FURTHER PRICE CUTS MADE IN VARIOUS FIELDS

Soap and coal, asphalt and wire have gotten on the price-cut bandwagon.

At the same time, however came a warning that a wage increase granted by the Westinghouse Electric Corp., may send the prices of some electrical appliances even higher.

Coal dealers in New York, Philadelphia and New Jersey announced that the recent price reductions by four Pennsylvannia anthracite coal companies would be passed along to the consumers, who will be able to lay in a supply this summer at a reduction of as much as 60 cents a ton.

This marked a return to the prewar custom of summer price cutting to attract customers in the mines' slack season.

Soap and soap products of the M. Werk Co., of Cincinnati will be reduced in price by up to 10 per cent, the company said, because of lower costs of raw materials.

The American Steel & Wire Co., U. S. Steel Corp., subsidiary, announced at Cleveland unspecified "revision downward" in prices of hot rolled wire rods, welded wire fabric and certain types of manufacturers wires. The company said technological improvement in steel-making was the cause.

The price of asphalt used as a roofing material and insulation will be cut 5 per cent by Standard Oil Co., of New Jersey.

As a preview of possible price reductions to come, Dr. E. L. Newcomb, executive vice-president of the National Wholesale Druggists' Tssociation, announced that the organization will survey the whole field of prices, costs and profits in the drug field at a special meeting in Chicago this week, in line with President Truman's price-cut plea.

Who says you're only young once?

Take a look at this trim, new Buick — or better, take its wheel — and see just how wrong that old saw is!

One look at these sleek lines, the long, taste-of-tomorrow fenders — and just watch yourself start getting young ideas.

Find an open road, gun this beauty just a bit — and see how the spirit of springtime wells up in your soul and sets the red blood coursing.

Good road or bad, on these soft all-coil springs you take everything with youthful zip and zest, quite freed from jar or jolt.

City street or country road, with all this poised and husky roadweight beneath you, you travel your level course, steady and non-swerving even on curves.

Pull up somewhere — and see how people turn to note the Very Important Person who's arriving.

Take it through the tangle of traffic and see how nimbly it maneuvers — check it at a boulevard stop and see how sure and positive its controls are.

In all truth, here's a car that's any man's darling, every man's pride. A car that not only meets your needs for transportation, but satisfies your every hankering for size and power, style and room, solid worth and top-dollar value.

Naturally, it's a much wanted car. America's most wanted automobile, in fact. Definitely not the number to be picked up off the counter any time, anywhere.

That's why forethought pays and prompt decision gets results. You are simply playing safe when you get your order in now!
