and Massachusetts, with Camps Custer and Devens, respectively, in the Nationai Army, are tied at the high mark. It is cheapeest at American Lake Wash., where Uncle Sam's soldiers cost him only $142 each.

Why The Cost Varies. No specific effort was made to explain the difference in the per capita cost of the new soldiers, but other figures submitted clear the mystery. Many of the set expentes are identical the country over, but others vary widely. No great difference is seen in regular supplies, barracks and quarters, shooting ranges and clothing. But in such items as water and sewers, wherein the topo raphy of the country about the cantoment is an important factor, there is wide variance, Again, in the case Howard & Lexington Sts. roads, wharves, walks and drainage, here is a big range. In the case of hospitals to be constructed or repaired, t ere is great diversity. Camp Funston, at Fort Riley, found nospitals in good condition and required a very small expenditure, comparatively. The same was true of Camp Gordon, at Atlanta.
