Carrier's Address.

"The Year rolls round" with rapid speed,
Too quick it came and went away:
'Tis done, its very latest deed,
Nor left behind a single day.

Long as ever, yet shorter seems
The time that makes us older grow,
And we so much engross'd in dreams
Scarce stop to reckon where we go.

'Tis but a dream, some call our life,
But to define it thus I say
Is to pronounce as simple fife
The TRUMPET of the judgment day.

Ah me! who will believe the lie,
Or listen to the Syren's strain—
To sleep, to dream, and then to DIE,
Will solve the problems of the brain?

"'Tis not the whole of life to live,"
"Nor all" that is "of death to die;"
Then take the hint these verses give,
And heed the moments as they fly.

But, goodly Patrons, who am I
To talk so gravely on this round;
I fear you will exclaim, oh, fie!
Can our Carrier's soul be sound?

This point I'll not dispute too quick,
From solemn things we turn to cheer,
Adjust the fault without a trick
And call you friends forever dear.

And may we not be high in joy,
And even shout for very glee;
Our mirth is too without alloy,
CONSERVATIVES HOLD JUBILEE.

Elections came, and all were right;
From East to West reaction spoke,
The hand of bold despotic might
Was wrenched and maimed and broke.

Impeachers were themselves impeached,
Their leaders "in the cold lot out;"
And still to be more fully leached
By a REAL, LEGAL, LOYAL ROUT.

If signs do not our wits deceive
The country is all safe once more
In ANDREW JOHNSON we believe
True to the UNION, to the core.

Then let the New Year usher in
With smiles and patriotic songs;
Let Conservatism all hearts win
While 'free good will' the cheer prolongs

As peace and plenty bless our lot,
And hope's bright bows the future arch;
Nor have we gone-by joys forgot,
While singing we pursue our march.

Let gratitude our hearts possess,
And virtue every act adorn,
For misdemeanors make redress
And bickerings forever scorn.

Politics are better getting,
And trade we hope will soon revive:
Radicals, oh cease your fretting,
The WHITE MAN'S cause is still alive.

Democracy is hard to beat.
Cohesive as the PEOPLE'S heart;
Its former victories repeat,
And to a nation joy impart.

Nor must it e'er abuse its power
And vain of petty office grow,
And cause their peers to rue the hour
They did to it high favor show.

But Patrons you need never fear,
The CONSTITUTION is their guide:
And if we live another year
You'll have the proof—you may confide.

Now I'll close this tedious scroll:
To write and speak there is no end;
And after all this rig-ma-role
I hope you will my cause befriend.

But let me speak another word,
And utter it as with a crash:
The thing I guess you've overheard—
The DEVIL'S pay must be in CASH.

Condition of the Radicals.

Like the drowning man who catches at straws the Radical party is wildly grasping at everything around it in the delirious hope of keeping afloat. Its helpless contortions, as it flounders clear out of its depth in the political sea, are ludicrous to witness. Every plank it has laid hold of has slipped from it, and the friends to whom it looked for help have proven impotent to save it. Negro suffrage and impeachment, which it successively caught at, have been gradually sinking beneath it and carrying the whole party still further beneath the surface. It has called upon the most venerated saints in its calendar without avail. SHERIDAN, carrying with him a large boquet and faring sumptuously, has flown around the country, in the hope of inducing the people to come to the rescue. STANTON has squared himself before the PRESIDENT and submitted himself to be kicked out of the War Department in the expectation that some popular feeling would be aroused in favor of himself and his perishing friends. General GRANT has vouchsafed the revelation that this "is a Republic," on the theory that the North would recognize the fact that if the Radical party was allowed to expire the Republic would necessarily go with it. But all has been to no purpose. The people have looked on in derision, while the revolutionary faction, enervated by corruption and weighted down with ill-gotten gains, is slowly settling to its doom. But it persists in struggling still. Senator DRAKE hopes that if severe censures can be launched against the PRESIDENT by the Senate the party may still save itself, while ASHLEY and others are anxiously urging the construction of a few more "reconstruction" rafts. All this is sheer desperation, and now that their best opportunities have failed it, the Radical party is only exhausting itself and exposing its weakness by these futile efforts to keep its head above water.—Baltimore Gazette.

A Mississippi paper notices a change that has recently taken place among the laboring population of that State. A year ago the negroes had to be coaxed to do any work, whilst now, it says, "they are asking for employment in numbers, displaying unusual uneasiness in the matter. They begin to open their eyes to the truths that these pinching times grew greatly out of their own idleness and neglect of the fields; they realize now more than ever that their happiness and comfortable living depend on their steadiness and industry; and they are determined to turn over a new leaf for the next year."

WHY YOU SHOULD BUY AT MASTBAUM'S Clothing Store.

1st.—We have the most Fashionable Clothing of any Establishment on the Eastern Shore.

2nd.—Ours is the Oldest Established House on the Shore.

3rd.—We Manufacture all our own Goods, and we are thus enabled to sell and do sell much cheaper than those who buy to sell again, as we prevent the imposition of but one profit on our customers, whereas every other Clothing Store in Town is obliged to impose TWO.

4th.—Our Goods are well and tastefully made, by the most skillful artists Philadelphia can furnish.

5th.—We sell nothing but what we can recommend, and we defy any man to show where he has once been deceived by our recommendation.

6th.—Our Goods always
Fit a little closer,
And loook a little neater,
And wear a little better,
And last a little longer,
And are sold a little cheaper
Than any other Goods in Town!

And THIS is the "REASON WHY" our Establishment is patronized by all who desire to get the full value of their money and to present a neat and gentlemanly appearance.

7th.—We have just received a NEW STOCK, embracing every variety which the most fastidious can desire and the mos critical can demand.

