BALTIMORE MARKETS.

(Corrected from the American, of Thursday.)

GRAIN.—There was no Grain of any consequence at market this morning, the total offerings not exceeding 2,700 bushels, as follows, viz, 600 bushels Wheat, 1,500 do Corn and 600 do Oats. For Wheat there is a very good milling demand, but there were no sales reported this morning; owing, however, to limited receipts prices remain steady. We quote fair to good reds at 122a126 cts.; prime do. at 127a130cts.; fair to good whites at 135a145 cts., and prime do. at 150a155 cts. Corn is wanted, but there was nothing of any moment offering, hence prices continue buoyant. There ware sales of 1,500 bushels at 52 cts. for prime yellow and 62 cts. for do. white. We quote fair to good lots of yellow at 48a50 cts., and do. white at 58a60 cts Oats were in good request, and prices remain steady. There were sales of 600 bushels good to prime Maryland at 30a32 cts.

General Miles, of Maryland.—We learn with great pleasure that Col. Dixon S Miles, of Maryland, has been made a Brigadier General, and his name will be gazetted to that rank in the next list of promotions issued from the War Department. Few officers of the army have seen more active and arduous service. General Miles entered the army as a West Point graduate in July. 1824. His first commission was filled for a Second Lieutenancy of the Fourth Infantry. He was promoted to the highest regimental rank after thirty-five years of active service, which have not impaired his physical strength. As a tactician the General is considered inferior to few of his companions in arms.

Compliment to General McDowell.—A Washington letter writer, speaking of an expected forward movement towards Richmond, says: The delight of the men at this prospect, and also at the certainty that they will make the movement under the actual command of General McDowell, is unbounded. General McDowell himself is calm, but his face no longer wears the resigned expression that it has borne since General Scott kindly but firmly repressed his ardor some days ago. Now that the old chieftain is "ready," and has given his instruction to McDowell, there is an heir of animation in the latter's eye that a close observer at once detects. General Scott remarked, the other day, of McDowell, that no man was more worthy to be placed in a responsible command, "because," said the old hero, "he knows how to obey, as well as how to command."—Napoleonic, that!

The advance body of Beauregard's army is camped from Springfield to Fairfax Court-house, between the railroad and the Little River turnpike. The territory occupied by them is for the most part a dense forest, in which the camps are located, and thus concealed, as far as possible, from observation. Into this labyrinth they no doubt wish to seduce the Federal troops. The premises of the farmers in the vicinity are being ransacked, and everything in the shape of grain is seized, and no equivalent rendered.

Notice.

THE undersigned having discontinued store-keeping at Galena, and being anxious to close up his business without delay, respectfully requests all persons indebted to him to call and settle their accounts at once.

JOHN A. FOREMAN AND OTHERS vs.

BENJAMIN S. START & OTHERS.

Bill on the Equity Side of the Circuit Court for Kent County.

June 20th, 1861.

THE object of the Bill is to obtain a Decree for the sale of from Sixty to Eighty Acres of land in Worton in Kent County, Maryland, commonly called "Boon's Meadows," "Caleb's Discovery," and "Resurvey," to divide the proceeds among the persons entitled. The Bill states that Jacob Foreman died seized of said lands, about 1795, leaving eight children and heirs at law, to wit: Jacob, Phebe, Maria, William, Ezekiel, Edward, John, and Mary.—That John A. Foreman and Jane Pearce (wife of William Pearce) are the descendants of Jacob. Phebe died without issue: That the said Benjamin S. Start and his brothers and sisters are the descendants of Maria (who intermarried with Michael Lyzer,) that William is dead with no issue now living; that Elizabeth Fowler (wife of Thomas Fowler) is the descendant of Ezekiel; that Edward, Jane and Wesley Foreman, Charles Wesley Page, Eunuce Page, Henrietta Page, Clara Ann Page, are the descendants of Edward; that James A Foreman, M. E. Breed (wife of D. F. Breed,) Adeline E. Foreman and William E. Foreman, and S E. Derrickson (wife of L L. Derrickson,) are the descendants of John; that Mary intermarried with James Grimes, and is dead without issue; that the said John A. Foreman and wife, William Pearce and wife, and Thomas Fowler and wife have conveyed their interest in the said Real Estate to Hyland P. Smith, and that the said real estate is incapable of division, and that it would be to the interest and advantage of all parties that the same should be sold and the proceeds be distributed according to their respective proportions.

