PROCLAMATION!

BE IT KNOWN and remembered that JOS. V. SMITH has removed from his old place of business and permanently located himself and family in Chestertown, where he intends, in connection with his father, ROBERT SMITH, to carry on in all its departments, the CLOCK, WATCH and JEWELRY BUSINESS. Robert & Joseph V. Smith are well known to the citizens of Kent and the adjoining counties, the former having moved to this county when but a young man, and the latter was raised in this neighborhood, and after an absence of many years and a long practical knowledge of the business, we come back and solicit your patronage. It is useless to use the names of any one as reference for we are both well known to most of the citizens of this county, (as well as Queen Ann's,) and the people know that they can trust us with all kinds of work, and the better the watch, or clock, the more easily it is for the practical workman to give satisfaction.

R. Smith & Son,

(SUCCESSORS OF J. FRANK MORGAN,)

Have greatly increased the stock as kept by the former, and now offer all kinds of GOLD and SILVER Hunting and open-faced English and American WATCHES, and pledge ourselves to sell them as low as they can be purchased in the city. We keep on hand a large stock of all kinds of CLOCKS, also Silver, Albata and Plated Ware, such as Spoons, Sugar Tongs, Castor Stands, Goblets, Butter Knives, and all things usually found in connection with Watches, Clocks, and Jewelry. The latest styles of JEWELRY, Onix Chains, fine Studs and sleeve Buttons, gold silver and gilt; guard, vest and fob chains, and a very large stock of ordinary Jewelry. CALL AND SEE if this is not the largest stock of Jewelry on the Eastern Shore.

ROBERT SMITH.
JOSEPH V. SMITH.

A Parody on "Excelsior."

BY THE BARD OF "MARBLE HALL."

The shades of night were falling fast,
As thro' th' "monumental city" pass'd
A youth 'mid snow and ice who bore
A card of Smith & Bro.'s store
At Marble Hall.
His coat was torn, his pants below
Were furrowed here and there like snow,
With flags of truce that gaily shone
As he moved hastily along
To Marble Hall.
In other stores he saw the light
Glistening, glowing, warm and bright,
With eager steps he passed all others,
Resolved to buy of Smith & Brothers
At Marble Hall.
"Try not the space" the old man said,
"For there you're likely to be bled,"
Buy not up town the price is high—
THE ONLY PLACE in town to buy
Is Marble Hall.

* * * * *

Long since at eve as supperward
Some street was trodden by the 'Bard'
He heard the oft-repeated prayer
Steal out upon the stilly air
For Marble Hall.
Peeping—for once—beneath the screen
This youth (I knew by his clothes) was seen
Clasping unto his manly breast
As fair a maid as ever blessed
MARBLE HALL.
There in the twilight soft and gray,
Clasped in his arms I heard her say
(And then of course I came away,)
We owe our life with love's fruit traught
To that fine suit of clothes you bought
At Marble Hall.

MARBLE HALL—the greatest notoriety in Baltimore—is at No. 40 W. Balt. Street, where EVERY BODY GOES to get their clothing Don't fail to visit it when you come to the city Come and see the large stock of Clothing for Men and Boy's wear. [apr25.]
