WAS committed to the Jail of Kent county some time since, as a vagrant lounging about the lower part of this county, a supposed to be a runaway. Said negro is about twenty-two or twenty-three years of age, five feet seven inches high, rather dark, and is subject to fits, and idiotic.

He had on when committed a black coat, light pants, and slouch hat. He says he was free born, and bound to Thomas Cruikshanks of Cecil county, to serve a term of years, and that his term of indenture expired on the first of January last.

TO FARMERS.

THE undersigned having associated Hudson Steel with him in business, intends to continue the manufacture of MOWERS AND REAPERS, RAKES, &c., in the name of CASHO & STEEL. He therefore takes this occasion to return thanks to his former patrons and solicit their favors and that of their friends for the new firm. JACOB CASHO.

Being satisfied from long experience in manufacturing, selling and using Reapers and Mowers, (and in this opinion we believe the best farmers agree with us,) that it requires two separate and distinct machines for reaping and mowing, especially on large farms; the high speed of motion required for mowing will so shake and rack the Machine when reaping with the same, the bolts are continually wearing and finally something breaks and then comes the delay so much dreaded by the farmer.

This we are fully convinced is obviated by the machine we are now building, viz:

DORSEY'S PATENT SELF RAKING REAPER

of which we have secured the right for the Eastern Shore of Maryland.

This Reaper we have been using for four years in trial with others, and are so well satisfied of its superiority in point of speed and ease in cutting, lightness of draft and strength, that we have no hesitation in saying it is superior to any reaping machine in use. Every part that we thought required to be strengthened has been done, and in sustainance of these views we refer to the following persons, who have bought and used them, each and every one of them have said that it more than met their expectations:

Wm. P. Richardson, New Castle Co., Del.
James Brown, " " "
George T. Townsend, " " "
Sylvester Townsend, " " "
Giles Lambson, " " "
Joseph L. Foreman, " " "
Geo. W. Karsner, " " "
Thos. McConaughey, " " "
Enoch D. Tagart, Cecil county, Maryland.
Joseph Condon, " "
Isaac Titter, " "
George W. Bennett, " "
Richard Frazier, Kent county, "

Many others could be named, but as these are well known, we think it useless. We will also continue to manufacture

PRATT'S PATENT
STEEL TOOTH HORSE RAKE, AND
Johnson's Revolving Hay Rake.

These articles are so well known that it is useless to say anything about them. No farmer should be without one or the other. Send your orders soon or you may be disappointed.

To farmers wanting a Mowing Machine we will furnish them either Kirby's or Wood's Mower, at manufacturer's prices.

SEQUEL TO THE "TWO SUITS."

BY THE BARD OF MARBLE HALL.

'Twas Eve—a'down the Western slope,
Old Sol's last ling'ring beams were fading,
And with them many a blasted hope
His dew lipped morning rays were aiding;
Tho' kissing into new-born life,
Hopes he saw withered at his rising,
In hearts that in the earnest strife
Know nought but WILL-stern Fate despising.

When issuing from his lowly door,
A youth, whose every step and action
Was grace itself; his form clad o'er,
With garments fitting to a fraction,
Was seen his willing way to wend,
Towards steps of lordly mansion, seeming,
Where Ida dwelt—for to his friend
His promise he was fast redeeming.

With trembling hand he pulls the bell,
And soon to Ida's presence rushes,
Who wondering that he looks so well
Doubles her beauty by her blushes—
* * * Ida is Mrs. Cowan now,
And reads two pretty CAFE-bound volumes
Who every morn. and evening too,
Say prayers for MARBLE HALL in columns.

And now kind friends my task is o'er,
My story can have but one ending—
That is, at SMITH & BROTHER'S store,
Go buy your clothes—your friends be sending.
