The convention was organized by calling the Rev. Stevens W. Woolford to the chair, and appointing Jno. R. Martin Esq. as secretary.

The list of delegates having been called over, the following gentlemen answered to their names, and produced certificates of their appointment:

STEVENS W. WOOLFORD, Chairman.

THE STATE.—The Whigs of the various counties of this State are making timely and vigorous preparations for the fall elections. In Frederick the convention will meet on Saturday next, and we are happy to hear that our friends are sanguine of success in that fair county. Mr. Steele's election is certain, and we feel confident his majority will transcend that of the Harrison electors in 1836.

Great attention should be paid, in all the counties, to the choice of members of both branches of the legislature. The Senate, particularly, should be composed of able and experienced men. That body is vested with new and commanding powers, and it is of the first importance that its high functions should be entrusted to those who will discharge them with ability as well as fidelity.—Balt. Chron.

The loco foco papers are publishing a long address from certain members of Congress who call themselves Republican Representatives—to the people of the Union, the list is headed by Ruel Williams, U. States Senator from Maine, whom it is said assisted during the late war to burn Thomas Jefferson and James Madison, (two apostles of Democracy) in effigy, and was also one of the leaders of the Hartford Convention!

Here then is a specimen of Loco Foco Democracy—a real old Hartford Convention Federalist of 1812! Heaven save us from such democracy as Ruel Williams has, a man who at any time during the war would have sold the democrats to the British as rascals.—Centreville Times.

☞Mr. Grason said a short time ago, he revered his old Federal principles and would'nt abandon them for the sake of any men or party—Mr. Grason is consistent in this matter, at any rate, and utterly shames the political imposters who now attempt to deceive the unwary and palm him off as a Democrat.—Ib

Doings of the party in Kent county.—We learn from the Kent Bugle that Van Burenism is in such bad odour in Kent county, that 'the party' dare not bring out a candidate for the Legislature under that flag. They have therefore resorted to the old tricks of last year, 'hoisted the reform flag, and negotiated for a ticket of independent Whigs.' 'We understand (says the Bugle) that in the first and second districts they have nominated Mr. Primrose and Mr. Lassel, who seceded from the Whig party last year to become the Van Buren candidates, but that in the third district they have not succeeded in getting up a meeting. It is also understood that the Van Buren nomination for the Senatorial candidate has been offered to a hitherto unsuspected Whig, who holds it under consideration until Monday week. We will only hint to our Van Buren friends that no such dereliction from the Whig ranks will profit them any thing, neither will the tactics of their drill sergeants from Baltimore and Queen Anne's avail them aught; they may make up their minds to a drubbing, and that a sound one.'—Balt. Pat.

Correspondence of the Balt. Chronicle.

Frederick, August 11 1838

Dear Sir:—The Whig Convention has just adjourned after having nominated the following gentlemen as candidates for the next Legislature of Maryland.

For Senator.—Richard Potts.

For the House of Delegates.—Jacob Thomas of John, Suratt D. Warfield, George Schley, George Beckenbaugh, Grafton Hammond.

Every district in the county was represented, and the Convention was one of the largest that I have ever seen assembled here. The utmost good feeling prevailed; and every Whig whom I have heard speak of it, has expressed the most unqualified approval of the nomination. The Whigs of Frederick County will be inexcusable if they do not now succeed.

Yours, &c.

NEILSON POE, Esq.

GENERAL HARRISON.

We understand (says the Louisville Journal) that the patriot Harrison, in his speech at the celebration of the 4th of July, at Massillon, Ohio, fully declared his determination to abide the decision of the National Convention which is to assemble at Harrisburgh in 1839. He accompanied this declaration with high and appropiate compliments to the tried patriotism and transcendant talents of Henry Clay and Daniel Webster.—Examiner.

Neapoliton Indemnity.—It is stated in the Globe of Friday, that 'the fifth instalment of the Neapolitan indemnity has been paid to the agent of the United States in Paris, and is now in the course of transmission to this country in gold. As soon as it is received, and the nett proceeds of it ascertained, notice will be given by the Treasury department to the claimants, of the amount and places of payment.'—Baltimore Chronicle.

Governor Kent, and the Boundary.—The Bangor Whig brings us the following important information relative to the intentions of the Governor of Maine. Mr. Kent is in earnest, and the bitterest of his opponents will by and by be compelled to do justice both to the wisdom and policy of his administration. 'We understand,' says the Whig 'that the Executive government of the state are taking measures to have every thing in readiness to run the N. E. boundary line, according to the treaty of '83, on the first of next month. We suppose the course taken will be to appoint commissioners to proceed to run the line. If they meet no resistance from the provincial authorities, well and good; if they do measures will be taken to protect the commissioners by a competent military force. Already the attention of the Adjutant General has been invited to the subject.'—Portland Advertiser.

WORCESTER COUNTY.

The Whigs of Worcester have nominated the following invincible ticket.

FOR SENATOR.

William U. Purnell.

FOR DELEGATES.

Teacle Townsend.

Thomas A. Spence,

John Shelby Purnell,

——Redding.

