100 DOLLARS REWARD.

ESCAPED from goal, in Centreville, a negro man named Jim, about 22 years of age, 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high, has a scar on his right cheek, large full eyes, large mouth, shews his teeth very much when he laughs, is bow-legged and walks wide, has been to work in a blacksmith's shop, and probably he may apply to some smith for employment—Had on when he escaped a blue jacket and trowsers, the jacket has a white seam on it at the bottom, and the trowsers also, down the legs. Whosoever apprehends the said negro, and secures him in the Centreville goal, or any other gaol, so that I get him again, shall receive the above reward if taken one hundred miles from Queen Ann's county, and if taken within fifty miles fifty dollars will be given, with all reasonable expences paid if brought home to Centreville, by DANIEL WATSON.

THIRTY DOLLARS REWARD.

RAN away from the subscriber, on the 18th of July, a negro man named Daniel, aged 24 years, about 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high—His dress was an old great coat and trowsers. The fellow has been sick for more than two years, under the impression that he was poisoned, or a spell laid on him; for which reason he was indulged in going to an old negro man to cure him, who lives about two miles from Easton, on the road to Dover Ferry, where it is probable the fellow may be lurking. When he went off he pretended he was sick, and not able to walk; but I have reason to think now that his complaint is almost altogether deceit. Whoever takes up said negro, in the county, and brings him home, shall receive 20 dollars—if taken out of the county, the above reward.
ANDREW SKINNER.

SIX CENTS REWARD.

RAN away from the subscriber about the first of July last, an apprentice boy by the name of Woolman Buckley—He is stout and well made, accustomed to go by water: all persons are forewarned harboring him. The above reward will be paid for said boy if brought home.
