THOMAS DAIL & ANN HIS WIFE, & WHEATLEY BECKWITH AND JOHN WHEATLEY vs: Catherine Mitchell and others.	In Chancery, 22nd June, 1837.

THE object of the Bill filed in this cause is to obtain a decree for the sale of the Real Estate of Nehemiah Wheatley, lying and being in Dorchester county, the same not being susceptible of division.

The Bill states that the said Nehemiah Wheatley departed this life about the year 1814, and devised by his last will and Testament, all his lands to Elizabeth Stewart and Eliza Partridge for life, and he died intestate as to the reversion which descended in fee to the following persons equally to wit, Augustus Wheatley, John wheatley, (one of the complainants) Arthur wheatley, Mary wheatley who intermarried with a Mitchell, Elizabeth wheatley who intermarried with a certain Wheeler, Sarah wheatley who intermarried with a certain wheeler, Catharine wheatley who intermarried with a certain Jenkins, (whose interest in said Estate being one-eighth part, was sold and conveyed for a valuable consideration to Wheatley Beckwith, one of the complainants,) and Ann Wheatley who intermarried with Thomas Dail, also one of the complainants:—That the said Augustus wheatley who was entitled to one eight part, has departed this life and left one or more children, his heirs at law, whose names are not known to the complainants—That Arthur wheatly has also died intestate, and left one or more children his heirs at law, whose names are not known; That Mary Mitchell hath departed this life, and left an only child, Catharine Mitchell—That the said Nehemiah Wheatley, died, seized of Real Estate, lying and being in Dorchester county, which cannot be divided without injury to the parties interested. The Bill also states that the legal representatives and heirs at law of the said Augustus wheatley, and also of the said Elizabeth wheeler, and also of the said Sarah wheeler, reside out of the state of Maryland, and also, that the said Catherine Mitchell resides out of the state of Maryland.

It is thereupon ordered, that the Complainants by causing a Copy of this order to be published in some news paper, once in each of three successive weeks, before the 30th day of July next, give notice to the legal representatives and heirs at law of the said Augustus Wheatley, and of the said Arthur Wheatley, and of the said Elizabeth Wheeler, and of the said Sarah Wheeler, and also to the said Catherine Mitchell of the substance and object of the Bill, that they may be warned to appear in this Court in person, or by a Solicitor, on or before the 22nd day of November next, to shew cause if any they have why a Decree should not be passed as prayed.

Devereux Traverse vs: James E. Stewart and Charlotte his wife, Mary Chandler, Henrietta Loockerman, Thos. Loockerman and James Loockerman	In Chancery, 30th June.

THE object of the bill filed in this cause is to obtain a decree for the conveyance of the land hereinafter mentioned.

The bill states that on or about the 16th of July, 1816, a certain William Lecompte and a certain Thomas Loockerman bargained and sold to the complainant a tract or part of a tract of land, supposed to contain one hundred acres, adjoining the lands of Richard Airey, Thomas Stewart, and Henry Edmondson, provided the said complainant paid to said William Lecompte and Thomas Loockerman the balance of the purchase money of said Land at six dollars per acre in thirty days from the said date, and if not paid by that time, the said William Lecompte and Thomas Loockerman agreed to return to complainant the sum of one hundred and twenty-one dollars and thirty two cents paid on the same day. That the balance of the purchase money has been fully paid and satisfied. That said land is the same land which was bought of Robert N. Carnan and wife and conveyed to a certain Charles Lecompte, and was afterwards devised by said Charles Lecompte to his son William Lecompte one of the defendants, and the said land was afterwards conveyed to the said Thomas Loockerman as security for a sum of money which was paid by complainant with the knowledge and approbation of the said William Lecompte to the said Thomas Loockerman, in part of the purchase money agreed to be paid by complainant. That said Thomas Loockerman has departed this life and left the following persons his heirs at law, to wit: Charlotte Loockerman who has intermarried with James E. Stewart, Mary Loockerman who has intermarried with Edward Chandler, since dead, Henrietta Loockerman, James Loockerman and Thomas Loockerman. That neither William Lecompte nor Thomas Loockerman in his life, nor any of the heirs of Thomas Loockerman have conveyed to the complainant the said land. The bill also states that the said James E. Steuart and Charloote his wife, Mary Chandler, Henrietta Loockerman, Thomas Loockerman and James Loockerman, reside out of the state of Maryland.

It is therefore ordered that the complainant by causing a copy of this order to be published in some newspaper once in each of three successive weeks before the 5th day of August next. give notice to the said non resident defendants of the substance and object of the bill that they may be warned to appear in this court in person, or by a solicitor, on or before the 30th day of November next, to shew cause if any they have, why a decree should not be passed as prayed.

The N. York Express.

The New-York Express is a Daily and Semi-weekly Newspaper, lately established in the City of New-York, by JAMES BROOKS of Portland, Maine, and ROBERT HUDSON, of Hudson's News Rooms. The price of the daily is ten dollars, and of the Semi-weekly, four dollars in advance, and five if not paid within the year.

