SALE IN BALTIMORE
AND
MANY NEAR-BY PLACES

The number of our readers learning of the "JOY" that comes from using Real ALAGA Cane Syrup with Hot Cakes and Hot Biscuits is ever increasing. They have also learned that Candy, Pumpkin Pies, Cookies, etc., "fit for a King" are made with ALAGA Cane Syrup.

Regular shipments are now being received, right from where the Sugar Cane grows, to meet the rapidly increasing demand.

ALAGA cane Syrup is the entire juice of the Sugar Cane plant boiled down to syrup with nothing added, except a very small portion of corn syrup to prevent sugaring in the can.

Yes! It is higher than ordinary syrups, but not half as expensive as maple syrup; whereas it is among the choicest of table and fancy baking syrups. Nevertheless, it has a flavor all its own.

Ask your grocer for the Real ALAGA Cane Syrup! If he does not have it ask him to write to Milton L. Halteman, 7 South Front St., Philadelphia, Pa., who will see that he gets it quickly.

Following are some of the stores that can supply you till your grocer's shipment arrives. Please note:

ELKS' ELECTION THIS WEEK

Newark, N. J., Dec. 5.—With the election of officers of Pride of Newark Lodge No. 93, I. B. P. O. E. of W., to be held tomorrow evening at the Elks' home, 355 Washington street, interest in the election is at fever heat.

The different candidates expressing confidence in themselves as winners. The candidacy of Charles Buffin is being conducted by Past Exalted Ruler and Past Grand Lecturing Knight, Alex Braithwaite, and is off to a good start. In discussing the probable he stated to a reporter for this paper that it was impossible for his candidate to lose.

Equally as confident is Hon. John M. Stout, prominent local business man and Grand Secretary of B. P. O. Reindeers, that Ruffin will be elected. H. M. Neely, boss of Webster street, claims to have about 200 fraternal votes in his vest pocket at all times, and claims that all that is necessary for him to do is to come down Friday evening and cast one tremendous vote for Ruffin, but Mr. Clark J. Van Pelt, a very popular young man and employed in the U. S. Postal Service in this city, who represents the hopes and aspirations of the younger element of the lodge membership in this fraternal fight, believes that he has sufficient strength to land him safely in the Exalted Ruler's chair next election night.

Dr. A. A. Brown, prominent Chiropodist in thi scity, is also in the race and believes he has a chance, but the most confident of them all the candidates is the present Exalted Ruler, Dr. Thomas H. Wright, who is coming up for election solely on his record. He feels that his accomplishments in the past six months will be sufficient to put him over. In the case of Ruffin, Mr. Braithwait, who has a large following in the lodge and exerts great influence, is pitting all his strength in this fraternal fight in an effort to put Ruffin over.

McCALLUM-MULFORD WEDDING BRILLIANT

Newark, N. J., Dec. 5.—A wedding of social prominence took place last Saturday evening at 8:30 o'clock at 41 Chestnut street, at the home of Mrs. Irene Mulford, when her daughter, Sara Wilhelmina, became the bride of Mr. Hinton James McCallum, of this city.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. W. A. Hubbard, pastor of St. John's M. E. Church on Academy street. A reception and wedding reception followed at the bride's home. The home was beautifully decorated with ferns and chrysanthemums and palms. The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Charles W. Mulford. And she was attended by her cousin, Miss Lillian Davis, of New York City, as maid of honor, and Miss Daisy Mulford, niece of the bride, as bride's maid. Mr. Daniel C. McCallum, cousin of the groom, served as best man.

As the hour for the wedding ceremony approached the bride marched in to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, played by Miss Francis Mulford, of Westfield. The bride wore a gown of gray chiffon velvet trimmed with gray fox and carried a bouquet of pink of bridal roses and lillies of the valley. The maid of honor's gown was also of gray chiffon velvet trimmed with gray fox and she carried a bouquet of pink chrysanthemums. The bride's maid wore a gown of green flat crepe trimmed with gold lace and carried a bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums. The bride and groom were the recipients of many beautiful and useful presents.

