PRAYER FOR OUR "BOYS OVER THERE"

Our Father, in Thy Infinite Love
Thou dost give to us
These dear boys,
From your great heart above.
For us to rule in our humble way
To care for them at their work their play
To [illegible] our motherly breast,
Dear Father with Thy [illegible]
Light of Love,
We do our best,
And leave Thee the rest.
But what if this thing we call war?
Will not Thee the spirit of youth
Invade, mar,
These babes who were taught
At mother's knee
To love thy neighbor,
To love and honor Thee.
My very own boy
As dear to me as life could be,
Is somewhere o'er the sea.
He would not have me pray for him alone
But for every boy who is away from home.
Sweethearts, cousins, friends, are every one
They all have the same human woes.

They have given of their all,
Answered promptly every call
In this great cause for Freedom,
Democracy, and Peace,
[illegible] our leader in conquest
As they acknowledge Thee,
The Great Center of all men,
As the Faith of our Fathers, living still,

Such Faith, hope and courage
Our boys are displaying In cooperation with Thy will.
O God, give them wisdom,
Give them grace
For the facing of this hour.
When the battle is o'er
The victory won
I pray they may hear
"Thy will be done".

I do not know why Lizzie Jane is always trying to get me in trouble. What is up now? She thinks she knows it all. But I am a lawyer and I know a few things too. When I took a bag of Jones' best Flour home and that old fashioned Porrik molasses she said, boy, you are the real thing. Lizzie Jane is one of the best girls in this town when she is asleep. So while she sleeps I will tell you what S. H. Jones has for sale. Men's Stetson hats $1.75; other hats 69c; paint $2 gal.; books written by S. H. Jones, 10c, 25c, 50c each. Buy one and send to your friends, it will do you both good. Apples 6c pound, large sweet and juicy oranges; mackeral 20c and 25c; hog feed to make the hogs grow, laying mash for more eggs; men's galoshes $2.50; women's galoshes $1.25; boys' pants 59c; boys and girls raincoats $2.50; men's raincoats $5; one Chevrolet ton truck, good rubber, $225; men's caps 35c; men's suits, $5 up; men's rubber shoes $1; cakes and crackers made by National Biscuit Co. When you eat them you will come back for more, they are so crisp and nice. If you have no teeth they will melt in your mouth. Look here, boys' coat sweaters with pockets $1.59 each. Awful cheap. At S. H. Jones'. Get one at once.—S. H. JONES, Church Creek, Maryland.
