FROM GEN. ROSECRANS' ARMY.

THE BATTLE of SATURDAY and SUNDAY.

DESPERATE FIGHTING---GREAT LOSS ON BOTH SIDES.

CHATTANOOGA, Sept. 22.—The battle on the 19th resulted well for us, we having held our own as established on the left and centre. Our forces during the day and on Sunday morning held this line, with our right on a ridge of hills, and our left protected by a rude work of fir logs thrown up during the night. Our left rested on the east side of Rossville and Lafayette, about four miles south of Rossville.

In the fight of the 19th we lost about 600 killed and 2,000 wounded, but were the gainers of three pieces of artillery, and the men were in excellent spirits.

The engagement was resumed at 9 o'clock on the morning of the 20th by attempts of the rebels to storm Gen. Thomas' left and front, but they were severely repulsed several times, with heavy loss to them and very little to us. This fight lasted one hour and a half, and was the most terriffic engagement probably of the war—a continuous fire of musketry and artillery being kept up with deadly effect.

During this fight our right and centre were not engaged. The enemy finding their assaults vain, commenced manœuvring to the left, with the intention of throwing a force on the Rossville road and attacking Gen. Thomas on his left flank.

At this juncture Gen. Thomas ordered Gen. Brannon, who had one brigade in reserve, and two with General Reynolds, holding the key of the position, which was Thomas' right, to go to the left of the line to protect the flank of Gen. Rosecrans, and at the same time sent Gens. Davis and Van Cleve from the right and centre to support Gen. Brannon in his effort to hold the line to Rossville, and protect General Thomas' left.

On seeing the withdrawal of the skirmishers in front of the division which was moving from the right and centre, the enemy made a vigorous attack on that part of the line, piercing the centre and cutting off Davis and Harding from the left and driving the centre into the mountains, both right and centre being much scattered, without, however, very serious loss in killed and wounded.

Gen. Thomas' troops became exhausted and were unable to meet the terrific flank attack, and Gen. Reynolds and Brannan on the right of Thomas' line were swung around—his extreme left being as at first. Parts of the centre were now gathered up and reported to Gen. Thomas, who made several stands, but was unable to check the rebel advance until the arrival of reinforcements. At 1 o'clock Gen. Granger, with one division of reserves, came up and were at once thrown into the centre, driving the enemy handsomely from their position on a strong ridge, with heavy loss. One of Granger's batteries mowed them down like grass.

After this bloody repulse the enemy remained quiet until four o'clock, persisting however, in manœuvering meanwhile on both flanks. Their full and correct information regarding the country enabled them to do so with great facility.

Having gotten again on our flank, another fight ensued, which has no parallel in the history of this army for its severity. Col. Harkens' brigade, and Gen. Woodside's division distinguished themselves in the fight. Gen. Wood, Col. Hooker and Gen. Garfield were present, and with the remnant of Gen. Johnson's division held the left and covered themselves with glory.

On the right and centre Generals Brannon, Bayard, Reynolds and Palmer, with parts of their divisions, fought most gallantly, while Gens. Steadman and Granger held the reserve, and drove the enemy at every point where they went in.

At five o'clock Gen. Thomas was still triumphant, and on the left held his line of the morning. Two lines of retreat were open to General Thomas to Chattanooga, on one of which he fell back to Rossville during the night.

Our losses have necessarily been heavy, but the list of killed will be comparatively light, and in the two days' engagement we have not suffered more in men than the enemy did. In the charge made by Gen. Thomas on the first day the enemy lost as many killed as we did during the whole day.

Our killed will reach 1,200, and our wounded about 7,000 mostly slight.

Among the general officers killed are Gen Little, Cols. Key and King, commanding brigades, and Col. Bartleton, of the 10th Illinois.

We have captured General Adams, of Texas, and 1,300 of his men.

The general summing up is, that after two days of severe fighting, in which Gen. Rosecrans, with greatly inferior forces, bore the shock of over one hundred thousand rebels, comprising the armies of Bragg and Johnston, half of Lee's army, and all of Pemberton's scattered troops that could be gathered together, he deemed it prudent to fall back upon Chattanooga, which he did in good order.

