BAILIFF'S NOTICE.

THE subscriber has received the Town Levy List, for 1835, and will furnish each person with a bill of his tax some time in the course of next week. As the act of the General Assembly of Maryland, passed November, 1793, chap. 66, sec. 2, requires that the Bailiff shall account to the Commissioners of the Town for the amount of such list, at the end of two months after the receipt of the said list, and as the subscriber indulged last year sundry persons who are yet delinquents to his great inconvenience, he is determined to seize and sell, without further notice, the goods and chattels of all persons failing to pay their town tax within twenty days from the receipt of their tickets. This determination he will most assuredly adhere to, in accordance with the positive instructions of the Commissioners.

$150 REWARD.

RANAWAY, on Saturday, the 18th ultimo, a negro man named about thirty years old, of dark color, and has large grey or whitish eyes, with much hair or wool on the breast. He is about five feet three or four inches high, stout made, and walks rather with a dodge. He took away with him a new suit of blue striped kersey, one striped cotton kersey, black and white, one brown frock coat with pearl buttons, boots, shoes, a fur hat, and a quantity of other clothing not recollected. If the above Jack is taken in the county, thirty dollars will be given; one hundred dollars if taken out of the county; and one hundred and fifty dollars if out of the State, so that, in either case, I get him again.

DISSOLUTION.

THE copartnership heretofore existing under the firm of J. & R. VALLIANT is this day dissolved by mutual consent They have taken a counting room in the store of Mr. Wm. F. Ruderstun, No. 6 Light street wharf, for the purpose of making a final close of their business in Baltimore, where one of the late firm (or Robert Valliant, their clerk, who is equally authorized,) may always be found to receive any money that may be offered, or attend to any other matter connected with their business. We need not remind our friends, as all must be aware, that, to make a speedy settlement with our creditors, they must make to us prompt payments, as the former depends exclusively upon the latter, and as we do not wish to remain longer in Baltimore than the last of this month to close our business heres We shall regard it as a special favor if our friends will make us as large payments a. they can in all this month.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the first day of May next, any justice or justices of the peace in and for said county, who shall be found engaged in the discharge of his or their duties as justice or justices of the peace in civil matters in a bar room of a tavern or public house of that character, upon satisfactory information given within six months after the violation of this act to the grand jury of said county, it shall be the duty of said grand jury to report the fact to the State's attorney or his deputy, who shall proceed and recover from the offender or offenders against this act, the sum of twenty dollars with cost for each ane every offence, one half of the fine to be paid to the informant and the other half to be paid over to the treasurer of Baltimore county for the use of said county.

An act to confirm an act entitled an act to amend the constitution and form of government, as it relates to the division of Somerset county into election districts, and to establish an additional election district.

BE it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That an act of Assembly passed at December session, eighteen hundred and thirty-three, chapter 11, entitled an act to amend the constitution and form of government, as it relates to the division of Somerset county into election districts, and to establish an additional district, be and the same is hereby confirmed.

