JOHN CLARK,
Old established Prize Vender, N. W. Corner of Baltimore and Calvert Streets, under the Museum.
Baltimore, May 16, 1835.

To Messrs. John Muir,
John Newton,
Solomon Kirwan,
Thomas J. Pattison, and
Thomas Hayward,
Commissioners of the Tax for Dorchester County.

GENTLEMEN:—Annexed is a list containing the names of the several tracts, or parts of tracts, or parcels of land, also the several lots of land, together with the number of acres, and the person or persons chargeable with the payment of the county charges of the said county on the same, for the years 1833, 1834 and 1835, whereon no personal property can be found by the subscriber, in the said county, liable for, or chargeable with the payment of the same—I, therefore, in compliance with an act of the General Assembly of Maryland, passed at November session of 1797, entitled "An act for the more effectual collection of the county charges in the several counties of this State," return you this list, containing the names and quantity of land, together with the names of the persons chargeable with the same, as also the sums due for the years aforesaid, and pray such order and direction in reference to the same as to you, or a majority of you, may seem meet and proper.

Given under my hand, this 26th day of August, 1835.

JEREMIAH C. WRIGHT,
Collector of County Charge for Dorchester County.