On the evening of November 28th, the Men's Club of St. John's M. E. Church, of which the bride and groom were members, gave the groom a surprise reception. A delicious repast was served, which was prepared by Mr. Eugene Gibson, an experienced caterer, at whose home the reception was given. After each member had said toast to the future happiness and health of the bridegroom and bride, they presented to him a beautiful floor lamp as expression of their good wishes. The bride, a Newark girl, having lived here all her life, very prominent socially and active in church and club work prior to the wedding, had given in her honor numerous showers and parties. The bridal party left late Saturday evening for points in North Carolina, where they will spend their honeymoon.

Mr. and Mrs. McCallum will be at home January 1st, at No. 10 Marie place, this city.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Twenty-Second Annual Club Celebrates its Anniversary

Atlantic City, N. J., Dec. 5.—The Twenty-second Annual Club, one of the most popular and active of the many such organizations of similar nature, celebrated the first birthday of the club on Monday evening last, at the new Elks' Home, 1613 Arctic avenue.

This brilliant affair was cleverly presided over by Mrs. Lucille Robinson. Mrs. Ida Brown, president and organizer of the club, was hostess and pleased the large number present with a few words. At the close she was presented with a large bouquet of flowers by Miss Mamie Waters on behalf of the club.

The musical program was varied one, consisting of many gems rendered in a manner that will long be remembered by those present. Solo by Mrs. Jennie Danshenior; recitation by Miss Lucy Josepher, and Miss Marion Holland, and music by Mme. Burris' orchestra were special features. After the program a dainty repast was served.

Those present were: Mrs. Lottie C. Kennedy, Past Grand Daughter Ruler of I. B. P. O. E. of W.; Mrs. Annie Davis, Grand Assistant Vice Daughter Ruler; Charles Boyer, of Philadelphia; Mrs. Mavie King; George Fleming, Miss Hannah Thornton, Mr. William Jones, Miss Johnson, Mrs. Margret Headen, Mrs. Annie Schepper, James Porter, Mrs. William Nottingham, Joseph Howard, Mrs. A. Wood, Mrs. Margaret Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. Halistock, Mr. and Mrs. John Weston, Mr. and Mrs. Murrich, Mrs. George Tucker, Mrs. Mary Falls, Mrs. Etta Keys, Mrs. Annie Forman, Miss Mary Hill, Mrs. Lottie Butler, Miss Martha Diggs, Mrs. Sarah Wayne, Mrs. Mary Blackstone, T. W. Cooper, Mrs. Elenor Weinberg, Mrs. Algar A. Morgan, Miss Viola Wallace, Luther Morgan and many others.

Five Hundred Parents Meet Teachers at Indiana School

The Indiana Avenue School on last Friday evening was the scene of probably the most remarkable demonstration of parent-teacher understanding and co-operation ever witnessed in Atlantic City. Over 500 parents met personally 56 teachers of the Indiana and New Jersey Avenues schools. Following a brief general assembly in the auditorium the parents were directed to the class rooms of their children, where they were greeted by the teachers.

These groups meeting not only established a friendly personal contate between parents and teachers, but it also gave them a clear insight into the real school life of their children. In many cases special class demonstrations had been arranged by the teachers for the benefit of the visiting parents. As a result of these group meetings it is confidently expected that a splendid impetus has been given to a remarkable joining of hands of the teachers and parents of these two schools for the purpose of vitalizing the educational and community life of the city.

Special features of the general meeting were the community singing conducted by Mrs. Gould, a beautiful solo rendered by Mrs. Damphenior, and the awarding of the banners for parents' attendance, by W. Hibbard Smith, principal of the Indiana Avenue School, awarded the banner for that school to Mrs. Batey's room, and of New Jersey Avenue School, awarded the banner for that school to Mrs. Dart's room. The invocation was offered by the Rev. Mr. Griffin.

