fluid flame, and it is reported that not a single rebel house has been left standing. God only knows what is to become of the surviving Canadians and their wives and families during the approaching winter, as nothing but starvation from hunger and cold stares them in the face.

GEORGIA POLITICS.—We received yesterday the Milledgville Journal giving us a correct account of the organization of the two houses of the Georgia Legislature. It appears from this statement that the parties are tied in the lower house, and that the opponents of the administration have a majority of four in the Senate.

The Journal also contains the message of Gov. GILMER. It is confined to local interest, and is calm and dignified in its tone.

He recommends an alteration in the organization of the Legislature, reducing the members of the lower house, and apportioning them among the counties according to population. The Senate is now formed of a member from each county, and he purposes that the number should be reduced and the State divided into Senatorial districts. These are what we infer to be the views of the Governor, although they are not so fully expressed.

Nothing further has been done in regard to the controversy with Maine about the delivering up of two persons demanded as fugitives from justice and charged with kidnapping two negro slaves. The demand of Governor Gilmer for the delivery to the authorities of Georgia was refused by Gov. Kent, of Maine, and the matter was then referred by the former, as he was required, to the Legislature of Maine, and Gov. Gilmer recommends that Georgia should refrain from further action until its decision be declared.

We learn from this message that the Legislature of Maine passed a law last March, leaving it discretionary with the Governor to comply or not with the demand of any other State, for the delivery of a fugitive from justice. This is a matter which has heretofore been considered as entirely under the control of the Constitution of the United States, and the acts of Congress passed in compliance with it, and which left no discretion with the Governors of States. This has always been the doctrine heretofore and the practice has been in correspondence with it. The course proposed by Maine appears to us to be liable to great objection,—if indeed, it be not in violation of the constitution of the United States,—for in all such cases: as the one now pending between Georgia and Maine, the prejudices of the people and the influence of abolitionists will interfere and endanger the harmony of the States.

Gov. Gilmer, in connection with the subject of banks, takes occasion to express his opinion upon the Sub-Treasury Scheme. It has been the policy of the recreant Whigs of the South, to claim every prominent man of that section of the country as decidedly for the 'divorce' —as they not inappropriately termed the attempt to separate the government from the people—and we have seen Gov. Gilmer set down repeatedly by the Administration papers as an advocate of that scheme. How far they were justified, by his true opinions, in making such a claim may be judged from the following extract from his message, the only paragraph, in fact in the whole document, in which the subject of national politics alluded to:—

Intimately connected with the subject of Banks, is the policy proposed by the administration of the General Government, of collecting the public dues exclusively in gold and silver, and entrusting their safe-keeping, until required for expenditure, to individuals instead of Banks. The effect of these measures, if they had been adopted by Congress, would have been to have added to the cost of all goods, upon which duties are paid; increased the difficulty of purchasing public lands to every citizen, except large capitalists and office holders: endangered the currency, by constantly withdrawing from the Banks the basis of their circulation; lessened the safety of the keeping of the revenue; added to the uncertainty and expense of transferring the public money, from the places of collection to places of expenditure; and to have locked up the public money, from the time of collection until wanted for the purposes of the Government instead of permitting it to add to the circulating wealth of the country, through the means of general deposites in the Banks. Nor would the country have been compensated for these injurious consequences from the proposed measures, by any corresponding advantages. The divorce of the Government from the Banks could only have resulted in forming a more intimate connection between its beneficiaries and the people's money, and increasing the dependence of the officers of the Government and public contractors upon the President, by enlarging the profits of the spoils to be divided among them.

This decided stand of Gov. Gilmer cannot but have a salutary effect upon the people of Georgia, who have a high estimate of his good sense and honesty of purpose, and among whom he enjoys a degree of popularity which is the offspring of his own merit. Mr. Calhoun's influence, when brought in competition with his, will be found as nothing.

HOW TO TURN A FEDERALIST INTO A DEMOCRAT.

Many of our readers who have seen the wonderful mutations which have gone on in this city and elsewhere, by which livers well known, hoary-headed federalists, arrank as rabbits, have been suddenly transformed into water-proof democrats, must be curious at the process. The speed and facility of the operation are manifest to every body, but it is only now the receipt has been made public. The patent Jackson white wash is the name of the inestimable fluid, the prescription for concocting which is thus furnished in the Boston Nettle.—[N. York Com. Adv.

"Take humbug, nonsense and lies, each equal quantities; simmer it over a "blaze of glory;" pour in slang quantum suff, and stir it up with the tail of an old snake. If the ingredients do not coalesce and "amalgamate," add more slang. Ass's load of hickory stumps, with a handful of Benton brimstone, touched with a loco-foco match will make "glory enough;" but in all cases where the mixture does not boil high, pour in more slang. Read the constitution bottom upwards, pronounce the words Federalism—Monster—Nick Biddle—Hocka'orum jig!—and the thing is done.

