Col. Hambleton's Acceptance.

CAMBRIDGE, MD., Sept. 15, 1870.

Hon. Samuel Hambleton: Dear Sir—We have been appointed by the Democratic Conservative Convention of the First Congressional District, held here to-day, to notify you of your unanimous nomination for Congress. Permit us to make known the unanimity and good feeling expressed for you by the Convention. With you for our standard bearer, and trusting in the immaculate principles of the party and the intelligence of the community, in the language of Richelieu, "there can be no such word as fail."

Yours very truly,
G. W. GOLDSBOROUGH,
JAMES A. PEARCE,
JNO. H. HANDY.

To Messrs. G. W. Goldsborough, J. A. Pearce, and Jno. H. Handy, Committee:

GENTLEMEN—Your favor of the 15th inst., notifying me of my nomination "by the Democratic Conservative Convention of the First Congressional District, held here (Cambridge) to-day, for Congress," was received by me on the 17th. You also inform me of the unanimity and good feeling which pervaded the convention, and attended the nomination. I am greatly obliged to the convention for the honor conferred, and accept the trust with sincerely expressed diffidence, and distrust of my ability to measure up to the kind expectations of my friends. But of one thing be assured, no energy or exertion on my part shall be wanting in the approaching canvass to ensure success.

You are pleased to remark, "with you for our standard bearer, and trusting in the immaculate principles of the party and the intelligence of the community, in the language of Richelieu, "there can be no such word as fail." Gentlemen, if in this approaching contest we had the usual electors and voters to appeal to, in this truly enlightened and patriotic Congressional District, there would be no doubt of the result. The principles of our party have long since thoroughly commended themselves to a vast majority of that constituency, and secured their unvarying support. But it is not to be disguised that we now have a new element in this contest with which to grapple. I allude, of course, to the negro, or colored vote. By fraud the Fifteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States has been proclaimed as adopted. The Radical party, by Congressional dictation, that States should only be admitted into the Union upon the adoption of that Amendment, which ensured suffrage to the negro—a direct Congressional interference with the rights and legislation of the States wholly forbidden by the Constitution of the United States, as formed by our fathers—and by counting the votes of States, never legitimately given in assent to it, has forced this new order of things upon us. The white men of the District have, therefore, only to meet manfully and courageously this forced issue at this, the first election thereunder. Now is the accepted time and hour, or interminable trouble and degradation will follow, in the shape of a claim of social equality on the part of the blacks in the common schools of the counties, intended for the education of the children of the white man, and other equally repulsive advances to equality of rights with that race. I shall be most happy to address my fellow men in each county town of the District; but this will not meet the crisis, or fight the battle. It is an election for Congress only. We have not the usual Presidential or State elections, or county tickets even—which latter usually enlist varied local interests and feelings, and draw out the vote. Yet our people must reflect that this election towers above the usual party contests of the day. It is not so much whether this political party or that shall rule in this country. Such political parties have existed from the dawn of the Republic, and been fought out upon certain announced principles of policy. The plain and undisguised issue is one of races—whether the white, Caucasian race, or the negro race, shall rule in the State, and shape its policy and legislation for the future. The small number of white Radical voters in every county of our District has heretofore been powerless to assail the pure principles of the Democratic Conservative party. It is by the addition of this large negro vote the Radicals now hope to effect the overthrow of that patriotic party. Are the white men of the District prepared for such a result? If they are true to themselves and their principles, it can never be. But to ward it off, at this first election and contest with this element, every Democrat and Conservative in every county must lend his aid and exertion. It is matter of notoriety that the Radical party has levied upon the Federal office-holders in the State a large amount of money and brought it into this District, to secure the election of their nominee for Congress.—For what purpose is it to be introduced? Not to ensure the negro vote. That is confidently claimed by them on the score of gratitude for the right of suffrage bestowed upon that race—and again, the Radical party asserts that every negro is sworn in their secret lodges to support its ticket. This corruption fund, then, must be expected in some other manner to sway or affect some portion of the white vote of the District; that it, added to the negro vote, may ensure the success of the Radical party. Are the white men of the District prepared for negro domination, to be brought about by any such proposed means? What an insult to the white men of the District! Every white man will spurn such an effort, and the degraded leaders also who thus propose to subsidize them to such degradation. If the white men be but true to themselves—if every white Democrat and Conservative in the District will only turn out at the approaching election, and see that his neighbor also does so, without the negro vote, we can maintain the supremacy of the white race, as we have done to the present time, and keep those leaders and aspirants for office through the negro vote where they have so long been in Maryland, in merited obscurity and retirement; and maintain the proud supremacy of the Democratic Conservative party, which is emphatically, "the White Man's Party" of the country.