It is thereupon ordered and adjudged that the complainants by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published on the Eastern Shore of Maryland, once in each of four successive weeks, before the twenty second day of July next, give notice to the absent Defendants of the object and substance of this Bill, and warn them to appear in this court in person or by solicitor, on or before the twenty-second day of October next, to answer the premises, and show cause if any they have, why a Decree ought not to pass as prayed.

M'CORMICK'S

Reaper and Mower,

FOR 1861.

THIS Machine is again offered to farmers for the Harvest of 1861. Twenty-five thousand have been sold during the past six years, and six thousand will be in the market this season. These facts alone, we think, should be sufficient evidence of its superiority. The workmanship and matrial are of the best quality. The following advantages are claimed for the Machine:

1st—It cuts a wider swath in reaping and mowing than other Machines.

2d—Light draught in proportion to amount of work done.

3d—The patent angular finger, which enables us to mow with a sickle edge knife. With this whole crops may be cut without grinding.

4th—The weight of the Mower is but 670 lbs.

5th—An improved divider point and track clearer, which effectually separates the cut from the standing grass.

6th—The Casten Wheel on outside of platform which entirely relieves the horses from pressure in turning.

7th—Narrow finger beam for mowing, preventing the carrying of grass.

8th—A patent cleaner or sickle, which entirely prevents choking in mowing.

9th.—An improved arrangement for throwing in and out of gear.

10th—The reel can be used in mowing when desired, which is sometimes important, though generally used without.

AGAINST

ESTRANGE GOULD AND HESTER J. GOULD.

Bill on the Equity Side of the Circuit Court for Kent County.

June 19th, 1861.

THE object of this suit is to procure a Decree for the sale of certain mortgaged premises in Kent County, which were on the fifteenth day of March in the year Eighteen hundred and fifty-eight, Mortgaged by the Defendants to the Complainant. The Bill states that on or about the fifteenth day of March in the year Eighteen hundred and fifty-eight, the said Defendants conveyed certain Real Estate in Kent County, containing Four Hundred and One Acres, more or less, which is particularly described in the said Bill and its accompanying Exhibit, unto the Complainant by way of Mortgage to secure the payment of the sum of Six Thousand Three hundred and Ninety Dollars and Eighty Eight Cents, with legal interest thereon from the first day of January in the year Eighteen hundred and fifty eight, payable by instalments as therein stated: That the instalment of Fifteen Hundred and Ninety Seven Dollars and Seventy-two Cents, due and payable on the first day of January in the year Eighteen hundred and sixty-one, with interest on Three Thousand One Hundred and Ninety-five Dollars and Forty-four Cents from the first day of January Eighteen hundred and sixty, to the first day of January Eighteen hundred and sixty-one, and interest from the said last named period on the said sum of Fifteen Hundred and Ninety-Seven Dollars and Seventy-two Cents; remain due and unpaid to the Complainant; And that the Decree may pass for a sale of the mortgaged premises, and stand as security for the remaining and last instalment of said Mortgage debt due on the first day of January next.

It is therefore adjudged and ordered, that the Complainant, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published on the Eastern Shore of Maryland, once in each of four successive weeks before the twenty-second day of July next, give notice to the said absent Defendants of the object and substance of this Bill; and warn them to appear in this Court in person or by Solicitor, on or before the twenty second day of October next, to answer the premises, and shew cause if any they have why a Decree ought not to pass as prayed.