"This inestimable Jackson white wash will make a pure democrat out of the blackest of all political renegades—and that with so admirable a transformation, that the subject shall not know himself, when he sees himself, in a glass—or a newspaper. When the whitewash, is thick it may be put on with a trowel, but in such cases, a bronze covering for the face is recommended, the exposure of that part of the body during the process, would be both inconvenient and awkward. Three coats will make a "pure democrat," and four, well dried, an "admirably qualified" patriot.

"The subject who is to undergo white washing should be stripped to the skin though if he have any conscience he will probably object to this. In such a case, he may be whitewashed over his coat, provided it be thoroughly turned. When this is done, clap a collar on him, hand he will do almost as well as if he were a pure democrat to the back bone.

Great excitement in BOSTON.

TREMBLING AMONG THE MEDICAL FACULTY!!!

We learn that the distinguished Dr. WATSON, 276, Washington street, and Dr. S. C. HEWETT, the celebrated bone-setter, 297 Washington street, (two of the most skillful practitioners in Boston,) have witnessed the happy effects of Goelicke's Matchless Sanative in several cases which have come under their observation, have given the general Agent of this great modern medicine, permission to refer to them through the public journals. It is with pleasure, we notice such acts of disinterested benevolence, and this noble generosity of Drs. H. and W. bespeak their genuine philanthropy.

We understand, Dr. Watson is of the opinion, that as the Sanative has created such a tremendous excitement among the Medical Faculty, it must be something extraordinary and far superior to the common nostrums of the day—and there cannot be a doubt, but when the virtues of this great specific shall be duly appreciated by Physicians, they will frankly acknowledge it to be the most valuable addition which has been made to the Materia Medica since the days of Hippocrates.

We further learn that the General Agent of the Sanative has the liberty to refer his fellow citizens to Dr. Hewet, for two very interesting cases which came within the knowledge of the Doctor. One of the cures as we learn, was effected upon a young lady afflicted with "Lumbar Abscess"—and so serious was her complaint, that she was unable to submit to Dr. H's usual mode of treatment in such cases. He advised her to try the Sanative, she did so, and before taking one phial, was entirely cured and not a vestige of her disease remains!! Another, a gentleman aged 45, pronounced by all who knew him to be in a 'confirmed CONSUMPTION,' was wonderfully restored to health by the use of only one phial of the SANATIVE—and he is now well and about his daily business as usual!

We think the open and candid course pursued by Dr's. Watson and Hewett richly entitle them to the lasting gratitude of the public—although they may have the whole phalanx of the Medical Faculty pouncing upon them.

After reading the above, and the following extracts from letters addressed to Dr. Rowland, by his agents, who can for a moment doubt the powers of the mighty Sanative!

Amherst, N. H. Jan. 1 1838.

Dr. Rowland I sold a phial of the Matchless Sanative to a gentleman who was in a Confirmed Consumption, pronounced PAST ANY RELIEF and confined to his room—he had settled his affairs and prepared to meet his fate. He has not taken a whole bottle, and says his health is restored, that he is entirely well, and impute the cure to the Sanative and to nothing else. Many others who have taken it make similar statements.

Yours respectfully, &c.
THOMAS M. BENDER.

Orland Post Office, Maine, March 30, 1838.

Dear Sir—The Matchless Sanative has had a wonderful effect in several cases in this town. I sold a phial to a man who had been sick with Consumptive and Rheumatic complaints for 4 or 5 years, and who was unable to dress himself when he commenced taking it. He has recently sent me word that he felt quite well, could dress himself without any trouble, and thinks he shall wholly recover.

Yours, in haste,
R. TRUSSEL, P. M.

Rush Post Office, Monroe Co. N. Y. March 14, 1838.

Dear Sir—In 48 hours after I received the package of Sanative, I sold all of it—and have come to the conclusion that it must be all that it is recommended to be. It is sufficient to say, that the benefit derived from a short use of it, has convinced the most prejudiced of its utility. The enclosed money you will pass to my account, and I wish you to send me more of the Sanative as soon as convenient.

Respectfully, &c.
JOHN B. CROSBY, P. M.

Haverhill, Mass. March 26, 1838.

Dear Sir—Numerous cases have come to my knowledge in which the Sanative has proved very beneficial—and one case in particular, in which it performed a wonder. I can procure you a good certificate from the patient if you wish. Please credit me with the enclosed money, and forward me more of the Sanative by the bearer.

Yours truly,

Westfield Post Office, N. Y. Feb 16, 1838.

