KENTUCKY—MR. CLAY—On the third of the present month, Mr. Helm, the late Speaker of the House of Representatives of Kentucky introduced into that body the following resolutions· The Maysville Eagle introduces them with the remark that "they will make every Kentucky heart glow and his chest expand.

"Resolved, That the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky have witnessed with regret, the deranged state of the currency of the United States, the blasting and withering effects produced thereby upon the commercial manufacturing and agricultural interests of the community.

"Resolved, That whatever may have tended to produce this ruinous state of things, it is our duty as a people having common interests, to present an unbroken front in our efforts to remedy existing evils.

"Resolved, That it is the opinion of the General Assembly of Kentucky, that the system of Sub Treasuries, proposed by the National Executive, is impolitic, unwise and calculated to augment Executive power to an alarming extent, and will neither satisfy the public mind, nor tend to correct the deranged state of the currency.

"Resolved, That it is all-important to the preservation of the Union, so to conduct our National Legislation, to unite and make our interests inseperable, studiously avoiding that which is calculated to array sectional feeling and interests—on the contrary, he should desire to promote social intercourse, facilitate, inner communication and trade, and regulate upon terms of equality our domestic exchanges, and have a uniform and par value currency in every portion of the Union.

"Resolved, in the opinion of the Legislature, That the best means of effecting this desirable object is the creation of a National Bank, well guarded, blending public and private interests.

"Resolved, That the time has arrived when we should forget our personal partialities and predilections, and look alone to the rescue of our country from the fang which seem to threaten its destruction.

"Resolved, that the people of Kentucky entertain and cherish unabated confidence in the wisdon, purity and unbending integrity of her distinguished citizen, HENRY CLAY. She regards his name as standing indentified with all the most prominent features of national policy, calculated in their effects and tendencies to bind this union together. When the honor of this nation has been tarnished by foreign oppression, his voice has been the first raised in defence of the rights of his country. He has extended a fostering hand to the great commercial and manufacturing interest of the nation. He has thrown himself in the breach, and became the great pacificator, to heal the discordant feeling which he threatened in bold terms the durability of the Union. He is the great defender of the rights of man, and the advocate of the cause of Liberty in every country. Kentucky feels that his name is dear to her—that it is destined to be among the brightest ornaments to decorate the page of the nation's history. She presents his name to the American people for the office of Chief Magistrate of the nation. He is her choice, and under his banner the People of Kentucky will rally with pride and pleasure. But whilst we thus boldly make known our feelings and present our choice man we are disposed with the Whigs, in every portion of the Union and give our support to the individnal who may be selected as most likely to carry out and maintain our priociples. With this view we concur in suggestions made and now recommended to the whigs every where, of the propriety of fixing upon a time and place to assemble in National Convention, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for the office of President of the United States."

MR. CLAY AND THE CONSERVATIVES.—At a recent meeting of Democratic Conservatives in Philadelphia, the following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That we have been reluctantly constrained to abandon all confidence in "the honesty and fitness" of Martin Van Buren, and while we deplore the continued sufferings of the administration, we congratulate ourselves that at its close, there will be an entire and THOROUGH POLITICAL REGENERATION OF THE COUNTRY.

Resolved, That from the obvious and general conservative spirit which is abroad, and the strong, continued and invaluable support it has derived from the strenuous exertions and lofty achievements of HENRY CLAY of Kentucky, there is a proud and confident hope to be indulged, that this enlightened and experienced statesman, and pure and distinguished patriot, will, in 1840, be called to accept the highest service and the brightest reward of his grateful country.

Resolved, That the entire democracy of Pennsylvania should support this stern and incorruptible republican for the next Presidency of the United States, let him be nominated by whatever party, and against all other candidates who may be proposed for this office.

MARRIED,

On Thursday evening last, by the Rev. Mr. Lambdin, Mr. WILLIAM KIRBY, to Miss REBECCA JANE STEWART, both of this place.

The Commonwealth Bank of Boston, which failed last week, is said to owe the U. S. goverment from $300,000 to $400,000. CAUTION·

Beware of violating a law when the public are injured,—The habit of hiring negroes of late years and giving them permission to act for themselves, has become so common, that it is difficult to get hands willing to be controlled after such liberties have been granted them, & hands are so scarce that many farmers are put to great inconvenience, & some have not one to assist, even to feed their stock, owing mostly to this illjudged practice of obliging a set of ungrateful negroes. Information will therefore be given and the penalty of the law enforced against all who continue this injurious and illjudged practice. and to prevent cost and trouble, it is hoped that those now offending will take immediate steps to prevent it.

Wanted two likely boys from 8 to 15 years old, to remain in the State. Enquire at this office.
