This new remedy is called "Dr. Brown's New Consumption remedy" and the company claims to have many recent testimonials from persons whom they have actually cured of consumption.

Great indeed must be the demand for this remedy wherever people are suffering from this dreadful disease, consumption The Magnolia Remedy Company are shipping this remedy into nearly every state in the Union, now and it has only been on the market since the first day of last July.

The company makes the open statement that "consumption can be cured" by this remedy and that they stand ready to demonstrate the proposition The remedy is sold in $1.00 and $2.00 bottles which they ship by express everywhere
