FROM THE SOUTH.

Reconstruction.

The Richmond Dispatch waxes furious upon this topic. It exclaims: "Reconstruction! Can they reconstruct the family circles which they have broken—can they reconstruct the fortunes which they have scattered—can they reconstruct the bodies of our dead kindred, which by tens of thousands they have destroyed? When they can do this they can reconstruct the old Union. When they can do this—when they can breathe the breath of life into the pallid faces of our sons and brothers, and restore them once more, living and happy, to our desolate firesides, they may dream of bringing back that Union whose only principles of cohesion was the mutual love and confidence of its people."

What a truthful picture of the horrors which these rebellious people have entailed upon themselves! By their own act have all these calamities and sorrows befallen them, but, like the original sinner, they seek to shift the consequences upon another! What strange infatuation and delusion does secession entwine around its votaries!

The Confederacy and the Northwest.

The Atlanta (Ga.) Intelligencer says: "The resolutions introduced by Mr. Foote in Congress bearing upon a reconstruction of our Government with the Northwestern States, we desire now solemnly to protest against, and we trust that they will be tabled by the Confederate Congress, whenever they are taken up to be considered. We are fighting this war for Southern independence and for a Government of Southern States, recognizing African slavery as an institution ordained of God, beneficial to mankind, a necessity in our social and political relations as States, and in our intercourse with all other nations as States. Hence the admission of any Free States into our Union is not only repugnant to us, but it will be only a continuance of that evil which has brought on the war, and which to get rid of we are now fighting. If the Northwestern States should shake off the North and East, and set up for themselves a new Government, and desire to be at peace with the South, no barrier will be placed in their way by our Government, and we shall be willing to treat with them as an independent Government, in peace, as friends; in war, as foes."

Major Reid Sanders.

A Richmond paper says: "Major Reid Sanders, with his despatches, was captured by being betrayed by the crew of his yacht. As soon as they got out of Charleston harbor the crew tied him and steered for the fleet and delivered him up to the Yankees. This accounts for his dispatches not being sent to the bottom."

Horace Greeley and Intervention.

Horace Greeley, the editor of the New York Tribune, in a recent article on the war, expressed the conviction that unless the rebellion was subdued in three months it never would be, and if at the expiration of that period the armies were still fighting with uncertain results, that peace had better be made upon the best terms possible. In reply to certain strictures upon this article, Mr. Greeley, in his paper of Monday last, says:

What I demand is wisely directed, energetic, successful fighting by the armies and fleets of the Union to prevent unfavorable intervention. Mr. Oakey Hall, Mr. Weed's most intimate friend in this city, lately asserted, in a carefully prepared speech, that Governor Seward had staved off intervention for the last 18 months by "magnificent lying." I will not discuss the justice nor the taste of this dictum; but I insist that diplomacy has nearly exhausted its resources in this field, and that only determined and successful fighting can save the country—that delay is perilous, and inaction death. I do not believe there is or has been any danger of military or forcible intervention in our quarrel; I do fear that three or four months of such efforts and such luck as we have had for the past three, will expose the Union cause to extreme perils. Hence I reiterate my suggestion that the West Point Academy be shut up, the coast survey suspended, and their officers sent to the war; that the uniformed militia of the loyal States be called out to guard Baltimore, Washington, the line of the Potomac, etc., while every available soldier is pushed forward to confront and overpower the forces of the rebellion. Others may have faith in the next year's fighting; I believe that the Union is to be lost or saved in the conflicts now impending, and that they should be prepared for and fought with a clear understanding of this fact.

Internal Revenue Decisions.

Hon. George S. Boutwell, Commissioner of Internal Revenue, has furnished the following answers to questions proposed by the Register of Wills for Baltimore City:

"The same stamp used for Probate of Wills may be used for Letters of Administration.

"A probate before Court, Magistrate or Register, does not require a 'Certificate Stamp,' to accompany the probate and official signature of the officer.

"An account of sales rendered by an Administrator, Executor or Guardian on the form enclosed by you, is exempt from stamp duty. If, however, a certified copy is issued, or a certificate by the prothonotory, et cetera, as to the correctness of the report, such certificate will require a stamp.

"The certificate of Letters of Administration, &c., (blank form enclosed by you) together with the two following certificates, one of the Judge and the other of the Register, are each subject to stamp duty as general certificates.

"The 'appraisement' only requires the five cent 'agreement stamp,' vide Schedule 'B,' Excise Law."

An intensely shocking murder has been committed in Columbia county, Pennsylvania—a woman having massacred her three step-children, aged seven, nine and fourteen years!

Town Lots For Sale,
In Still Pond,
Kent County, Maryland.

I WILL SELL the above Lots in this very flourishing Village, it being a fine location for all kinds of Mercantile and Mechanical operations, being situated near the centre of the county and thickly settled by industrious and independent Farmers, (nearly every one owning their farms,) and having the advantage of steam and sail boat communication to Baltimore and Philadelphia, it being from two to two and a half miles from Betterton, a prominent Landing at the mouth of the Sassafras River and Chesapeake Bay. It offers inducements for all kinds of MECHANICS AND TRADERS. It is a particularly good stand for a HOTEL, as there is considerable travel during Summer to and from Philadelphia and Baltimore, during the immense Peach season—and would be one of the best stands in the State for an extensive PEACH CANING ESTABLISHMENT, as the neighborhood and county abound with the finest kind of fruit; also, for a Lumber and Coal Yard, Produce Store, Foundry and Machine Shop, Carriage Maker, Saddler and Harness Maker, Butcher, Tanner, (a lot well adapted for one, as there is not one in the county,) Cooper, Carpenter, Painter, &c, &c.; in fact, for any and all kinds of industrious and enterprising men. There is a fine large Methodist Church and a good Primary School in the place. One of the first physicians in the county resides here. Three miles from a Protestant Episcopal Church, 9 miles from the County Seat (Chestertown,) and is considered one among the richest, healthiest and most productive parts of the County and State.

I will sell from 10 feet square to 20 to 25 acres in lots to suit, or if the right sort of an enterprising man or men will come and examine and see the advantages, I will sell the whole so there can be a safe and profitable investment.

NOTICE TO TAX-PAYERS!

YOUR TAXES FOR 1862 ARE NOW DUE, and the Collector for the Second Tax District of Kent county, hereby gives notice that the tax books are in his hands, and the amounts due by the Tax Payers are made out and he is ready to receive them. He most respectfully solicits prompt payment, as the demands upon the Collector for this year, both by the State and County, will not permit indulgence as heretofore. If Tax-Payers desired, there would be no difficulty in settling their Taxes promptly; but neglect of duty often is the cause of expense which in many cases exceed the Taxes itself.

The demands of the State this year, however, must of necessity be met more promptly than heretofore and the wants of those who have claims against the County will compel the Collector to be more rigid in his collections. He hopes, however, that the Tax-Payers will be prompt in their payments, and thus avoid the penalty for neglect of duty.

For the convenience of Tax-Payers, I will be in Chestertown every TUESDAY, THURSDAY and SATURDAY. Office in the Commissioners' Room, at the Court House.

☞ A discount of 5 per cent. is allowed on all State Tax paid on or before Sept. 1st; 4 per cent. if paid on or before October 1st; and 3 per cent. if paid on or before November 1st, 1862.

As the State Tax is far greater than heretofore, persons would do well to avail themselves of the discount.

PERE L. LYNCH,
oc4tf. Collector 2nd District.
