WORTON AGRICULTURAL CLUB.

Messrs. Editors:—The Farmers' Club of Worton had a full and pleasant meeting Thursday, Nov. 10th. All seemed to enjoy the reunion, although the "court-room"(?) was minus a stove and overcoats were retained. The Rev. Mr. Cushing, of your town, was elected an honorary member, and afterwards was made a full member. He gave us a neat speech, but exceedingly brief; as the only one of the clergy belonging to the club, we hope to see him often. There was a premium in the club for the best crop of corn raised on one acre, each member competing giving the one-fourth of the net proceeds of the corn raised on his acre to form the premium. The committee appointed to decide to whom the prize was due, awarded it to that good farmer and pleasant gentleman, Mr. W. W. S., of Worton. Some of the Worton swine having a fondness for premium corn, the duty of the committee was somewhat lessened. Another year, Messrs. Editors, doubtless the competitors will be more numerous, your correspondent hoping to be one of them. The consequences of such emulation do not end when the prize is gained. If by better farming the yield of one acre is greatly increased, the farmer is encouraged to apply the best tillage he can to all his land.

The gainer of the prize generously donated it to the club, and was complimented with a unanimous vote of thanks.

Nov. 17th. A beautiful day, and fall work being generally done, the attendance at the club was large. A nice new stove full of burning coal greeted the members with its genial warmth. After reading the minutes of the preceding meeting and other routine of business was gone through, a member exhibited some monster turnips; one of them, I think, he informed the club weighed nine pounds.—The President exhibited a basket of most excellent red Pipin apples, who stated that he opened the barrel from which they were taken that day, and found the apples sound and in good order, but another barrel of the same kind of apples treated in the same way were nearly all decayed.—He accounted for the difference by stating that the good apples were in a tight barrel and the decayed ones in an open barrel, and gave it as his opinion that the tighter the package in which apples are kept the longer and better they will keep. The President also made some interesting and practical remarks on the value of corn fodder, an article of provender too carelessly treated in Kent. At the conclusion of his remarks, he had the basket of apples distributed to the members of the club—a proceeding that was held to be in perfect order, and no objection I am sure could be made to its repetition.

The regular subject for discussion—"Fattening, killing and curing pork"—was then taken up. The member who opened the discussion gave a receipt which he received from the late Major Reybold, for curing the meat, and spoke very highly of it; he had lost no meat nor seen a skipper in his meat in the sixteen years he had used it, and spoke of the hams as being very juicy and of fine flavor. I intend to use the receipt this fall, and as some of your readers might like to use it also I will give it: For every 80 lbs. of pork take 1 lb. of salt, ¼ lb. sugar, ½ lb. saltpetre, mix them well together and rub the meat thoroughly with the mixture, allow the meat to remain on a shelf or other convenient place for 24 hours, then salt away, using two quarts of salt to every 80 lbs. of meat, allowing it to remain in bulk for 15 days, by which time it is cured and fit to hang up and smoke. An opening should be made in the cask to allow the pickle that will make to run off. It was held that meat should not be smoked in damp or wet weather, as the dampness caused the smoke to blacken the meat and prevented it from penetrating.

On fattening hogs many excellent things were said, some of which I will give. It was held that it takes more food if the hogs are allowed to run, but the meat was firmer and weighed more for its apparent size than if confined. Corn soaked in water somewhat salt went further and produced better results than dry corn.—Oats mixed with the corn was a great improvement. The President remarked that he had received the best results from feeding oats to fattening cattle, the same quantity by measure fattening faster than meal or corn; he thought being remasticated caused the difference. The club agreed that corn fodder was the best litter for fattening hogs, as it does not get firm like straw and prevents the mange. An excellent cure for the "thumps" was given, to wit: ¼ lb. "horse antimony," put in their swill three or four times a year.—Another cure is Cayenne pepper tea in small doses. Too close breeding was considered to produce the thumps. Hogs if confined should have ashes, charcoal, or rotten wood, and should not be confined to corn alone, but should be allowed such refuse vegetables as can be afforded them, and should have a place to sleep in sheltered from the weather.