A supplement to an act entitled an act to confirm an act entitled an act to alter and repeal all such parts of the constitution and form of government, as relates to the division of Frederick county into twelve election districts, and for other purposes, passed at December session, 1831, chapter 112, passed at December session, 1832, chapter 165.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Alexander Mellhiney, Joseph Swigart, Evan McKinstry, Charles Devilbiss, and John Switzer, or a majority of them, be and they are hereby appointed commissioners to lay off a new election district, from parts of election districts numbers six and seven, in Frederick county; said new election district to be numbered thirteen; and the place of holding elections in said new election district number thirteen, shall be fixed by the commissioners or a majority of them.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the aforesaid commissoners shall severally qualify according to law previous to entering upon the duties of their appointment, and employ a surveyor to survey, lay off, mark and bound the said new election district number thirteen.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That if any commissioner named in this act, shall die, remove from the county, or refuse to accept of his appointment before the first day of April, in the year eighteen hundred and thirty five, the remaining commissioner or commissioners, or a majority of them, as the case may be, are hereby authorised and required (if they deem it necessary) to fill such vacancy or vacancies.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners, or a majority of them, shall, on before the second Monday of May next, deliver or cause to be delivered to the clerk of Frederick county court, a plat and description in writing under their hands and seals of the said new election district, specifying plainly the boundaries and number of the said new election district, and also the place where the election for said new election district shall be held, and the said clerk shall record the same in the records of the said county, and it shall be the duty of the clerk of Frederick county court to cause a copy of the description of the said district to be published at least four times in two newspapers printed in Frederick county previous to the next election, setting forth in said copy the description aforesaid, the place appointed by the commissioners for holding elections.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That when the said new election district shall be so laid off by the said commissioners or a majority of them, as aforesaid, that then and forever thenceforth, the inhabitants thereof shall be entitled to a representation in the levy court of the said county, which court shall appoint judges of the elections, and be in all respects entitled to all the rights, liberties and privileges, held and enjoyed and to be held and enjoyed by the other election districts in said county.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That each commissioner shall be entitled to two dollars per day for every day he shall act in the discharge of the duties imposed by the provisions of this act; and that the surveyor employed shall receive a just and reasonable compensation for his services; and that all other contingent expenses, fees and charges incurred under the provisions of this act, shall be assessed and levied by the levy court of Frederick county, as other county charges are; which, when levied and collected, shall be paid over as other county charges are, to persons respectively entitled thereto.

An act to extend to executors and administrators the privilege of appeal from judgments rendered by Justices of the Peace, against their testators or intestates.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assrmbly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, the privilege of appeal from any judgment, rendered by any justice of the peace, as is now allowed by law to any person who may think him or herself aggrieved by the judgment of any justice of the peace, shall be, and the same hereby is extended to all and every executor or executors, administrator or administrators, of any deceased defendant, against whom, in his life time, any judgment or judgments may have been rendered by any justice of the peace as aforesaid.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That any and every executor or executors, administrator or administrators, who shall apply for an appeal as aforesaid, shall produce to the justice of the peace, authorised and required to grant the appeal as aforesaid, satisfactory evidence of his or her being executor or executrix, administrator or administratrix, and the said justice shall proceed to take bond and security from the executor or executrix, administrator or administratrix as aforesaid, and to grant the appeal within the same time, and subject to the same provisions, as are now prescribed by law, in case of appeal from judgments of justices of the peace.

An act relating to Guardians and Wards.

BE it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That in all cases where there hath been, or may hereafter be, an appointment of a guardian of a female above the age of eighteen years, by last will and testament, and the person so appointed shall have died, or renounced, or refused to act, it shall be lawful for the Orphans' Court of the county in which the said will shall have been proved, to appoint a guardian in the place of the person so dying, renouncing or refusing to act; and the person so appointed by the Orphans' Court, shall give bond in the same manner as guardians appointed for infants under age, and shall have the same powers, perform the same duties, and be entitled and bound to perform them for the same length of time, or up to such period as the person appointed by the will, if he had lived and taken upon him the trust and duty reposed in him by the will, and shall be bound to render and settle an account of his guardianship or trust, to the Orphans' Court, in the same manner and at the same time as other guardians of minors appointed by the Orphans' Court are now required by law to render and settle their guardians accounts.

An act authorising Officers of the Army and Navy of the United States, to bring their servants, being slaves, into this State.

BE it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That any officer of the United States Army or Navy, who shall, by duty, be called into this State, shall be authorised to bring with him, and retain while he so remains, any servant or servants being slaves! any law to the contrary notwithstanding; provided, such license be not construed to authorise the sale of any such slave or slaves within the limits of this State, but that they shall, on the removal of such officer, be carried out of the State with him.

