NOTICE TO FARMERS.

Pennington's Improved Reaper

WE call the attention of the farmers of Kent and the adjoining counties to the fact that PENNINGTON & ELLIOTT having established a MACHINE SHOP AND FOUNDRY

At Galena, Kent county, Md.,

are manufacturing for the harvest of 1864,

Pennington's Improved Reaper.

This machine is very durable, runs light, has a central draft, and cuts with Sickle Knives a swath 6 feet 6 inches. It has a KEEL, and when required a MOWER can be attached—it is then a COMPLETE MOWER AND REAPER.

We refer to the following certificates from well known gentlemen of Kent and Cecil:

NEAR CHESTERVILLE, Kent Co., Md., April 30th, 1864.

Messrs. Pennington & Elliott:—Gentlemen—The Pennington Improved Reaper which I purchased of you was used at my last harvest with entire satisfaction. It cut cleaner, I think, than any Reaper I have ever used, runs light, and is easily managed. I cut 160 acres without a single breakage, which is to me sufficient evidence of the high character and durability of the machine. I have no hesitation in recommending it to farmers. Respectfully, yours,

C. W. SPRY.

This certifies that I have used the Pennington Improved Reaper, manufactured in Galena, by Pennington & Elliott, and am glad to say that it gave entire satisfaction, and recommend it to others. THOS. C. KENNARD,
Still Pond, Kent Co., Md., April 19, 1864.

This is to certify that I have used the kind of Reaper manufactured by Pennington & Elliott, at Galena, Kent Co., for several years, both as a Reaper and Mower, and that it has rendered entire satisfaction. It is centre draft, and I believe one-third lighter on horses than any Reaper I have ever used. I have been dealing with Messrs. Pennington & Elliott for several years, and have received entire satisfaction from them in every respect. WILLIAM KNIGHT,
Near Cecilton, Cecil Co., Apr. 13, 1864.

This is to certify that I have used Pennington & Elliott's Reaper for a number of years, with great satisfaction, and purchased it after inspecting many others. I can recommend it in good faith. C. H. B. MASSEY,
Masseys X Roads, Kent Co., Apr. 23, 1864.

This is to certify that I have used the Reaper manufactured by Messrs. Pennington & Elliott, of Galena, Kent Co., Md., and consider it one of the best machines of the kind I have ever used. I have had a number of business transactions with them, which have always proved perfectly satisfactory. JAS. W. VEAZEY,
Near Cecilton, Md., April 13, 1864.

This is to certify that I have used the Pennington Reaper, (one of the first put up,) and that I have had more satisfaction with it than any Reaper I have ever used for the same number of years. It has since been strengthened where it was required. I believe the Reaper now put up by Messrs. Pennington & Elliott, at Galena, one of the best in use. D. C. BLACKISTON.
April 25ih, 1864.

GALENA, Kent Co., Apr. 26, 1864.

I hereby certify that I purchased and used the Pennington Improved Reaper, manufactured by Pennington & Elliott, at this place, during last harvest, cutting more than one hundred acres of grain, in the best manner, and good time, without a single breakage, and with perfect satisfaction. It cut clean, fast and run light, and is, I think, very durable. It will cut with a good team and driver, 25 acres per day, cutting as it does, a swath of 6 feet or 6½ feet wide. It give me pleasure to recommend it.

J. M. ARMSTRONG.

I certify that I bought one of Messrs. Pennington & Elliott's Reapers for my last harvest, and used it for cutting my Wheat and Oats with entire satisfaction. It runs light, and cuts the grain better than any Reaper I ever used, and I take pleasure in recommending it as the best Reaper in use. I have done business with Mr. Elliott of that firm, for a number of years, and have always found him perfectly satisfactory and reliable. RICHARD C. JOHNSON,
Near Millington, April 25, 1864.

The Buckeye Mower & Reaper.

The BEST MOWER in the Market!

THIS CELEBRATED MACHINE, manufactured by Bruster, Griffith & Benson, Baltimore, is offered to farmers for the Harvest of 1864.

It has proven itself an unequalled Reaper and Mower, winning many new laurels, and it now appears before the public unsurpassed by any that has ever been offered to Farmers.

Farmers in want of Machines are invited to call and examine the Buckeye Reaper & Mower before purchasing. It can be seen at my store.

Warranty.—The Buckeye Reaper and Mower is warranted to cut, if properly managed, one acre per hour, or ten or twelves acres per day, either grain or grass, in a workmanlike manner, with one pair of horses. The purchaser is allowed to cut two acres of grass, and also two acres of grain, on trial, and in case anything proves defective, due notice must be given to us or our agent, and time allowed to send a person to put it in order. If it does not work after this, and the fault is in the Machine, it will be taken back, or that part of it which proves to be defective, and will be replaced, or the money paid for it refunded.

Woods' Combined Reaper and Mower, a light two-horse Machine.

Extras for the Manny and all the above named Machines kept on hand for repairs.

Descriptive Pamphlets and Circulars furnished upon application.

THOMAS NORRIS,
141 PRATT STREET, near LIGHT, Baltimore.

CHESTERTOWN, MD., Mar. 15, 1864.

Mr. Thomas Norris.—Dear Sir: I now reply to your request to say how I liked Woods' Reaper. I have been using it two years with great satisfaction, and without the cost of a cent for repairs. As a Self-Raker I think it has no equal. I believe mine was worth one hundred dollars to me the first harvest, as the wheat was down and tangled the worst I ever saw.—Five hundred dollars in gold would not buy mine to-day, were I sure I could not get another. Very respectfully, yours,

SEQUEL TO THE "TWO SUITS."

BY THE BARD OF MARBLE HALL.

'Twas Eve—a'down the Western slope,
Old Sol's last ling'ring beams were fadin;
And with them many a blasted hope
His dew lipped morning rays were aiding;
Tho' kissing into new-born life,
Hopes he saw withered at his rising,
In hearts that in the earnest strife
Know nought but WILL-stern Fate despising.
When issuing from his lowly door,
A youth, whose every step and action
Was grace itself; his form clad o'er,
With garments fitting to a fraction,
Was seen his willing way to wend,
Towards steps of lordly mansion, seeming,
Where Ida dwelt—for to his friend
His promise he was fast redeeming.
With trembling hand he pulls the bell,
And soon to Ida's presence rushes,
Who wondering that he looks so well
Doubles her beauty by her blushes—
* * * Ida is Mrs. Cowan now,
And reads two pretty CALF-bound volumes
Who every morn, and evening too,
Say prayers for MARBLE HALL in columns.
And now kind friends my task is o'er,
My story can have but one ending—
That is, at SMITH & BROTHER'S store,
Go buy your clothes—your friends be sending.
