"Strive, my dear, to be a lady." What's a lady? Is it something Made of hoops and silks and airs Used to decorate the parlor. Like the fancy rings and chairs? Is it one that wastes on novels Every feeling that is human?

If 'tis this to be a lady. 'Tis not this to be a woman. Mother, then, unto your daughter Speak of something higher far Than to be mere fashion's lady— "Woman" is the brightest star. If you, in your strong affection.

Urge your son to be a true man, Urge your daughter no less strongly To arise and be a woman. Ycs, a woman! Brightest model Of that high and perfect beauty, Where the mind and soul and body