Subscribers not known to the proprietors are expected to give references in New York, unless the money accompanies their order. The proprietors know full well that in the managemeut of a daily newspaper in New-York, the editors must neither sleep nor slumber upon their posts, and while thousands of their fellow citizens are in their beds, that is the time for them to be at their desk, but they are prepared for this exertion. They have the health, spirits and the age for such an encounter and are ready for it knowing full as they do, the activity of some of their contemporaries and their indefatigable exertions never to be outdone.—But nevertheless, they think there is room for them. New York is increasing with a rapidity that defies calculation and mocks at prophecy—marching onwards even with strides that threaten a close approximation to the empire city of the commericial world over the sea: and sure in all this vigorous and marvellous growth, a new Journal may succeed, where others have, when New-York was, as it were, but in her swathing clothes, and not the giant she now is—with her thousand arms stretching over both the old world and new. In such a great city then; the heart of our vast land, and the link between that land and Europe—where no taxes upon paper, no stamps, no restrictions upon the Press, encumber and overload the business of Journalizing, there is ample scope and range enough for us and all our contemporaries too.

The great and primary object of the proprietors is to create a commercial Newspaper, but it is just as impossible to live in this hot political world of ours without mingling in politics, as to go into the fire without being burnt. True, when the Whigs aver that two and two make four, and the friends of Mr. Van Buren aver that two and two make three and a half, they could take the ground of neutrality, aver as loudly as either, that two and two make three & three fourths, but there is a right and a wrong side on every question, and one must in a country like this be on one side or other.—As to this right political side, we are quite sure that it is that of the Whigs, but were it otherwise, we should be puzzled enough to publish a Commercial Journal, when Commerce and Whig principles are identified, one with another. Already we have in connexion with "Hudson's News Room,' the basis of a newspaper establishment, a Price Current, Shipping List, and excellent arrangements for all news, Foreign and American: but not satisfied with this we shall immediately push our arragements to the furtherest point for the procuring of news.—One of the Messrs. Hudsons is about to sail for Liverpool, and go from thence to London, Havre and Paris, for the purpose of devising the most expeditious and surest means of receiving commercial intelligence from abroad. The rapid arrangements that we have been compelled to make for the publication of the "Express," have of course put it out of our power to have a new Press, we have ordered one of the first quality, a double cylinder, which will be done by the middle of September, and then the 'Express' will be the largest Daily Newspaper in the World.

The arrangements of our office, though not wholly completed, are rapidly advancing. We have established, at a great expense, a Correspondence with every important section of our country, and as soon as possible we intend to do the same with every interesting part of the world. Our subscription list has increased and is still increasing beyond the highest expectations. We feel sure of ultimate success and it will therefore be our pride to deserve it. With such arrangements as these, we hope to have a fair share of public patronage, to deserve which, we shall assuredly do all that is in our power.

The New-Yorker,

QUARTO EDITION.

THE publishers of the "New-Yorker," encouraged by the generous and steadily increasing patronage which has hitherto rewarded their exertions, propose to issue from the commencement of their third volume, on the 26th of March ensuing, a new Double Quarto Edition of their journal, not instead of, but in addition to, the one now published. Advertisements, except possibly a few of a strictly literary character, will be entirely excluded; and, in addition to all the matter presented in the folio New-Yorker, the quarto will contain a page of popular music, &c. &c., and be accompanied by a handsome title-page and comprehensive index at the close of the volume.

The general features of the New-Yorker will remain essentially as they have heretofore been. Its columns will contain—

I. General Literature. Original Tales, Essays, Reviews, Poems, &c., with corresponding selections from the Quarterlies, Monthlies, and all the best class of periodicals, foreign and American, with choice extracts from new works of substantial excellence. The Editor acknowledges with pride and gratitude his obligation to his regular contributors—and among them are some whose names have shed lustre on the cause of American literature—for the steadfast support hitherto afforded him, and the confidence with which he is now enabled to assure the public that it will not soon be withdrawn. He takes pleasure in recalling the fact, that, since the establishment of the New Yorker, no other journal has afforded an equal extent and variety, of the productions of all eminent American writers of whatever section or class—a characteristic which he hopes it may still preserve; while his selections from the best foreign works have been exceeded—in quantity at least—by those of but three or four among the myriad of the cis-Atlantic periodicals.

II. National Politics. It has been the aim of the Editor to present a full and fair exhibit of the aspects, movements and struggles of parties in our country, including the meeting of Conventions, nomination of candidates for State and National offices, and all other significant manifestations of political feeling, with the general results of elections, as fast as ascertained, and the official canvass in each instance, as soon as it shall have reached us. This course is believed to be in many respects original with this journal; and it is considered that we have just cause of felicitation in the fact, that, pursued as it has been through two years of unremitted political warfare, the fairness and general accuracy of our statements and returns have very rarely, if ever, been questioned. The Editor reserves in himself the right of remarking, as circumstances may seem to require and justice to dictate, on the less exciting political topics of the day, as on all others, with calmness, deference and moderation; but he will strive—he trusts not less successfully than hitherto—to exclude from the columns of the New-Yorker every observation, reflection, or even argument, which may wantonly do violence to the sincere convictions of any well-informed reader, of whatever principle or party.

III. General Intelligence. In this department we can only promise the most unwearied industry and patience in the collection, condensation, and arrangement of the news, foreign and domestic, which may be gathered from the weekly reception of four hundred journals, including some choice European periodicals, and which may be afforded us by by the attention of our friends abroad.

Literary Notices, Statistics, brief notices of works of Art, Amusements, the Drama, &c. &c., will from time to time be given. As a general rule, however, it will be the aim of the Editor to embody such article whether original or selected, as can all at least combine instruction with amusement.

Mr. Editor—you are authorised to announce through the columns of your paper, our well tried and most worthy friend,

HIRAM W. WOOLFORD,

as a candidate for the next Sheriffalty of Dorchester County, who will be strongly supported by
