THE INTERNATIONAL BOAT RACE.—The great international boat race, between the Harvard Club, of Massachusetts, and the Oxford Club, of Oxford University, England, took place on the river Thames, near London, on Friday, the Oxford crew beating their Yankee competitors about a boat length and a half, in a distance of four miles and a quarter. The rowing was splendid, from thirty-eight to forty strokes to the minute; and the whole distance accomplished in twenty-two minutes and forty seconds. The race created great interest among the people of both countries, and is said to have been witnessed by probably a million af persons. An exchange remarks:

Whilst all feel that the race was a creditable affair on both sides, there is yet an impression that the contest is not as satisfying as it might be. The Oxfords have made the distance over the same course heretofore, on several occasions, in less time. Last year they made the run from Putney to Mortlake—four miles and two furlongs—in twenty minutes, while in the race of Friday they occupied twenty-two minutes forty and a half seconds—beating the Harvards.—The race, in its progress from point to point, was evidently watched by professionals, as well as the great multitude, with the greatest interest, and for a good part of the way the Harvards appear to have rendered the result very doubtful, keeping at times, considerably ahead: but they lost ground finally, when far on the way, from having to refresh their strokeman by the coxswain sprinkling his face with river water, and did not regain it afterwards. Another member of the Harvards, it also appears was suffering with diarrhœa. Thus, it is felt that neither crew has done all it is capable of, and perhaps the Oxfords will next come over to this side of the Atlantic and give the Harvards a trial on their own waters. The Harvards, of course, know Charles river, in Massachusetts, better than they do the Thames, and as the Oxfords have had the advantage of trial on waters with which they were most familiar, it would be but fair to afford the Harvards an opportunity to enjoy the same advantage, if such a contest can be conveniently arranged.

JOHNSON VS. BUTLER.—It seems to be thought possible by some of the radical journals that the return of Andrew Johnson to the Senate of the United States will be one of the first fruits of the peaceful revolution in Tennessee. Much apprehension is expressed by some of the ex-President's political enemies at the prospect of his coming back to public life, the New York Tribune comparing it to a cholera panic. Mr. Johnson is known to be not only a man of debating ability, but of a caustic tongue, and it is perhaps feared that he will lower the dignity of the Senate. There is no doubt that he is a strong man, but not capable of a feat like that. In the extremity of terror at the reappearance of this doughty warrior on the senatorial arena, it has been even proposed that B. F. Butler should be elected to the Senate from Massachusetts, so that Mr. Johnson may have his match in the energy of vituperation which is attributed to him. Supposing this to be practicable, and the expectations in regard to both Senators realized, what a spectacle would the United States Senate present! There is not much, it is true, remaining in that body to remind one of the more decorous days of the republic, but the Senate chamber has not yet been formally converted into a cockpit or an arena for bull fights. We dare say, should Mr. Johnson be elected to the Senate, of which there is yet no certainty, he will bear in mind what was the dignity of that position as well as what is becoming the position he has lately held. No doubt those who assail him will have to take as well as give blows, but it may be a guilty conscience which anticipates any other treatment at his hands.

A COLORED WOMAN CLAIMS TO BE THE LEGAL WIFE OF A DECEASED CITIZEN AND DEMANDS HIS PROPERTY.—Not long ago a citizen of Richmond, of high respectability, died. No one here even heard of his being married, and, dying intestate, his property reverted to his relatives.—On Friday, however, a Philadelphia lawyer made his appearance in this city and created a sensation in legal circles by exhibiting what purported to be a certificate of the marriage of the deceased to a colored woman, formerly of Richmond, but for years a resident of Philadelphia. This woman has grown children nearly white, of whom it is claimed the deceased was the father. The marriage between the parties, it is averred, was solemnized some time last year. The relatives and friends of the deceased deny that any such marriage ever took place, and as the woman is bold in the assertion of her claims as the widow of the deceased, and the children that the alleged marriage made them legitimate, a suit will doubtless follow in the United States Court, where the details of this novel and sensational case, even to the minutest particular, will be fully ventilated.—Richmond Whig.

The Richmond Journal gives the name of the deceased gentleman as Wm. O. George, a very old and wealthy citizen, and the woman was known in Philadelphia as Mrs. Jackson.

A NEW RAILROAD PROJECT.—Mr. Wingate specially authorized by the City Council of Baltimore to examine the route of a proposed railroad from Swann Point, in Kent county, to Salisbury, in Wicomico county, and ascertain its practicability, passed through this place, on Saturday last, on his way to Baltimore from the execution of his commission. In conversation with some of our citizens, he said that the route was not only practible but feasible and that the road, if built, would be self-sustaining. The route of this road, as at present laid down, passes through or near this town.—Denton Union.

A STATE IN PROSPECT.—Dakota Territory will soon be knocking at the doors of the Union. Villages are said to be springing up there rapidly. More than five thousand persons have emigrated to the Territory this summer. The present population is reckoned at twenty thousand, and forty-seven thousand acres of land have lately been taken up under the homestead and pre-emption laws by actual settlers.