Dear Sir—Several pressing cases demand the Sanative at whatever expense it can be sent to me. It has effected some astonishing cures already, and I cannot wait for the package you say is on the way. I wish you would send me half a dozen phials by MAIL and I will put the extra price of postage, on the Sanative. Dont fail to send by the mail, as it will come by weight at $1 per ounce as postage, and I shall expect it in 12 days from date.

ORRIS NICHOLS, P. M.

Hartford, Ct. April 12. 1838.

Dear Sir—My daughter, who had a distressing cough, raised a great deal of matter, and who was afflicted with palpitation of the heart, has taken a phial of the Sanative and is now WELL. Others also bear testimony to its good effects.

Yours respectfully,
C. R COMSTOCK.

Plymouth, Mass. Feb. 6, 1838.

Dear Sir—I have abundance of matter to tell you concerning the Sanative, where it has performed cures when those who have bought it, had scarcely any faith in its efficacy. We have one person now able to attend to her domestic concerns, who was at the time she commenced taking it, confined to her chamber and prostrated on her bed. I will tell you more when I see you

Respectfully, &c.
ISAAC B. RICH.

Beaver Post Office, Pa. March 1, 1838.

Dear Sir—Since I last wrote you, I have seen several persons who have been using the Sanative, and in every case it has proved itself worthy the name it bears. A young man, Robert McIlhery had been wasting away in a seated consumption for the last two years—and by using this medicine about six weeks, his cough, pains, &c. left him entirely, and he is now so well as to be about his ordinary business.

Indeed sir, from the rapidity of the sales, the value of the Sanative may be safely determined. I am wholly out, have daily calls for it, and wish you would forward me more as soon as possible.

Yours, &c.

"☞The above powerful and invaluable medicine is doing wonders in this section of the country, as well as in others. Applications for it have been made in various places in this vicinity. A young lady in this town has been restored from a consumption and confirmed in health by the use of it—No mistake. She had been visited by various physicians, but all to no purpose. One phial of this medicine produced the long desired effect.

A few more bottles of this efficacious medicine may be found at the Post Office if applied for soon. J. NYE.

From Timothy George, Esq. Orrington Me.

"My wife has been considered of a consumptive habit for two years, attended with a severe cough, but has always or generally attended to her domestic concerns until the forepart of last winter, when she had a sudden and severe attack of pain in her side, and distressed for breath. I immediately called upon one of our best Physicians, who attended carefully upon her, and I was well satisfied with his treatment of her case, though her distress was partially alleviated, there was no hope of her recovery, her Doctor told her that she had the consumption, and that her LEFT LUNG WAS PARTIALLY CONSUMED, and seemed to despair of her recovery, as well as myself; we calculated she could not continue but a short time, he left her nothing but sleeping powder to command her rest, when providentially I fell in with those Sanative Drops, and though she was altogether faithless the first drop she took gave her some relief, she continued taking them exactly according to the directions, her appetite was soon restored to a child's appetite, and she continued gradually to recover so that I do not know but her health is now as good as it has been since we married say ten years

N. B. She took about one and one half bottles when she called herself well."

HEAR YE!

THE MATCHLESS SANATIVE (sold by DUTTON, CLARK, & CO., Agents for Battleboro' Vt.) has effected many cures of diseases so obstinate as to resist the skill of Physicians and the power of other remedies. The following are a few of the Testimonials of the efficacy of this medicine, which they now cheerfully lay before the public. Many more individuals can be referred to by them as having been greatly benefited by using the Sanative.

Certificate from Thos. Crosby of Brattleboro.

This certifies that my daughter has for a long time been in a decline, and has tried many medicines without effect. She has made use of the Matchless Sanative, which has greatly relieved her. It restored her appetite and sleep, which she had not before enjoyed for a long time. I would cheerfully recommend to all suffering with consumptive complaints.

THOMAS CROSBY.

Brattleboro, March 13, 1838.

Certificate from Henry Clark, Esq. of Brattleboro.

This certifies that I had suffered for many months from an obstinate cough which resisted a great variety of medicines, until I used a bottle of the Matchless Sanative, which removed it entirely in the course of two or three weeks and restored me to excellent health.

HENRY CLARK.

Brattleboro, March 12th, 1838.

Certificate from Samuel Cutting, E. Guilford, Vt.

I, Samuel Cutting, of Guilford, Vt. would certify that I have suffered for more than two years past from a severe lung complaint, attended with severe pain in my side and back, and with general debility. I have used a great variety of medicines from various Physicians in this vicinity, and received advice from the most eminent Physicians of Boston, without the least benefit. I am now using the last bottle of the Matchless Sanative, which medicine has greatly relieved me. The pain in my side is comparatively well, and my strength has gained very much. I feel confident that the Sanative alone has afforded me the relief, and I would cheerfully recommend it to all who are suffering with lung complaints, and advise them to try the medicine without delay.

SAMUEL CUTTING.

Guilford, March 19, 1838.
