CONGRESSIONAL leaders are slow to outline the plan of legislation proposed for this winter. In fact they el.

theertain as to the policy which will be adopted. If a majority can be rallied to oppose the President's plans, it will be useless to look for any new legislation. It would seem that after the experience of the recent campaign a safe majority will be found who will follow the lead of President Roosevelt.

CHAIRMAN BABCOCK has attributed the recent Republican victories more to the good times or prosperity than to anything else. The Democrats will have to continue waiting for something calamitous to happen. This is certainly an unenviable position for any party or set of men to be in-to feel that their only hope of profit lies in misfortune to the THE PIANOLA PIANO PLAYER.

THE cost of the last census was $11,854,817.91. Rather a high priced affair considering its inaccuracy. In the matter of land actua'ly under cultivation they have furnished figures showing that more than 100 counties in the United States have more acreage under cultivation than the counties contain. Some of the farms must be "double deckers."

WHEN Andrew Carnegie calls British attention to the supremacy of American manufacturers and trade, he points out facts which Englishmen are already learning to their great alarm. The American manufacturer leads the world, and each year his lead becomes longer.

THOSE Democrats who were declaring last October that it would really be the best thing for the Demccratic party to let the Republicans win in the November elections, are doubtless well satisfied. It turned out just as they wished.
