FOREIGN INTERVENTION!

BY THE BARD OF "MARBLE HALL."

The "Dog," the Intervention Dog
"Is Dead" and gone to rest.—
His friends, who "barked for him," are all
Disarmed and dispossessed,
No more their deep-toned notes we'll hear
For England will not interfere.

We've known it long; her darling scheme
Has been to disunite
Her mighty rival's "Gordian Knot,"
In bloody civil fight;
While brother, brother's blood doth quaff,
Trans-oceanic monarchs laugh.

But when the dawning day shall come,
For come the morning must,
False Albion's cursed schemers then,
Shall turn and bite the dust.
Till then we'll wait with patience all,
And buy our Clothes from MARBLE HALL.

To the Farmers of Maryland.

THE undersigned having reason to believe certain commission merchants of Baltimore are using old orders of Farmers, exempting their grain from inspection under the law prior to the late amendment, for the purpose of withdrawing it from Inspection or Weighing under the amended law, contrary to the interest and intention of the Farmers,

I respectfully suggest to the Farmers that the amended law being for their protection, and reducing the fee for Weighing and Inspection to one quarter of a cent per bushel, the amount heretofore charged by the unofficial weighers, it is advisable that they revoke the old orders, written before the amendment, as the best way to prevent their being deprived of the benefit of the law so essential to their security, by commission merchants disposed to embarrass its execution.