At last accounts he had established communications with the cavalry of Gen. Burnside.

News has been received of disasters to the gunboats Sachem and Clifton, at Sabine Pass. The former was captured by the Confederates, and the Clifton having grounded, her captain damaged the machinery and spiked the guns, but the vessels was afterwards captured. The Confederates had Sabine Pass fortified with siege guns. Two companies of a New York regiment, on board the Clifton were all either killed, wounded or taken prisoners.

COLORED SOLDIERS.—The Easton Gazette, of last Saturday, says:

The steamer Cecil arrived at the wharf at Easton Point on Thursday night last, with a government officer on board, for the purpose of recruiting persons of color.—There were some two hundred left yesterday morning in the steamer Champion, while the steamer Cecil remained and will take off a load in a short time.

Yellow do., as to quality, at	93a97 cts.
Maryland Oats, new, by measure,	57a63 cts
New Rye, per bushel,	97a98 cts.

THE REBEL RAMS IN ENGLAND.—The Washington Chronicle says that private information from England by parties occupying high positions is to the effect that the rebel rams will not be permitted to leave English ports unless accompanied by British war vessels, and the rams will not be allowed to mount guns. If allowed to sail at all they will be taken to some French port to be delivered to their real owners, who are Frenchmen. An American writes from London:

A remarkable change has come over the public opinion of England within this last few weeks. It now favors the North as strongly as it has heretofore favored the South. Among the distinguished converts is Mr. Gladstone, who will take an early opportunity of declaring himself the friend of the Union. The writer is assured upon high authority that the rebel rams will not be permitted to sail, or that if they do sail they will each be escorted by an English iron-clad, instructed to prevent them from violating the neutrality of Britannia. It is added that a large amount of capital is awaiting the settlement of the ram question in order to seek investment in American securities.

Notice to Tax-Payers.

THE STATE AND COUNTY TAXES FOR 1863, are now due, and the undersigned Collector for the First Tax District of Kent county, hereby gives notice that the Tax Books are in his hands, and the amounts due by the Tax Payers are made out, and he is ready to receive them. He most respectfully solicits prompt payment, as the demands upon the Collector for this year, both by the State and County, are urgent, and will not permit indulgence.

If Tax-Payers desired, there would be no difficulty in promptly settling their Taxes; but neglect of duty is often the cause of expense, which in many cases exceeds the tax itself.

The demands of the State this year, however, must of necessity be met more promptly than heretofore, and the wants of those who have claims against the county will oompel the collector to be more rigid in his collections. He hopes, however, that the Tax Payers will be prompt in their payments and thus avoid the penalty for neglect of duty.

A DISCOUNT OF FIVE PER CENT. is allowed on all State Tax paid on or before the 1st of September; 4 per cent. if paid on or before the 1st of October; and 3 per cent. if paid on or before the 1st of September, 1863.

The State Tax now forms a considerable item, and persons would do well to avail themselves of the discount.

For the convenience of Tax Payers, I will be at Chestertown on Tuesdays, and on Wednesdays at Columbus A. Leary's and V. B. Hines' stores; at home the balance of the week.

HENRY BRAMBLE,

THE State and County Taxes for 1863, are now due, and the undersigned, Collector for the Second Tax District of Kent county, hereby gives notice that the tax books are in his hands, and the amounts due by the tax payers are made out and he is ready to receive them. He most respectfully solicits prompt payments, as the demands upon the collector for this year, both by the State and County, will not permit indulgence.

A DISCOUNT of five per cent. is allowed on all State Tax paid on or before Sept. 1st; four per cent. if paid on or before October 1st, and three per cent. if paid on or before the first of November, 1863.

As the State tax is now a considerable item, persons would do well to avail themselves of the discount.

For the convenience of Tax Payers, I will be in Chestertown every TUESDAY, THURSDAY and SATURDAY. Office in the Commissioners' Room, at the Court House.

PERE L. LYNCH,
Collector for Second District.

N. B.—Persons still in arrears for Taxes for 1860 and 1862 are informed that I shall immediately proceed to collect the same in the shortest manner prescribed by law.