A supplement to the act, entitled, an act for the relief of the Securities of the Collectors of the Taxes and of Sheriffs, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and thirty-one, chapter two hundred and eighty-two.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Marylad, That in case of a bill or petition to a County Court, in pursuance of the act to which this is a supplement, where on filing the bill or petition, or at any other period in the cause, it shall appear to the court, from any fact or facts in the case, verified by affidavit, to be proper that an injunction should issue in respect of the defendants, or any of them, or any authority, acts, or proceedings on their part, or that a Receiver should be appointed, until further order of the court, to take charge of the collection of fees or taxes, or claims, mentioned in the said original act, or to perform the duties of the trustee or trustees, whom the court is empowered, by virtue of said act, to appoint, in the premises, or in any wise to act for the security of the plaintiff, in the matter of said bill or petition, it shall and may be lawful for the court to order the issuing of injunction as aforesaid, and to appoint a Receiver, with the authority as aforesaid, until further order of the court, and with such further authority as, under the circumstances, it shall seem to the court necessary to confer; and to order delivery to the Receiver, of books, papers, and vouchers, as allowed and prescribed in said original act, in respect of a trustee or trustees aforesaid; and to pass all orders necessary, in the view of the court in the premises, for effecting the ends and objects of such injunction and receivership.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the Court of Chancery may exercise all the powers conferred by the said original act, or this act, upon the County Courts, sitting as Courts of Equity.

A further supplement to the act entitled an act directing the manner of Suing out Attachments in this Province, and limiting the extent of them.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That no attachment that shall hereafter be issued by virtue of the act to which this is a supplement, or of any of the supplements thereto shall fail, be dismissed, quashed or defeated because of any defect in any averment, as to the citizenship or residence or inhabitancy of the plaintiff or plaintiffs, or any of them, or because of any omission altogether of averment in that respect, in the affidavit for such attachment, or in any act, or any part of the proceedings preliminary to such issuing of attachments—provided, that, if any trial take place, it be proved at the trial in such attachment case, that the plaintiff or plaintiffs, or any of them, at the time of issuing said attachment, was or were a resident or inhabitant or residents or inhabitants of one of the United States of America or of a District or Territory thereof.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That in any cases of attachments that shall hereafter be issued by virtue of the act to which this is a supplement, or of any of the supplements thereto, against any person or persons not residing in this State, such attachments shall not be dissolved unless the defendant or defendants in such cases, or some person for such defendant or defendants, shall enter into bond with good security to be approved by the court, to satisfy any judgment that shall be recovered in such case against said defendant or defendants.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That where any attachment as aforesaid shall hereafter be levied or laid upon any lands, tenements, hereditaments, goods, or chattels, or credits of a non-resident defendant or defendants, no conveyance, transfer, or assignment of any such lands, tenements, hereditaments, goods, or chattels, or credits, shall have any effect against such attachment unless the same shall have been recorded in the office of the clerk of the county in which such attachment shall have issued, before the time of such issuing.

A further additional supplement to an act entitled an act for quieting possessions, enrolling conveyances, and securing the estates of purchasers.

BE it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That all deeds or instruments of writing, which have been taken, executed and acknowledged within this State, since the first day of September, 1832, which may not have been certified by the takers of the acknowledgments of said deeds or instruments of writing, as required by the act of December session, 1831, chapter 205, be and the same are hereby confirmed and made valid to all intents and purposes—Provided, that in all other respects the said deeds or instruments of writing have been executed, acknowledged, and recorded in conformity with the laws relating to the subject at that time in force in this State.

An act relating to the trial of ejectment causes in this State.

WHEREAS, under the laws of this State, the citizen can only be sued, in the first instance, in the county in which he resides; but this provision has never been fully applied to the trial of actions of ejectment for lands lying partly in one county and partly in another—Wherefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That after the passage of this act, none of the courts of this State shall entertain or try any action of ejectment, for the recovery of the possession of any tract of land lying partly in one county and partly in another, being entirely in possession of a citizen residing in one of said counties, unless the said suit is brought in the county in which said citizen resides.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That in actions of ejectment thus brought, the court of the county in which said citizen claiming the whole of said lands resides, may have jurisdiction to hear and determine said suit in reference to the title of the whole of said tracts of land, and to award writs of possession for the whole of said tracts, as well the portion lying out of the county as that within it.