I have said so much already on the above absorbing question of the supremacy of races that it only remains for me to add, in conclusion, that the Radical legislation of the past session of Congress alone is sufficient to arouse the intelligence and patriotism of the country, and ensure the success of our party. The profligate expenditure of the people's money for rings and jobs of all kinds—the infamous Tariff Laws for the benefit of particular States, classes and interests—the squandering and lavishing of the public lands, intended for future homesteads for the people, upon corrupt and favored corporations—the unequal and grinding taxation of the great and growing agricultural interests of the country—the persistent refusal to tax, in any shape or form, any of the government bonds in the hands of holders—to favor the rich monopolists and capitalists of the country—the systematized efforts to break down the rights of the States, and State governments, for the purpose of erecting upon their ruins a central despotic power in Congress, to be wielded by a reckless faction therein, to the destruction of all co-ordinate departments of the government, are some of the enormities of that legislation, enough without any addition to stir up the masses and ensure our success.

Apologizing for the length into which this letter of acceptance has already run, and thanking you for the kind terms of your letter of notification, I subscribe myself, Your friend and servant,

SAM. HAMBLETON.

EASTON, Sept. 19th, 1870.

Now if the Radicals cannot hold their own in Maine, how can they expect to succeed in any one of the close States?—The late election in that State shows the Radicals have lost heavily on the popular vote. This being a 'fixed fact," the Democrats may safely count upon heavy gains in Congressmen in all the States, and more particularly in Ohio, Pennsylvania, Illinois and New York. Every day the chance of the next House of Representatives containing a majority of Democrats increases, and the party should labor most assiduously to bring about that desired result.

THE NEW SENATOR FROM OREGON.—Colonel J. B. Kelly, the United States Senator just elected by the Legislature of Oregon, is a democratic conservative, and was the candidate of that party for Governor in 1864. He succeeds Mr. Williams, the present republican Senator, whose term expires on the 4th of March.

THE CENSUS OF DELAWARE.—The complete returns of the population of Delaware having been received in Washington at the Census Bureau, the following table presents the present result with the two preceding enumerations:

	1850.	1860.	1870.
New Castle county	42,780	54,797	63,523
Kent county . .	22,816	27,804	31,704
Sussex county . .	22,935	29,615	31,704
Total . . .	91,532	112,216	125,050

AROMATIC SCHIEDAM SCHNAPPS seem to be extensively gaining our public confidence, and promises to take the place of every other liquor now in use, especially for medicinal use.

This is not surprising; for, apart from its being found in most of our respectable Drug Stores in this country, and its being strongly recommended by the physicians, the mild and agreeable taste of this article, contrasted with the strong, pungent and actial sensation produced on the palate by the common deleterious article—which is now the general complaint of nearly all the medical faculty of this country—would, of itself, suffice to give it the decided preference. If prescribed as a medicine, it is not bad to take; and to use as a beverage it is considered by judges to be superior to any article of the kind ever imported into this country.

What does Reason Say?

The little mongoose when bitten by a deadly serpent resorts to a certain plant, eats of it, and escapes the effect of the poison. That is instinct. Human beings on the other hand, must depend on reason and experience in selecting the means of protecting health and life against unwholesome influences. Now, what does reason say on this vital subject? Does it not tell us that to invigorate and purify the system is the best way to protect it against the invisible poison which generates disease? Surely it does. The next question is, what guide shall we follow in choosing a medicinal safeguard? Reason replies let your monitor be experience. Well, the experience of eighteen years comprised in one unbroken series of satisfactory testimonials assures us that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters possess strengthening, regulating and antiseptic properties which are not combined in the same happy proportions in any other preparation extant. This therefore is the antidote to which reason bids us resort when our health is imperilled either by the malaria, which produces epidemic disorders, or by any other cause, whether inherent and constitutional or connected with our habits, occupations and pursuits.

The venom of a noxious reptile is scarcely more substle and dangerous than that which lurks in foul air and impure water. To escape the fevers, bilious disorders, disturbances of the bowels, and other serious maladies produced by these insalubrious elements, it is absolutely necessary that the stomach and all the secretive organs should be, so to speak, in a robust condition. Upon the amount of resistance which the vital system can oppose to the deleterious influences that assail it, the safety of the health depends, and it is because the GREAT VEGETABLE INVIGORANT imparts energy and regularity to the most important functions of the body, that it can be recommended and guaranteed as an invaluable preventive medicine.