8th.—We make it our particular endeavor to pay the strictest attention to all our customers.

These reasons are, we think, sufficient to explain that the popularity which we enjoy, and which is an enigma to many, is not undeserved, and also warrants us in the hope of a continuation of it.

A NEW STORE
TO BE ADDED TO THE MULTITUDE ALREADY IN CHESTERTOWN.

The subscribers have Leased a part of the
NEW BUILDING,
BELOW THE BANK,
for the purpose of engaging in the MERCANTILE BUSINESS.

They will keep a GENERAL STOCK OF MERCHANDISE, such as is usually kept in a country store, except Boots and Shoes, that branch of the business in the New Building will be supplied by Mr. J. W. COLLINS, on the Corner.

For the present the business will be conducted on the CASH SYSTEM, or its equivalent, not because we are unwilling to accommodate our friends and the public, (for the credit business is desirable because it is decidedly more profitable,) but simply for the want of means to do so.

We will purchase our goods at nett cash prices, as near first hands as possible, and sell them at

SMALL PROFITS FOR CASH,

PRODUCE, and under some circumstances, thirty and sixty days.

We intend to do a legitimate business, not selling some goods below cost to make an impression, but the ENTIRE STOCK will be offered at small profits, and always at ONE PRICE.

We will do our best to make it the interest of the public to deal with us.

We have made arrangements to supply

THE LADIES
WITH FINE GOODS

such as cannot be kept in sufficient quantities in the country, from a

Five Hundred Dollar Shawl

A SILK DRESS, A LACE COLLAR OR HANDKERCHIEF, down to a pair of JOUVIN'S BEST KID GLOVES of any size or color.

We will consider it no trouble to show our goods, and when desired goods purchased of us will be sent to any part of the town if it is not convenient for our customers to send for them. Persons from the country purchasing goods from us can have them delivered at the Hotels, or at the end of the Bridge, in Queen Anne's. We consider it at present unnecessary to enumerate articles.

☞ Our friends and the public are invited to call and examine our stock.

FURTHER:

We are of the opinion that the demand for FURNITURE, particularly of the better grades, has not been supplied to this market. We intend to keep a well selected Stock of which will be bought of the manufacturers at the lowest nett cash prices, and sold at moderate profits. Samples of many kinds will be on hand, and arrangements will be made with manufacturers to fill orders for any description of Furniture, at CITY PRICES. Furniture sold to go to Queen Anne's, will be delivered at the end of the bridge in Queen Anne's, or on the Steamboats, free of charge, securely packed, and warranted to be as represented.

CHEAP and GOOD SUBSTANTIAL
FURNITURE,

CARPETS
AND QIL CLOTHS.

We will also have connected with the Store A ROOM FOR CARPETINGS AND OIL CLOTHS, and many other goods in that line. OIL CLOTHS for Halls and rooms in one piece, all at CITY PRICES.

And last but not least:

We have been appointed agents for two First Class Sewing Machines, the
GROVER & BAKER,
AND THE
HOWE SEWING MACHINE.

The GROVER & BAKER is used in the family of the Rev. Mr. GOODWIN, pastor of the Prot. Episcopal Church; Rev. Mr. MURRAY, pastor of the Meth. Prot. Church, and the Rev. Mr. QUIGG, pastor of the Meth. Epis Church, to whom we refer by permission.

The HOWE MACHINE is made by the company of which Elias Howe, the inventor of the Sewing Machine, was the President, (lately deceased,) it must be supposed that he knew how to make a Sewing Machine, and it only needs to be tried.

The Sewing Machines will be kept in a room fitted up for that purpose, where persons desiring to purchase will be instructed how to use them. All the necessary supplies will be kept for these Machines, and we will guarantee the price at which the Machines are sold to be the same as the City Price—from $55 up. Ladies will feel at liberty to visit the Sewing Machine Room whenever inclined to do so.

My Sweet Dad!

His son to town my daddy brought,
A long-tailed coat for me he sought,
And long he sought in vain;
Coats there were, but none so cheap
As dad could seize with his small heap;
For home we left again.

We met a man upon the way,
His dress was neat, his air was gay,
And he told to my dad
That but one Store in Chestertown,
Kept cheap Coats, both black and brown,
That Store L. MASTBAUM had.

So back to town we come once more,
Went into Mastbaum's handsome store,
And golly! was'nt I glad!
Dad bought a coat and Waistcoat too,
For money less than he had drew
To buy the coat; sweet Dad!

And I would say to every man
Who wants a coat, new spick and span,
Or Hats of every hue,
Or Suits of every kind and style,
Or Over-Coats, Under Clothing, Gloves, Neck Ties, Collars, Hosiery, Suspenders, in short everything contained in a first class Clothing and Furnishing Store,

A LARGE LOT OF GOVERNMENT HARNESS AND SADDLES, NEARLY NEW,
for sale at considerably less than their value. Persons in want of good, serviceable Wagon, Dearborn or Plough Harness, would find it to their interest to call and examine the above named articles.

Also, a lot of good Government Plow Bridles, Halters, Collars, Breast & Halter Chains. I will guarantee to sell them as low as they can be bought in the city.

A Pointed Dialogue.

"I SAY, JIM, where did you get such a fine looking Hat?"

"Why you know, John, I always go to SIMPSON'S to buy my Hats. I can always get the latest styles and cheapest Hats in town from him, for he makes his own Hats. And, John, you would be surprised if you would see that old slouch hat I had ou last week; Simpson has made it look like a new one. Also, this old suit of Clothes, you see Simpson has cleaned and dyed them, and they are good as new. He always gets them done at the time promised." sep28-tf.
