Louisville Journal humorously remarks that the present plight of the Van Buren party reminds him of an anecdote of a sailor once in the service of a Yankee Farmer. Jack having been sent out to ploughing with a yoke of oxen and a horse, and not knowing much about his business, soon got the team into a hobble, whereupon he ran to his employer exclaiming—"The starboard ox has got upon the larboard side, and the old mare got afoul of the rigging and they are all going to the d—l stern foremost!"

MOORE'S LATEST.—At a concert on Friday, in Dublin, a Miss Ashe sang the following as Moore's latest lay; (yet in MS.) it is a sad falling off:

Farewell! in despair I escape from thy wiles,
Thy frowns I can bear, and even thy smiles;
Take back this dear token which blest me before,
The heart thou hast broken can prize it no more.

Now vain were thy favors; thy pity more vain;
I am lost, and forever, to pleasure and pain,
False words sweetly spoken deceived me before,
The heart thou hast broken can trust thee no more.

LAWS OF MARYLAND.

Passed at December Session, 1801.
CHAPTER 54.

An act relating to the Public Roads in the several Counties therein mentioned.

WHEREAS the present mode of repairing the public roads in Saint Mary's, Calvert, Charles, Caroline and Dorchester counties, is found by experience to be expensive, and inadequate to the purpose intended, and it has been found necessary that proper regulations should forthwith be made for keeping the roads of the said counties in due repair; therefore,

II. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Justices of the Levy Court for the counties aforesaid, or a majority of them, be and they are hereby authorised and required to meet together on the third Monday of April next, and on the same day in every year thereafter, at the respective Court Houses in the said counties, and when so met together, the said justices, or a majority of them, shall be, and they are hereby authorised and required to describe, ascertain, and distinctly record in a well bound book, to be provided by them for that purpose, the several and respective roads and public highways in the counties aforesaid, and to nominate and appoint capable and judicious persons as overseers of the several and respective roads aforesaid, according to the number and divisions of the said roads, as the same shal be ascertained upon their records; provided nevertheless, that the said roads shall be so apportioned, divided and described, as not to require a greater number of overseers than five in any one hundred of the said counties, and that the said justices, or any one or more of them, may adjourn from day to day until the said roads shall be duly ascertained, and overseers appointed as aforesaid, and in case neither of the said justices should attend as aforesaid, it shall be the duty of the clerk of the County Court to make said adjournments.

III. And be it enacted, that the clerk of the said county shall attend the justices of the Levy Court at their said meetings, and shall make fair entries and records of their proceedings in virtue of this act, and shall, within the space of ten days after the appointment of overseers as aforesaid, issue warrants to the said overseers, under his hand and the seal of his office, notifying the said persons of their appointments respectively as overseers of the said roads, according to the usual forms, having respect to the alterations required by this act, and the said clerk shall, within the time aforesaid, deliver the said warrants to the Sheriff of the several counties aforesaid, and shall take the receipt of the Sheriff for the same; and the said Sheriff shall be and he is hereby authorised and required, within the space of fifteen days after receiving the said warrants, to deliver the same to the respective arersons appointed overseers as aforesaid and to take their several receipts for the same; and if any of the said overseers shall refuse to receive their respective warrants, the said sheriff shall leave the same at their place of abode, and certify the justices of the levy court thereof; and if the clerk or sheriff of any of the said counties shall neglect or refuse to execute and perform the respective duties herein before required, within the respective periods limited as aforesaid, the said clerks or sheriffs so neglecting or refusing shall forfeit and pay the sum of fifty dollars for each and every offence.

IV. And be it enacted, That each and every person so appointed overseer as aforesaid, who shall neglect or refuse to accept of his appointment, after receiving his warrant as aforesaid, shall forfeit and pay the sum of ten dollars for every refusal or neglect; provided nevertheless, that no person shall be liable to be appointed as overseer of any road more than one year in every three years, without his consent.

V. And be it enacted, that it shall be the duty of the said overseers to keep all public roads in the said counties well & sufficiently cleared and grubbed, fit for travelling, twenty feet wide at the least, except in such parts thereof where the levy court shall allow or direct the said road to be of a less width, and to make and keep good and substantial bridges over all the heads of rivers, creeks, branches and swamps, where the same shall be necessary, for the convenient and easy passage of travellers, with their waggons, carts, carriages, horses and cattle, and to remove all nuisances which may obstruct or annoy their passage, and well and sufficiently to causeway all and singular such places in and upon the said roads as shall require the same.

