It is stated in some of the New York papers, (with how much truth we know not) that one or two of the New York Van Buren electors are not qualified, by reason of their holding offices under government. This is also said to be the case with respect to some persons on the Virginia and New Hampshire electoral tickets. If these statements are true, the electoral vote of those three States, it is presumed, would in contemplation of law be worth nothing, because of the failure on their part to elect "entire tickets," which the law requires. If the law provides that entire tickets shall be chosen, and if persons not qualified to serve have been elected, it is manifest that the requisition is not complied with. And if the requisition is not complied with, the vote is illegal, and ought not to be counted. But of what use are laws and constitutions in these days? Or rather we should ask, why talk of the requirements of law and the positive injunctions of constitutions? If it was as clear as the light of noonday, that every New York elector held an office under the government, it would be decided by the party that the ticket was good because a majority of the people, a tremendous majority had said so; and the votes would be counted, maugre all the hindrances of justice and the prohibitions of law.

It will be perceived by the news from Mexico, that there is some danger of a rupture between that Republic and the United States. The Minister of the United States has returned, and, as is reported, without his passports. It will be recollected that the Mexican Minister, Mr. Gorostiza, left the U. States, in consequence of the occupation of the territory of his country by the troops under the command of Major General Gaines. Mr. Ellis, our Minister to Mexico, being dissatisfied with the answers of the government there, to some demands of his in behalf of the U. States, determined to follow the example of Mr. Gorostiza; and accordingly he demanded his passports, which not being given him, he came away without them.—This is the foundation of the rumor, that Mexico intends to declare war against the United States. It is probable, however, that the two Governments can understand one another better without the aid of their respective Ministers, and that the whole affair will end in an amicable adjustment of differences, and a re-establishment of friendly relations.

DORCHESTER HOUSE.

THE undersigned respectfully announces to his friends and the public generally that he has taken that well-known

Tavern House

IN THE TOWN OF CAMBRIDGE

lately occupied by Mr. John Bradshaw, (which will in future be styled the "DORCHESTER HOUSE,") where he designs keeping a first rate establishment for the accommodation of all, and every person, who may favor him with their patronage. His TABLE will at all times be furnished with the best the market will afford. His BAR is now, and will continue to be, stocked with pure and unadulterated Liquors, of every variety; to attend in which he has procured the valuable services of Mr. Thomas Smith, who will always be ready to administer to the comforts of visiters. To attend his STABLES, he has careful and experienced Ostlers, which, together with his personal knowledge of the character and habits of that most valuable of animals, will, he flatters himself, afford ample assurance that all horses left in his charge will be well attended to. The House, in the course of the ensuing summer, will undergo a thorough repair, and be very considerably enlarged.

The advantages of its location must be acknowledged by all who visit it; for, while it is in the middle of the village, it is yet retired and quiet, it stands on a fine airy situation, about equi-distant from either end of the town.

The undersigned pledges himself to his patrons that his efforts to render their sojourn with him agreeable, shall be unremitting, and that nothing shall be left undone to accomplish that object; he, therefore, respectfully solicits a share of the patronage of an enlightened public.

The public's obedient servant,

He has lately procured A NEW SYSTEM OF CUTTING OUT GARMENTS, which has never been used before in this part of the State. It is adjusted upon a mathematical principle, and cannot fail to succeed in all cases. Upon this plan, the science of cutting clothes is no longer uncertain, and dependent upon the eye and accident, for a good fit. It is as unerring as the truths of geometry. He congratulates himself and his friends upon the possession of this long-sought desideratum. He is prepared to make up clothes for his patrons in the neatest and most fashionable style, having made an arrangement to procure the

Having been located in this place for the last twelve years, he returns his acknowledgments to his friends and the public, for the flattering encouragement they have bestowed upon him. He pledges himself to devote his most assiduous attention to accommodate those who entrust work to his care. In conclusion, he invites all to call, and he flatters himself that they will be entirely satisfied that he has promised nothing but what he will most rigidly fulfil.

Chancery Sale.

BY virtue of a decree of the High Court of Chancery, I will offer at public sale, to the highest and best bidder, at the Court House door, in the town of Cambridge, at the hour of 12 o'clock, M., on MONDAY, the 13th of February next, more or less, of valuable wood and cleared LAND, being part of the tract called "Goodrich's Choice," "Rochester," and "Trippe's Good Luck," comprising within its limits the Farm upon which William Bonner, Jr., formerly resided. This property is situated in Cabin Creek Neck, in the New Market District of this county, and distant about a mile from navigable water. The improvements upon it are highly respectable; I understand the soil is reasonably productive, and the situation very conducive to health. The title is in fee simple, and believed to be indisputable. Any further description of the premises is deemed unnecessary, as those who are disposed to purchase, will examine for themselves.

According to the terms of the decree, one third of the purchase money must be paid on the day of sale, and the residue in equal instalments, upon a credit of six and twelve months, with interest on each instalment from the day of sale, to be secured by obligation with security to be approved by the trustee. As soon as the entire purchase money is paid, I will convey the property to the purchaser or purchasers.

Ordinances

OF THE

COMMISSIONERS OF THE TOWN OF CAMBRIDGE.

WHEREAS, on application by petition in writing of a number of the citizens of the Town of Cambridge, for the appointment of a Wood Corder or Wood Corders for the said town, It was ordered and determined that Messrs. George W. Wingate and William R. Perry be, and they are hereby, appointed Wood Corders for the said town; whose duty it shall be to measure all wood brought to the said town for sale, and to have for their services six and a quarter cents per cord, and two cents by the quarter of cord, for all wood by them or either of them measured, and so in proportion for a less quantity, to be paid in each instance at the time by the seller.

And it was further ordered and ordained, That if any peason or persons shall wilfully neglect the above Ordinance, or violate the same by the sale of wood without measurement in the said town, every such person or persons shall incur the penalty of fifty cents for every cord so sold, and so in proportion for a less quantity—one half of such fine to be paid to the Wood Corders equally, and the other half to the Bailiff for the use of the town; the same to be recovered under the Act of Assembly of 1793, chapter 66, section 23, before a Justice of the Peace.

WHEREAS, the Commissioners believe that the 10th section of the Act of Assembly of 1831, chapter 323, (which renders it unlawful for any retailer, ordinary keeper, or other persons, at any time to sell ardent spirits to any free negro, mulatto or slave, without the license or permit therein prescribed,) is habitually violated by some persons, It is, therefore, ordered and determined, and it is hereby declared to be the duty of the Bailiff to report to the Commissioners of the Town any retailer, ordinary keeper or other person who shall sell any ardent spirits after 8 o'clock at night in the months of October, November, December, January, February and March, or after 9 o'clock at night in any other month.

And it is thereupon unanimously Resolved, That if any information shall be given by the Bailiff, or any other person, of the violation of the above Ordinance, the Commissioners do hereby unanimously pledge themselves to make application in writing to the County Court, if in session, or to the Orphans' Court, for a discontinuance or withdrawal of the license of any such delinquent.

Resolved, That the above Ordinances be published three times in the Cambridge Chronicle and Dorchester Aurora.

By order,