No Joy for Mr. Lovejoy.—It has been stated that Mr. Lovejoy, of Georgia, one of the passengers saved in the late catastrophe of the Pulaski, was also on board of the Home and the William Gibbons, three of the most appalling situations of danger ever recorded.

It is now stated that while the canal packet was proceeding from Buffalo to Rochester, and when near Brockport, by some untoward accident the boat upset. It was an early hour in the morning, and the passengers were all 'on the shelves,' and all thrown off into the water, where they lay pell mell. The only means for making their escape was by breaking the upper side windows and drawing the passengers one by one. This was done and all escaped personal injury. One of the passengers was Mr. Lovejoy.

Those persons who are compelled to travel by water would do well to examine the way-bill in future, in order to see if Mr. Lovejoy's name is on it.

From the Baltimore Whig.

WHAT IS A LOCO FOCO?

You may consider a man a loco foco, when you see him pulling away the foundation of the house he lives in!

When you see a man committing injuries upon the commerce, trade and currency of his country, it is privilege to denounce him as a loco foco

You may be sure a man is a loco foco when you see him butting his head against a stone wall; but you may call him a destructive, if he perseveres in thay way.

When you hear a man advocating mobs and lawless violence, you may conclude he is a jacobin loco foco.

You may contemplate a loco foco, when you hear the Washington Globe, exclaim, 'there is no distress in the country that any honest man should regret.'

You can scent a loco foco in that part of Van Buren's message, where he says that 'the people are apt to look to government for too much.

You are supposed to be looking at a loco foco, when you see a man moving with quick returns backwards or forwards, having no shame for inconsistency, like John C. Calhoun.

When you hear a man pretending that the currency can be regulated for the benefit of the whole Union, without the aid of a national bank, you ought to mark him a loco foco—mark him well!

You are apt to suspect a man for a loco foco, as soon as you discover his ignorance! Hear him brag and brawl about liberty, when he cant tell the constitutional meaning of the word. (N. B. Rational freedom is the deadly enemy of the loco focos!)

When you see a man wear a greatcoat in very hot weather, you are at liberty in a free country to imagine that his ideas of comfort are furnished to him by the loco focos; for if you believe what they say, their ideas have always produced the greatest amount of happiness!!

You cannot help perceiving that he who advocates the impossible doctrine—the visionary scheme—of an exclusive gold and silver currency, is a genuine loco foco—a thing that loves to be deceived!

When you hear a man upholding the abuse of the liberty of the press, or claiming the right to employ the privilege of speech in the defamation of his neighbors; you must very civilly inquire of him whether he is a loco foco?

If you see a man walk out of a garret window, your charity will infer that every loco foco would not do the same thing! for amount of folly essential to the composition of a loco foco, varies very much for individuals.

And when you hear a man deny that Henry Clay has as much American wisdom as any man alive—call him a loco foco at once! unceremoniously!

THE AMERICAN SILK GROWER, AND FARMER'S MAMUAL:

Embellished with Appropriate Engravings;

Edited by

WARD CHENY & BROTHERS,

Burlington, N. J.

And Published by

CHARLES ALEXANDER, Philadelphia.

THE first number of this highly important and valuable work is now ready ror delivery to subscribers,—we beg leave respectfully to call the attention of our citizens to the praiseworthy objects it has in view, and for the promotion of which it has been put in operation.

There has not probably heretofore been a time when the attention of the people of this country was as much engaged on the subject of the Silk culture as at present, nor a time when those who have already embarked in this business felt such entire confidence not only that liberal profits may be derived from it, but also in their ability to produce as good silk as can be procured in any part of the world. It is believed that all that is now wanting to fully establish the great interests in this country, with all its vast advantages, is but the dissemination of plain practical information concerning it! and convince our citizens of what we know to be true, viz: that there is no more difficulty in raisin a crop of silk, than there is in procuring a crop of grain—the capital thus bestowed yields a far greater return than can be obtained from any other branch of husbandry.—The editors have long been engaged in the silk culture, and intend hereafter to give thir entire attention to it—they have an extensive arrangement for feeding the silk worms and cultivating that invaluable species of mulberry tree, the Morus Multicaulis. And from their long experience in the occupation and extensive correspondence with silk growers, they believe they may say without ostentation that they shall be able to make the American Silk Grower, useful and entertaining, and to communicate through its pages information as valuable respecting every branch of the silk business, as can be elsewhere obtained in the United States. A portion of the work will be devoted to noting such improvements of Agriculture and such matters as are generally useful to the cultivators of the soil.

The proprietors respectfully solicit contributions on Agricultural subjects generally; and also the silk growing business in particular. Address the editors Ward Cheny & Brothers, Burlington, N. Jersey.

The work will be published monthly; every number containin 24 large octavo pages, with the addition of a cover for advertisements &c. and at the end of each volume a complete table of contents will be furnished to subscribers. ☞Terms $1, a year, payable in advance, for single subscribers. 20 subscribers will be supplied a whole year by forwarding a current $10 bill free of postage.

All orders for the work, postage paid, will be promptly attended to, if addressed to the publisher Charles Alexander, Athenian buildings Franklin Place, Philadelphia.

Citizens, Silk Growers, Agriculturalists, and others, who wish to procure this work from the present time will please forward their names and the amount of subscription.
