being able to present to the American apply to raddress public another new and charming work by the pouplar American Authoress, Mrs. Emma Southworth. She is excelled by no living female writer in the world.— Her style is free from insipidity on the one hand and bombast on the other; and though we meet with forcible we are never startled with inflated language. Her eral and Impartial Plan!!!!!!!!! characters are rarely under, but never overdrawn. Her scenes are life pictures her incidents founded on facts, and her sentiments are characterized by a singular purity both of conception and expression. She has the rare faculty of saving it in such a manner as that her meaning cannot be misinterpeted. In short, she possesses and in an eminent degree those qualifications which are the peculiar prerogatives of a writer, while she delights the reader's imagination with her descriptive beauty, she applies home truths to their understanding with the force of rational conviction. The 'Haunted Homestead' has been pronounced by those who have read the proof-sheets, to be her best work. This is sufficient to commend it to perusal, and we anticipate for it a great popularity. For sale by all Booksellers.
