Fatal Accident Takes Place Near Rock Hall

Kent county experienced another sad'accident last Friday afternoon in the drowning of two colored men -Abraham Harris, 22, and Toby in Shipyard Creek, near Rock Hall. Both were able to swim and were rocking the boat in an effort to frighten a third occupant, George Cotton, who couldn't swim.

As the boat overturned Cottor was thrown clear and managed to grab the boat as he came up. He finally succeeded in reaching the shore. The others drowned.

The trio had been on a crabbing expedition and were returning home when the two victims sought to Old St. Paul's Church will hold a alarm their companion.
