highest to the lowest, entire and ungrudging obedience to the Eighteenth Amendment and the Volstead law. They are part of the law of the land."

LEARN TO READ YOUR METER

It is not so difficult to read the electric meter in your home.

Once explained to you there will be no confusion about the little dials and figures. The meter reader who comes to your home each month will be glad to show you how simply it all is done. Or, better still stop at our office any day and learn how. We'll give you a printed information sheet which gives every step in a clear concise manner. If at any time you have reasonable cause to believe your meter registers incorrectly, we will call and test it without charge.

By bettering our service to you, we help ourselves as well as you.

Make requests for meter information to the "Service Department."
