At the same time and place, I will also sell that valuable farm owned by Mrs. Rose Ann Pitt, called "Beaver Dam Farm," containing about the precise number of acres will be ascertained prior to the day of sale. This property is now occupied by John Henry—the improvements are tolerably good and has a sufficient quantity of wood and timber.

At the same time and place, I will also sell that small, but valuable tenement containing upwards of 50 acres, with a sufficiency of wood—this property is occupied by Hambleton Giles.

At the same time and place, I will also sell 33 acres of very valuable prime timber land, lying adjoining the two last above mentioned tracts.

The terms of sale are one-fourth cash, the balance in six and twelve months from the day of sale, bearing interest from the day of sale, secured by bond and security approved by the trustee.

CHANCERY SALE.

BY the Authority of a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, I will offer at public sale, to the highest bidder, at the Court House door in the town of Cambridge, on MONDAY, the 11th day of JUNE next, at the hour of 11, (A. M.) the following valuable Real Estate of which Nathan Griffin died seized and possessed, to wit: a tract or part of a tract of land, called "Muir's Inspection," containing 62 1-2 acres, more or less.

A tract or parcel of land, the "The Grove," containing 150 acres, more or less.

A tract or parcel of land, called "Griffin's Venture," containing 8 acres, more or less.

A tract or parcel of land, called "Lot No. 3," containing 70 1-4 acres, more or less.

A tract or parcel of land, called "Lot No. 1," containing 33 acres, more or less.

A tract or parcel of land, called "Mills Security," containing 84 acres, more or less

A tract or parcel of land, called "Marshall's Addition," containing 29 3-4 acres, more or less.

A tract or parcel of land, called "Anderson's Chance," containing 29 3-4 acres, more or less.

Tracts or parcels of land, called "Chance Addition, Middle Land, Forrest, and Range," containing 162 1-2 acres, more or less.

A tract or parcel of land, called "Mill's Security Part" and "Brambles Addition," containing 40 acres, more or less.

A tract or parcel of land, called "Forrest Part" and "Range part," containing 24 acres, more or less.

The above mentioned lands are situated in Dorchester county, in a Neck called Town Point Neck, and on the waters of Little Choptank river and Fishing Creek. The various tracts are all adjacent to navigable water. The arable land is, generally, highly productive, and the sources of manure for its further improvement very accessible. The supply of woodland is ample for the purposes of the various farms, and I understand, will also furnish a surplus of timber, suitable for market. The improvements upon the farms consist of four Dwelling Houses, with the necessary out houses, in tolerable good condition.—There are also two orchards upon the premises. These tracts of land are beautifully situated on salt water, and for salubrity of air, are unsurpassed by any situations in the county. They are quite convenient to Cambridge the Metropolis of the county—being only about six miles distant. The property will be sold in parcels to suit purchasers.—The title is believed to be indisputable. Those persons who are disposed to purchase, and desire more particular information, in regard to this property, are referred to Mr. Samuel Griffin, merchant at the Cross Roads in Cambridge, or to Mr. Caleb Griffin, who resides on one of the farms. The aforesaid Nathan Griffin having been a soldier in the Revolutionary War, is also entitled to some portion of the public lands—to what extent the subscriber has not ascertained. His right to any public lands, whatever it may be, will be sold on the above day.—The whole subject to the right of dower of Mrs. Sarah Griffin, widow of Nathan Griffin, (a very aged lady.) The terms of sale, as directed by the Chancellor, are one fourth of the purchase money to be paid on the day of sale, and the residue on a credit of six and twelve months, with interest on each instalment from the day of sale, to be secured by obligation to be approved of by the subscriber. Whenever the whole purchase money is paid, the property will be conveyed to the purchasers.

MARL FOR SALE.

THE subscriber having made arrangements for disposing of the valuable shell marl, which exists on his estate in Talbot County, informs the Agricultural community, that he is now ready to deliver, of the above article any quantity that may be required, by giving him timely notice.

The Marl may be taken from the bank at the price of one cent per bushel cash.

The fertilizing properties of calcareous marl are now so well known, that it is unnecessary to advert the subject—in reference to this deposite it may be stated that it consists of Sea shells, with a very little admixture of earth, and contains from 2 to 4 times the quantity of lime that is contained in the best English marl.—Those wishing to purchase will please address William B. Smyth, Easton, Md. Vessels going for it will pass up the Great Choptank until the Dover Bridge appears in sight—they will then come to Barker's Landing where they will find the land of the undersigned on the west bank of the river.

