In Chancery, Dec. 28, 1813.

William Ensey.
vs.
Gerard Davis.

The object of the bill in this case is to obtain a decree, to record a deed executed by the defendant, to a certain James Cummings.

The bill states that the said Gerard Davis on the 6th of November, 1795, executed a deed to the said James Cummings for a tract of land, lying partly in Baltimore and partly in Frederick county. That the said James Cummings afterwards sold a part lying in Baltimore county, to Grace Ensey, by whom it was conveyed to the complainants. That the said deed, from Gerard Davis to James Cummings was recorded by mistake in the office of the clerk of Ann-Arundel county, instead of the office of the clerk of the General Court.

It is also suggested, that the defendant Davis, is a non resident, and was so at the time of filing the bill, and that the Sheriff of Baltimore county hath so returned him.

It is thereupon adjudged and ordered, that the complainant by causing a copy of this order to be inserted once in each of three successive weeks in the American before the first day of February, 1814, give notice to the absent defendant, of the substance and object of the bill, that he may be warned to appear in this court in person or by solicitor, before the 1st day of June, 1814, to shew cause if any he has why a decree shall not pass as prayed.