A further supplement to the act entitled an act relating to the importation of passengers.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That so much of the second section of the act to which this is a supplement, as allows a master or commander of a vessel, in place of paying the assessment of one dollar and fifty cents for each passenger, to enter into bond with sureties for saving harmless and indemnifying the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, and the Trustees of the poor of Baltimore City and County, be and the same is hereby repealed.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the Register of the City of Baltimore shall be entitled to, for his services under the said act, and shall have out of the moneys to be collected by virtue of said act, two per centum upon such moneys.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the said act shall not be deemed to extend to any ambassadors, or ministers, or consuls, or agents of foreign governments, arriving as passengers in the port of Baltimore.

An act to regulate the proceedings of foreign corporations within this State.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That any Insurance Company not chartered by the laws of this state, which shall effect, or shall have effected insurance upon any property real or personal, or upon life or lives, within this state, which shall transact or shall have transacted business within this state, shall be deemed to hold and exercise franchises within this state.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That where any insurance company or other corporation, as aforesaid, shall hold and exercise, or shall have held and exercised franchises, as aforesaid, within this state, such insurance company or other corporations, shall be liable to suit within this State, in the courts of this state, upon contracts of insurance on property or lives within this state, or on any dealing or transaction in this State.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That when any suit shall be instituted against such insurance company, or other corporations so chartered as aforesaid, that service of the writ issued in such case upon the President or any Director of such company, or upon any agent of such company or corporation, shall be deemed sufficient service upon such company or corporation; and if the company or corporation shall fail to appear at the first term after such service as aforesaid, judgment shall on proof to the satisfaction of the court of the agency aforesaid, be rendered by default, against said company or corporation, for the amount of the plaintiff's claim, to be proved to and ascertained by a jury upon inquiry by it executed at bar as in cases of ascertainment of damages by jury or judgments by default.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That if any such company or corporation, shall after any liability shall occur or shall have occurred within this state, withdraw its agents from this state, or shall revoke the authority of any agent, and shall not appoint another agent within this state, and no President or Director of said company or corporation can be found within this state, upon whom to serve any writ or process, that service of any writ or process issued as aforesaid, upon the person last the agent of such company or corporation, shall be deemed sufficient service on such company or corporation, and if no appearance be entered for such company at the term next succeeding the issuing of such writ or process, judgment by default shall be rendered against such company or corporation for the amount of the plaintiff's claim, to be proved to and ascertained by a jury as aforesaid—Provided always, that before such judgment shall be rendered, in case the authority of any agent shall be revoked as aforesaid, and the said writ or process shall be served on such agent, that evidence shall be furnished to the court where such suit is pending, by affidavit or affirmation of the party serving the same, made before the Mayor of some corporation or Judge of some court of the United States, to be attested by the seal of such corporation, or of the court of which such person may be judge, that a copy of such writ or process so served on such agent, has been delivered to the President or two Directors of such company or corporation within the state where such company or corporation shall have been incorporated.

A further supplement to the act entitled an act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, passed at November session, 1805.

BE it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the judge of any orphans' court, to whom, by virtue of the supplement to the act to which this is a supplement, passed at December session, 1817, chapter 183, any insolvent debtor may apply for a discharge under the insolvent laws of this state, may take the acknowledgment of any conveyance of such applicant of his estate, for the benefit of his creditors, prescribed to be executed by the said original act, or any of the supplements thereto, to the same effect as such acknowledgment may now be taken by any two justices of the peace.

