Old St. Joseph's Tournament Set For August 3

The Annual Horse Show and Tournament, a feature of summer entertainment on the Eastern Shore for many years, will be held again at Old St. Joseph's Catholic Church, near Cordova, Wednesday, August 3.

The program will begin with the usual horse show in the morning, when horse lovers throughout this part of the peninsula will put their animals through the paces and over jumps to be judged for style, carriage and general performance. Ribbons will be given for the best in each class.

After the horse show the ladies of Old St. Joseph's will serve the annual dinner on the church grounds. This dinner, which in itself has become famous all over the state for the fried chicken, country ham, Maryland biscuits, salads and fresh vegetables served on the tables in abundance for all to help themselves, is another of the highlights of the day. Many whole families make the outing to Old St. Joseph's just for this one feature alone.

Even before the final late-comer has finished his dinner, knights who are to contest in the jousting will be on the track practicing for the main event which will end with the crowning of his wife or sweetheart as the Queen of Love and Beauty. About 2 p.m. the charge to the knights will be made and the contests will begin.

All those interested in a day of outdoor enjoyment, a bounteous repast of home-cooked Eastern Shore delicacies, a thrilling contest in the age old sport of jousting and a dance that night, should mark Wednesday, August 3, on theri calendar for the Tournament at Old St. Joseph's.
