Republican Ticket.

FOR CONGRESS: WILLIAM H. JACKSON, of Wicomico county.

In speaking of the Democratic plans for conducting an anti-bribery campaign in this Congressional district this fall the Salisbury Courier publicans feel about it but we are pany will run its remaining popular opposed to joining hands with the Democrats in this or any other matter. The Republicans have, up to date, been responsible for a very small part of the debauchery of the ballot on the Eastern Shore and we the Republican party should polite ly decline to assist Mr. Ellegood in his strenuous task.

Let the Democrats make their own fight and paddle their own canoe. THE Democratic Campaign Committee which met at Easton on Wednesday of last week passed some wonderful resolutions on anti-bribery all of which were signed by Democrats, who, if reports be true, in elections held not so very many years ago have helped to handle some of the largest Democratic corruption funds ever used in the State. Their efforts have not been directed against Republicans alone, either, but on various occasions money has been used in Democratic primaries to to accomplish the ends of certain individuals. Do the Democrats of the First Congressional district already see defeat staring them in the