A further supplement to an act entitled an act to establish a Bank in the city of Baltimore, to be entitled the City Bank of Baltimore, and an act entitled a supplement to an act to incorporate a company to make a Turnpike Road leading to Cumberland, and for the extension of charters of the several banks in the city of Baltimore, and for other purposes

WHEREAS, an act to establish the City Bank of Baltimore, passed December session, 1812, chapter 180, did confer certain powers, to continue and be in force until the 1st day of November, 1835, and until the end of the next session of the General Assembly thereafter; And whereas, subsequently, it became advisable for the said City Bank of Baltimore to wind up its concerns, and to accomplish the same, an act was passed December session, 1820, chapter 47; and, as the concerns of said Bank have not been wholly closed, and certain suits remain undetermined, in which said Bank is a party; and there remains property on hand unsold, and deeds are yet to be executed for property, the payments for which have not yet become due; and to enable the said Bank the more easily to wind up its affairs, by the extension and intervention of its corporate powers—Therefore,

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the act to establish a Bank in the city of Baltimore, passed December session, 1812, chapter 180, and the several supplements thereto, which may be necessary for the consummation of this act, shall continue and be in force until the 1st day of November, 1840, and until the end of the next session of the General Assembly thereafter—Provided, however, this act shall cease to have any effect, should said Bank proceed to transact any other business than such as may be necessary to wind up the concerns of the same.

WE are authorised to announce HENRY COOK, Esq., as a candidate for the next Sheriffalty of this county

Sept 13

SHAKSPEARE

WILL travel throughout this county during the ensuing spring. He is a blood bay, with black mane, tail and legs, full sixteen hands high, and of fine proportions.

The terms are, one dollar the single leap; three dollars, the spring's chance; and six dollars to insure a mare with foal.

JACOB J. MOBRAY.

His pedigree may by known by reference to the following certificate.

I hereby certify, that the horse, Shakspeare, which I sold to Mr. Jacob J. Mobray is a Black Knight horse, ten years old this spring; his dam was a Shakspeare mare. Shakspeare was raised by Esquire Phillips, of Sussex county, Delaware.

JOHN W. JACKSON.

Dorchester co. March 28, 1835.

CHESTER.

The justly celebrated saddle horse Chester, sired by Col. Ridgeley's Tom, will stand the ensuing season, in the neighborhood of Cambridge. Persons desirous of raising first rate saddle, or gig horses, will now have an opportunity—Chester's colts being remarkable for their fine action, and gentleness in harness. Several of his colts are now in the neighborhood of Cambridge, all of them superior rackers.

TERMS.

Chester will cover the ensuing season, at the following prices, viz:—Four dollars the single leap, six dollars the Spring's chance, ten dollars to ensure a mare in foal. A deduction will be made in each case if the money is paid on or before the 1st of June. J. R. KEENE.

TERMS.

6 dollars the spring's chance, twelve dollars to insure, four dollars the single leap, nd 25 cents in each case to the groom.

JAMES CHAPLAIN.

MOSCOW is seventeen hands high, a dark bay. He was sired by Godolphin, who was raised by James Ware of Virginia; his dam by imported Shark, his grand dam by Thornbury's Herod, great grand dam by Washington, out of a Fearnaught mare—Godolphin the sire, was got by imported sorrel Diomed, his dam Sally Shark, by Shark, his grand dam Betsey Dingle, out of Jones' Dismal by old Fearnaught.

Signed GEO. WHITING
Virginia.

Moscow's dam was sired by old Oscar, grand dam by Vingtun, great grand dam by Moscow, well known for great speed and bottom. From my best recollection he was sired by Traveller, and out of Col. Lloyd's imported and very celebrated Nancy Bywell.

JOHN CALDWELL,
Oak Hill.

Moscow was as fine a limbed colt as I ever had, when by some accident he was thrown in a narrow entry in his stable, the winter after he was foaled and so much injured in his left stifle joint, as not to be able to use it for six months, after which the swelling disappeared, with the exception of his pasterns—his colts are remarkably handsome and clean limbed.