Treatment of the South.

The malignant and persecuting spirit manifested by the Radicals toward the Southern people is almost without a parallel in the records of human bitterness and vindictiveness. There never has been a day or an hour since the war when the South could not have been safely restored to its old relations to the Union, not only without danger, but with the greateset penefit to the public interest. It might have been done within two months after the war ended, and, if it had been done, we should now have had peace in fact as well as in name; our commercial prosperity would have been restored, our national debt greatly reduced, and the whole country put on the broad highway to its former wealth and greatness.—Every candid and rational man knows that this would have been the result of a conciliatory policy toward the South, and no one pretends the reverse but the vile party mercenaries who, for the sake of personal and political aggrandizement, are deliberately sacrificing the peace, happiness and prosperity of the nation.—The course of the dominant party in the North to the Southern people since the war has been baser and more fiendish than the war itself. Unjustifiable as the war was, it was at least redeemed by a semblance of courage, although displayed on a side which had the odds in its favor of only five to one. But there has been no one redeeming quality in the conduct of affairs since the war terminated It has been pure devilism, and nothing else, and will take its place in the records of human cruelty by the side of the Inquisition, and of the atrocities perpetrated by American savages upon their captives.—Statesman.

EXTRAORDINARY SELF-IMMOLATION.—The following statement appears in the Pall Mall Gazette:

"All the extraordinary proceedings of the many fanatical sects whose rapid increase has excited so much anxiety in Russia are fairly thrown in the shade by a terrible act of self-immolation which is reported from the government of Saratow. A few months ago the prophets of a new religion made their appearance in that part of the empire, preaching self-destruction by fire as the only sure road to salvation, and so readily was their dreadful doctrine received by the ignorant and superstitious peasantry that in one large village no less than seventeen hundred persons assembled in some wooden houses, and, having barricaded the doors and windows, set the buildings on fire and perished in the flames. The authorities are doing all they can to stay the progress of this new madness, but their task is obviously a difficult one. The punishments which the law can inflict must have little terror for enthusiasts who deliberately choose a death so horrible as the true road to Heaven."

THE PENINSULAR RAILROADS.—The railroads now finished and under way and connecting with the Delaware railroad on the Eastern Shore of Maryland are as follows: The Delaware branch, starting from Townsend Station, and completed to Massey's Cross Roads, in Kent county. From this point two roads are being built—one through Kent county to Deep Landing, about twelve miles below Chestertown; the other on the south side of the river to Centreville, and terminating on the river a few miles below that town.—The Maryland and Delaware railroad is now completed from Clayton Station to Easton, Md., and the work of grading to Oxford, twelve miles below, commenced. At this point the road will connect with the steamers from Baltimore. The Junction and Breakwater railroad starts from the Delaware road at Harrington. It is completed to Georgetown, to which point cars run, and graded to Lewes, Delaware, and the iron is now being laid. The Dorchester and Delaware road is now completed within three miles of Cambridge, Md. This road commences at Seaford, Delaware. The Pocomoke and Berlin road is in running order from Salisbury to Berlin, a distance of twenty-four miles. The Delaware road, which connects with the Philadelphia road at Wilmington, is the main trunk.

HIS OWN EXECUTIONER.—At Pond City, Kansas, on the 25th instant, a man named John Langford was seized by a vigilance committee of that city and taken out of the town to be hanged. When he was informed that he could hope for no mercy, he confessed that he had already killed six men, and if his fate could be postponed for a few days he would kill as many more. After making this confession, and giving utterance of some horrid blasphemy, he pulled off his boots, and, placing the rope around his own neck, swung himself off the tree, and thus was his own executioner. Langford was half Indian, about twenty-two years old, and had led a desperate life all over the border.

STATE ELECTIONS IN SEPTEMBER.—The first of the series of fall elections took place in California on the 1st inst. Two judges of the Supreme Court, members of the Legislature and county officers were chosen. Last year General Grant carried the State by 514. In the present Legislature the republicans have a majority of six in the Senate, and the democrats a majority of twenty in the House democratic majority on joint ballot fourteen. On the 7th of September Vermont votes for Governor and State officers, and on the 13th a Governor and State officers will be selected in Maine. In the latter State General Grant's majority last year was 28,000.

A COLORED MAN WELL PROVIDED FOR.—We omitted last week to state that W. U. Saunders, the colored man who spoke in this city a short time since, has been appointed special agent of the Postoffice Department. His salary is $1,200 a year, and three dollars a day besides, including Sundays, which makes his pay $2,295 per annum, and in addition to this he has a free passage on all the cars, steamboats and stages in the United States that carry the United States mails.—Frederick (Md.) Examiner, rep.

HOLD ON TO YOUR POTATOES.—There is no latter crop of Irish potatoes worth speaking of, and the price is daily rising in the cities. Let those of our readers who have not yet sacrificed their crops to the city hucksters or to their hogs at home hold them. They will bring a good price this winter.