VI. And be it enacted, That if any of the said overseers shall not well and sufficiently clear, grub, amend and repair, the said several and respective roads committed to their charge, within a reasonable time after the same shall be out of repair, or shall not make and keep in repair good and substantial bridges over the heads of rivers, creeks, branches or swamps, where the same shall be necessary as aforesaid, or shall not not remove all nuisances from the said roads, or shall not well and sufficiently causeway all and singular such places in and upon the said roads as shall require the same, or shall permit or suffer any fallen trees, or other obstruction, to remain in or across any of the said public roads for the space of two days after notice thereof, or shall neglect to fell, or cause to be felled & removed, all decayed or dead trees on either side of the said public roads, whose limits, or any of them, hang over the same, and may by their falling injure travellers, or shall not lop and cut off all limbs or branches of trees hanging or projecting over the said roads, within fifteen feet above the surface thereof, or shall in any other manner fail or neglect to perform the duties of an overseer of the said roads, according to the directions of this act, every such overseer, so failing or neglecting, shal forfeit and pay the sum of five dollars for every offence, except in time of wheat harvest.

VII. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the several and respective overseers of the said roads, and they are hereby authorised and empowered, as often as need shall require, to dig, take and remove, any stones, gravel, or earth of firm quality, which may be found on any land adjoining the roads for which the same may be necessary, and to employ the same in the repairing of the said roads; and for the making or repairing of bridges over the heads of rivers, creeks, branches, swamps, or other low and miry places, through and over which the said roads may pass, to cut down, or cause to be cut down, any tree or trees growing on any of the next adjacent lands to such places where bridges may be necessary as aforesaid, and the same trees to maul and carry away from off such lands, and to apply the same to the making or repairing of the said bridges; provided, that it shall be the duty of each and every overseer aforesaid to render a true account, (certified under their hands and seals respectively,) of all and singular such tree or trees by them cut down and taken for the purpose aforesaid, with a description of the size and quality of such tree or trees, together with their estimation of the value thereof, to the owner, tenant or overseer, of the lands from whence the same shall shall have been taken, and to return a duplicate of such account, on oath, to the next levy court of the county, in order that the justices of said court may be enabled to estimate the real value thereof, to be allowed or paid to such owner or owners in such manner as said justices shall appoint and direct.

VIII. And be it enacted, That the said overseers shall have power, and they are hereby authorised and required, to call upon all and singular the free able bodied male inhabitants of their respective limits, above the age of eighteen years and under the age of fifty years, and upon all and singular the able bodied male slaves residing therein, above the age of eighteen years and under the age of fifty years, to labour and assist in clearing, amending, improving and repairing, the several and respective roads aforesaid, and to require such and so many of the said persons as they shall from time to time deem necessary, to assemble at such place within their respective limits as the said overseers shall severally appoint, with sufficient implements of labor, and thereupon to proceed in the execution of such work and labor upon the said roads, for the improvement and repair thereof, as the respective overseers shall order and direct; and the said overseers shall also have power to hire and employ carts and teams for the carrying and removing all such stones, dirt, gravel and timber, as may be deemed requisite for repairing and completing the said roads and bridges, and the expence of such carts and teams shall be levied upon the county.

IX. And be it enacted, That within one month after the receipt of their respective warrants, the several overseers aforesaid, under the directions of the said justices, shall repair to the house of every tenant or proprietor residing within the limits attached to their respective roads, and shall take down a proper list of the names of all and singular the free able bodied male inhabitants residing therein, above the age of eighteen and under the age of fifty, and of all theable bodied male slaves above the age of eighteen years and under the age of fifty years; and the said overseers shall justly and impartially call for and require the labor of all and singular the persons aforesaid, alternately, and in such convenient numbers and classes as to place the burthen of their service equally upon all; provided neverthelesss, that the labor of the said persons shall not be called forth for the purpose of this act during the season of wheat harvest, nor in such manner as to take more than half the number of laborers belonging to one family, in which there are more than one laborer at the same time.

X. And be it enacted, That as often as the said overseers shall judge it necessary to call upon the said inhabitants for their labor in and upon the said roads, they shall summon, or cause to be summoned, the number and class which they shall have previously arranged, having had regard to the quantity and quality of work necessary to be done upon the said roads, giving each person, and the master, mistress or overseer of each servant or slave, so to be summoned, two days notice at the least of the time and place appointed for their labor, except in such extraordinary cases which may require a shorter notice, and every person so summoned shall be obliged to attend in person, or to provide a sufficient substitute; and if any person, being so summoned, shall neglect or refuse to attend, or to provide a sufficient substitute, he shall forfeit and pay the sum of seventy-five cents for every offence; and if any person shall attend, and not perform the reasonable labor required of him by the overseer of the road, according to his ability, he shall be adjudged a defaulter, and shall incur the same penalty as if he had neglected to attend; and in case the master, mistress or overseer, of any servant or slave, upon being notified as aforesaid, shall refuse or neglect to send such servant or slave, such master, mistress or overseer, shall forfeit and pay the sum of seventy-five cents for every servant or slave so refused to be sent.