WILLIAM B. SMYTH.
Easton, April 21 1838 3w

The following is an extract from the report of the Geologist appointed by the state of Meryland to make a minute geological survey of the State.

But perhaps the most valuable beds of shell marl in this part of Talbot County, inasmuch as they may be made extensively available to the public demands for the article, and those which were fully described in the preceeding report.—They occur three miles below Dover Bridge, forming the high bank from fifteen to twenty feet above tide, being one compact mile along the river, on the farms of the late Col. Smyth and Mr. Atkinson. These beds are in contiguous strata, apparently successive and consist of vast accumulations principally, in the ascending order, of oyster shells succeeded by clam shells intermixed with other marine shells, scollop clam and scollop and uppermost principally of scollop. Endeavour was made to bring these beds into notice, with a view of enlisting them into public service, by giving to their proprietors what was deemed proper directions for extracting the materials; and salutary advice as to a just estimate of its value in order to secure a permanent disposal of it, the subject is now in progress of experiment.—South of these banks on the Choptank, no other deposite of marl is known to accur.

The Cambridge Chronicle, Centreville Times, Kent Bugle, and Delaware Journal will copy the above, 3 times & send their accounts to the office of the Easton Gazette for collection.

The N. York Express.

The New-York Express is a Daily and Semi-weekly Newspaper, lately established in the City of New-York, by JAMES BROOKS of Portland, Maine, and ROBERT HUDSON, of Hudson's News Rooms. The price of the daily is ten dollars, and of the Semi-weekly, four dollars in advance, and five if not paid within the year.

Subscribers not known to the proprietors are expected to give references in New York, unless the money accompanies their order. The proprietors know full well that in the management of a daily newspaper in New-York, the editors must neither sleep nor slumber upon their posts, and while thousands of their fellow citizens are in their beds, that is the time for them to be at their desk, but they are prepared for this exertion. They have the health, spirits and the age for such an encounter and are ready for it knowing full as they do, the activity of some of their contemporaries and their indefatigable exertions never to be outdone.—But nevertheless, they think there is room for them. New York is increasing with a rapidity that defies calculation and mocks at prophecy—marching onwards even with trides that threaten a close approximation to the empire city of the commercial world over the sea: and sure in all this vigorous and marvellous growth, a new Journal may succeed, where others have, when New-York was, as it were, but in her swathing clothes, and not the giant she now is—with her thousand arms stretching over both the old world and new. In such a great city then; the heart of our vast land, and the link between that land and Europe—where no taxes upon paper, no stamps, no restrictions upon the Press, encumber and overload the business of Journalizing, there is ample scope and range enough for us and all our contemporaries too.

The great and primary object of the proprietors is to create a commercial Newspaper, but it is just as impossible to live in this hot political world of ours without mingling in politics, as to go into the fire without being burnt. True, when the Whigs aver that two and two make four, and the friends of Mr. Van Buren aver that two and two make three and a half, they could take the ground of neutrality, aver as loudly as either, that two and two make three & three fourths, but there is a right and a wrong side on every question, and one must in a count[illegible] like this be on one side or other.—As to [illegible] right political side, we are quite sure th[illegible] that of the Whigs, but were it other[illegible] we should be puzzled enough to publish a Commercial Journal, when Commerce and Whig principles are identified, one with another. Already we have in connexion with "Hudson's News Room,' the basis of a newspaper establishment, a Price Current, Shipping List, and excellent arrangements for all news, Foreign and American: but not satisfied with this we shall immediately push our arragements to the furtherest point for the procuring of news.—One of the Messrs. Hudsons is about to sail for Liverpool, and go from thence to London, Havre and Paris, for the purpose of devising the most expeditious and surest means of receiving commercial intelligence from abroad. The rapid arrangements that we have been compelled to make for the publication of the "Express," have of course put it out of our power to have a new Press, we have ordered one of the first quality, a double cylinder, which will be done by the middle of September, and then the 'Express' will be the largest Daily Newspaper in the World.

The arrangements of our office, though not wholly completed, are rapidly advancing. We have established, at a great expense, a Correspondence with every important section of our country, and as soon as possible we intend to do the same with every interesting part of the world. Our subscription list has increased and is still increasing beyond the highest expectations. We feel sure of ultimate success and it will therefore be our pride to deserve it. With such arrangements as these, we hope to have a fair share of public patronage, to deserve which, we shall assuredly do all that is in our power.
