Tom Bass, Veteran Horse Trainer, Is Buried in Mo.

Dean of Horse Showmen Performed before Presidents, Queens.

WAS ORIGINATOR OF KANSAS CITY SHOW

Won Hundreds of Medals and Ribbons.

MEXICO, Mo. (ANP.) — Funeral services for Tom Bass, 75, one of the foremost horse trainers which this country has known, were held Friday from his home with many notables of both races present.
Mr. Bass, who died Monday night following a heart attack, had ridden his way into the hearts of thousands of devotees of the saddle through his genius at horse training.
He was credited with the origination of the annual Kansas City horse show which was begun in 1894 and had put his horses through their paces for the benefit of presidents and queens. On October 20, 1929, the St. Louis Globe-Democrat said of him:
"The dean of American horse showmen in this section of the country is not a millionaire pampering his vanity with blue ribbons, but a patriarchal colored man, Tom Bass, of Mexico, Mo. To his pione