XI. And be it enacted, That tt shall be the duty of the said overseers to keep a true and proper list of all and every person or defaulter. who, being summoned as aforesaid, shall neglect or refuse to attend at the times and places appointed as aforesaid, or if attending, shall not perform his reasonable labour, and of every master, mistress or overseer of servants and slaves, who call upon each and every of the said persons, and demand the payment of all and singular the sums of money by them, or any of them, so forfeited, and on refusal or neglect to pay the same, the said overseers shall proceed to recover the same before a single magistrate, by due course of law; and the said overseers shall, every six months, render their accounts of all fines and forfeitures received by them in virtue of this act to the justices of the levy court, upon oath, or affirmation, and pay the amount thereof in such manner as the said justice shall order and appoint.

XIV. And be it enacted, That any of the justices of the peace of the said counties, who, upon his own view, or on the information, oath or affirmation, of one or more credible witnesses, shall discover or be satisfied that any bridge, road or causeway, is out of repair, from neglect of duty of the overseer within whose limits the same shall be, except in time of wheat harvest, shall issue his warrant, in the name of the state, against such overseer, and if judgment shall be rendered against him for the fine or forfeiture imposed by this act, the same shall be certified by the justice rendering the same to the clerk of the said county, who shall thereupon issue process of execution, directed to the sheriff, for the recovery thereof, and the same shall be accounted for and paid to the order of the levy court; provided nevertheless, that nothing herein contained shall prevent any of the said overseers offending against the provisions of this act from being presented by the grand jury for any neglect of duty not before punished by any of the justices of the peace as aforesaid; and provided also, that any overseer of the road against whom judgment shall be rendered by a justice of the peace as aforesaid, may appeal to the next county court. who may hear and determine the same in a summary way, and such appeal shall be a supersedeas to the issuing execution on the judgment of such justice, until the same shall be heard and determined by the county court.

Devereux Traverse
vs:
James E. Stewart and Charlotte his wife, Mary Chandler, Henrietta Loockerman, Thos. Loockerman and James Loockerman

In Chancery, 30th June.

THE object of the bill filed in this cause is to obtain a decree for the conveyance of the land hereinafter mentioned.

The bill states that on or about the 16th of July, 1816, a certain William Lecompte and a certain Thomas Loockerman bargained and sold to the complainant a tract or part of a tract of land, supposed to contain one hundred acres, adjoining the lands of Richard Airey, Thomas Stewart, and Henry Edmondson, provided the said complainant paid to said William Lecompte and Thomas Loockerman the balance of the purchase money of said Land at six dollars per acre in thirty days from the said date, and if not paid by that time, the said William Lecompte and Thomas Loockerman agreed to return to complainant the sum of one hundred and twenty-one dollars and thirty two cents paid on the same day. That the balance of the purchase money has been fully paid and satisfied. That said land is the same land which was bought of Robert N. Carnan and wife and conveyed to a certain Charles Lecompte, and was afterwards devised by said Charles Lecompte to his son William Lecompte one of the defendants, and the said land was afterwards conveyed to the said Thomas Loockerman as security for a sum of money which was paid by complainant with the knowledge and approbation of the said William Lecompte to the said Thomas Loockerman, in part of the purchase money agreed to be paid by complainant. That said Thomas Loockerman has departed this life and left the following persons his heirs at law, to wit: Charlotte Loockerman who has intermarried with James E. Stewart, Mary Loockerman who has intermarried with Edward Chandler, since dead, Henrietta Loockerman, James Loockerman and Thomas Loockerman. That neither William Lecompte nor Thomas Loockerman in his life, nor any of the heirs of Thomas Loockerman have conveyed to the complainant the said land. The bill also states that the said James E. Steuart and Charloote his wife, Mary Chandler, Henrietta Loockerman, Thomas Loockerman and James Loockerman, reside out of the state of Maryland.

It is therefore ordered that the complainant by causing a copy of this order to be published in some newspaper once in each of three successive weeks before the 5th day of August next. give notice to the said non resident defendants of the substance and object of the bill that they may be warned to appear in this court in person, or by a solicitor, on or before the 30th day of November next, to shew cause if any they have, why a decree should not be passed as prayed.