UNITED STATES REVENUE STAMPS AND HOW TO USE THEM.—Though we have for some time been living under the rule of stamps, the question is one of every day asking: "How much of a stamp does this require?" The following embraces, it is said, the most general use of stamps as applied to manufacturers and particular classes of business that pay a special tax:

All notes and evidences of debt, five cents on each $100; if under $100, five cents; if over $100, five cents on each $100, or part thereof. All receipts for any amount, without limit, over $20, two cents; if under $20 nothing. Checks of any amount, two cents. All deeds and deeds of trust fifty cents on each $500 in value of the property conveyed or the amount secured; when a deed of trust is fully stamped the note secured need not be; but they should be endorsed to show the reason why. Mortgage bonds need not be stamped if stamps are affixed to the mortgage. All the appraisements, estates or estrays, five cents on each piece of paper. Affidavits of every description are exempt from stamp duty. Acknowledgments to deeds, &c., are also exempt. Contracts and agreements, five cents for each sheet or piece of paper, except for rents or when for rent, fifty cents for each $300, of rent or less; if over $300, fifty cents for each additional $200, or fractional part thereof in excess of $300.—Any person interested can affix or cancel stamps.

I. O. G. T.—The several Lodges of the I. O. G. T. in Queen Anne's and Kent counties, are requested to send delegates to a Quarterly Convention of the order, to be held at Sudlersville on Thursday next, the 9th of September. The basis of representation is one delegate for fifteen members or the greater fraction thereof. The Secretaries of the respective lodges will please furnish the Secretary of the Star of Bethlehem Lodge, at Sudlersville, with the name of the delegates. A full attendance is earnestly desired.

The Morning Star Bitters Co.,

HAVE determined to present their Bitters to the public, knowing that they will sustain the merits claimed for them. This is no novelty in the market, having been before the public for the last ten years, and has everywhere stood the test of the most searching scrutiny. This medicine is accurately compounded from the purest ingredients by experienced chemists. Neither is it claimed that the ingredients were hitherto unknown to the medical profession, on the contrary the various component parts have for a long time (some for centuries) been used by the most skeptical and experienced Physicians as a Specific in cases of Dyspepsia, Poverty of the Blood, Nervous and Billious Headache, and many diseases arising from derangement of the Digestive Apparatus. It is not claimed for this article that it will cure all diseases. In BILIOUS FEVER and CHILLS AND FEVER, its value not only as a relief, but as an actual cure, has been fully proved. It is especially recommended in all diseases resulting from an impoverished state of the Liver, such as Hepatic Congestion, Biliary Obstruction, excess of Bile, &c.

It is recommended by prominent Medical men, who though opposed in principle to all patent or proprietary Medicines, have been forced by the result of their experience with the M. S. BITTERS, to recommend its use to their patients and the general public. We append a few of their certificates:

CHURCH CREEK, Aug. 15, 1866.

Having been made acquainted with the composition of the "Morning Star Bitters," I have no hesitation in stating that they are well adapted to cases of debility of the digestive organs, in which a purely vegetable tonic is required. THOS. KING CARROLL, M. D.

NO. 230 BARRE ST., BALT., MD.

I hereby certify that for a number of years I was afflicted with Dyspepsia, it resisted all treatment and finally became so bad that I was compelled to abandon my business, regarding the case as hopeless. A persevering use of the M. S. Bitters completely removed the troubles.

my29-6m. H. M. ROLLISON.

May 25th, 1869.

WE have this day completed extensive repairs on the MILL, which enables us to grind more than ten bushels of good Meal in one hour, and more than eight bushels Wheat. If any one doubts it, I invite him to call, and I promise to convince him We can accommodate all that may find it convenient to send, in the best possible manner. We have also repaired the Mill for grinding Plaster, and Corn in the ear, etc.

N. B.—I have been compelled to expend quite a large amount of money in the repairs or incur great loss and the public much inconvenience; I would therefore take it as a great favor for any one owing me to call and pay their indebtedness, or any part of it. I have called where I thought it most likely to succeed and failed, and am discouraged from further attempts. This may find some prepared whom I least suspect. If so, I shall be spared the mortification of selling paper or borrowing money.

Most respectfully,
my29-tf. THOS. H. WHALAND.

To My Friends and the Public.

FEARING that I may not be able to undergo the arduous duties of my profession, I have this day associated with me Dr. J. A. PERKINS. From my knowledge of Dr. Perkins, I without hesitation recommend him to my patients. If any one should object to the services of either, they will so state when sending, that anything unpleasant may be avoided. The one preferred will give all due attention. Consultations will be held without the consultation fee. Our charges will correspond with those who practise around us. We agree with offer our services and pledge our best efforts to discharge our duty.

T. H. WHALAND.

N. B.—I shall proceed to settle my old books, by legal process, upon all accounts remaining unsettled for more than two years.
