Newark College.

THE Trustees of Newark College are gratified in being able to announce to the public that the duties of the institution were resumed at the collegiate year with the most flattering prospects. The Rev. Dr. Richard S. Mason, of New York, the President elect, a gentleman of high standing for his intellectual qualifications and literary attainments, has accepted the office, and entered upon its duties. The Rev. T. H. Simpson, of Marietta, Pennsylvania, who was elected Professor of Languages, and who is an experienced teacher and eminently qualified for the station, has also accepted and entered upon the duties of his office. And Mr. R. W. Tilson, of New York, who has been highly recommended as a gentleman of eminent standing in his profession, has been lately unanimously elected Professor of Mathematics in the collegiate department, and accepted of the office. Mr N. Z. Graves, who has been adjunct Professor of Mathematics and Principal of the academical department, since the organization of the institution, still continues in that connexion, and is deservedly esteemed both as a Professor and as a gentleman. The requisite number of Tutors have also been appointed—so that there is now an efficient Faculty. And the testimonials in favor of these gentlemen who have accepted and entered upon the duties of their office, are such as entitle them to the entire confidence of the Board. A Steward of high reputation has also been appointed, who has entered upon the duties of his station, and gives entire satisfaction. The Trustees are determined to do all in their power to place the college on the most respectable footing. The vigorous measures, which they have already adopted, the unanimity and harmony which now prevail in the Board, and the selection of President and Professors as above announced, it is confidently hoped, will soon cause the institution to attain a high standing as well as merit, and receive a liberal patronage from an enlightened community.

By order of the Board,

THOMAS CLAYTON,
President of the Board of Trustees.

Jesse Bestpitch and Joseph Bestpitch, vs. Thomas Slight and Sarah his wife, and others.

THE object of the bill filed in this cause is to obtain a decree for the sale of the real estate of Joseph Bestpitch, the same not being susceptible of division.

The bill states that Joseph Bestpitch hath departed this life, leaving real estate lying and being in Dorchester county, which can not be divided without injury to the parties interested, and that he left the following persons his heirs at law, to wit: his sister Sarah, wife of Thomas Slight, who is entitled to one half of the estate, and the complainants and Caroline, wife of Levin Wall, who are equally entitled to the other half. The bill also states that the said Thomas Slight and Sarah his wife reside out of the State of Maryland.

It is thereupon ordered that the complainants, by causing a copy of this order to be published in some newspaper, once in each of three successive weeks, before the 6th day of January next, give notice to the said absent defendants of the substance and object of the bill, that they may be warned to appear in this Court, in person or by a solicitor, on or before the first day of May next, to shew cause, if any they have, why a decree should not pass, as prayed.