Conservative League Host To Its Ladies Auxiliary

The Atlantic County Conservative League entertained in honor of their ladies' auxiliary a few evenings ago at their headquarters, 132 N. Delaware avenue. The affair was a brilliant one and certainly one of the most enjoyable ever given by this league. Invitations were sent to all the political clubs and leading citizens of the city and county. These showed their appreciation by the large number of their members who attended.

A spirit of harmony and good will prevailed throughout the evening. J. H. Kennedy was toastmaster, ably assisted by William Cheatham, and their skill in such capacity was never shown to better advantage. Several speeches were made, all praising the league for its work especially its consistant policy in politics.

Among those present were: Judge William R. Page, county leader; Lawyer Hart, William G. Giles, attorney and broker, formerly of New York; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Kennedy, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Fleming, Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Bolson, Mrs. Edna Bethel, Mrs. Flanigan, Mrs. Blanch Gill, Mr. and Mrs. Drenham, county committee lady; Mrs. Mary C. Lydel, Mrs. Bessie Waites, Mrs. Thomas Williams, A. P. Finney, Charles B. Johnson, freeholder; William Sewell, Jas. Wiley, Mrs. Lightfoot, Mrs. Chris Banting, Miss Eva Williams, William Lewis, Mrs. Katie Tindell, Mr. Reese, Mrs. Margaret Belview, Adolphus Britt, Mr. and Mrs. William Cheatham and daughter, Mrs. Marion Sheaff and many others too numerous to mention.

D. O. K. O.'s Entertained

Ostris Temple No. 1, Dramatic Order Knights of Omar, with their wives and friends were entertained by George Dennis at 1207½ Arctic avenue, last Friday evening. The evening was spent in social chats and laughter. At a late hour the guests were escorted to the table where a delicious repast was enjoyed. James E. Payne was toastmaster, and remarks were made by Jesse Webster, J. C. Mellix, Mrs. Ross, widow of the late Edward Ross; Madam Mapps, of New York; Mrs. Naomi Young, William H. High School's Grad Making Good

The Negro Alumni Associates of the local high in complying with urgent public request for information about those who have graduated from the city's public schools release through this section the following information.

Ferdinand Motley, Phg., D. C., now in the drug business in Philadelphia, and whose mother, Mrs. Mary C. Motley, lives at 1009 Baltic avenue this city, was graduated from the grammar schools in 1912, and from the high school in 1916.

He was one of the most popular students and noted athlete, bringing many honors to this city.

He was also a member of the school Glee Club. After leaving high school Motley entered the Philadelphia School of Pharmacy, from which he graduated with the degree of Doctor of Chiropractic from the American College of Chiropractic.

Young Motley is an active member of the Alpha Phi Alpha fraternity and a high Mason. He is following in the footsteps of his noble father, now dead, who in his lifetime helped so many students in their efforts to secure an education.

Smooth Hair In 5 Minutes

NO OILS, NO SOAP, NO IRONS—A SIMPLE HOME TREATMENT

While in the army I met a colored prince from the French possessions in Africa. He was of royal blood and spoke French, English and other languages and had beautiful silky, smooth hair. We became acquainted and I asked him what he used on his hair. He told me it was a family secret which had been used exclusively by his family for generations.

I did him a favor and he repaid me by giving me the recipe for this wonderful hair dressing so that I might pass it on to thousands of others. It is harmless, does not burn the hair, does not turn it red, does not make the hair slick and greasy looking, but makes it lay smooth, silky and pretty. No matter how short, or how long, how thick or how thin your hair may be, thousands now have long, straight, smooth, silky hair with a natural appearance.

A $1 JAR FREE—Just send us your name and address and put a $1.00 bill or money order in your letter and I will send you postpaid TWO $1 Jars of Bear Oil Hair Dressing. You pay for the one, the other is yours free to keep or sell to a friend. Take advantage of this offer today and convince yourself you too can have beautiful smooth hair. Remember your money back if you are not satisfied after the first treatment.