The subject for the next meeting is, getting fire wood, rails and posts, in all their different bearings.

Yours, PARTICEPS.

THE IMPORTANCE OF A VOTE.—At the recent election in Pennsylvania, in several Congressional Districts the vote was close. In the 16th the aggregate vote polled was 25,703; the Democratic majority was 15! In the 17th the aggregate vote was 20,659; the Democratic majority was 11! In the 18th the aggregate vote was 26,388; the Democratic majority was 27!

The above is a fair illustration of the importance of a vote. But we have a stronger illustration of this fact in Prince George's county, in this State, where the Radical majority was 1. Suppose that election had been for county officers and the Radicals should get into power in that county by one vote, would not some Democrat who had not voted feel that he was the man who done the damage?

STRENGTH OF THE UNITED STATES ARMY.—The total strength of the United States army, according to General Sherman's report, is 34,870 men, including twenty-five infantry regiments, 16,486 men, ten cavalry regiments, 9,892 men, and five artillery regiments, 4,205 men. The total commissioned officers, for all branches of the service, is 2,488. This number must be reduced to 2,277 before January 1, 1871, and the number of enlisted men must be reduced to 30,000 by July next.

THE EASTERN SHORE.—A correspondent of the Chigago Tribune, whose parents resided on the Eastern Shore, has been visiting the land of his birth, and has given an account of what he saw and heard on that occasion, in a letter published in the Tribune. We extract the following:

The Maryland bar has always been distinguished. Six Attorney Generals have been Marylanders, viz., Robert Smith, William Pinckney, William Wirt, Roger B. Taney, John Nelson, and Reverdy Johnson, four of them very celebrated, and Taney held the Chief Justiceship for nearly a third of the whole period of existence of the Supreme Court. Maryland has never had a President nor a Vice-President.

Among Eastern Shore celebrities was Charles Wilson Peale, of Chestertown, Kent county, a saddler, clock-maker, dentist—having made the first sets of enamelled teeth in America—an animal preserver, at the age of 29 he went to London and studied portrait-painting under Benjamin West, and afterward established himself at Annapolis and in Philadelphia. He was a soldier, an Abolitionist, and the father of museums in America. He lived to the age of 85, and left a son, Rembrandt Peale, to further do service in portrait painting.

The Eastern Shore never had a Governor until twenty years after the State seceded from England, when John Henry, of Somerset was found available.—Another interregnum then occurred between 1798 and 1806, when, with one term intervening, Eastern Shoremen, Robert Wright, of Cecil; Edward Lloyd, of Talbot, and Levin Windsor, of Somerset, ruled continuously. Other Eastern Shore Governors have been Charles Goldsborough, Samuel Stephens, Daniel Martin, Thomas King Carroll, Thomas W. Veazy, Philip F. Thomas, and Thomas Holiday Hicks.

ATTEMPTED RAPE.—As two daughters of Mr. Henry C. Legg, residing on Kent Island, were returning from school on Wednesday last, and whilst passing through a skirt of wood, a negro boy, named William Horton, aged about nineteen years, seized the eldest, aged about 14 years, threw her against the ground, and attempted to violate her person, but was prevented by the alarm given by the younger sister, aged about 12 years.—The negro becoming frightened ran into the woods, and was pursued by the excited populace for some time, when despairing of his capture search was abandoned. Officer Jeffers, however, continued search, captured the wretch and with difficulty kept his prisoner from the hands of those who were anxious to lynch him. The negro was then lodged in jail. Much excitement is said to exist on the Island in consequence of this foul attempt to violate the person of a chaste and beautiful girl.—Centreville Observer.

THE THIRD OHIO DISTRICT.—A letter has been received by a prominent official in Washington from General Schenck, in which that gentleman explicitly states that he shall take no steps toward contesting the seat of his successful competitor, Colonel Campbell, and that if it is contested it will be by the republicans of his district. General S. seems to regard as binding the decision of the full republican bench of the State Supreme Court under which the vote of the soldiers in the house at Dayton was refused by the election judges, and aside from the loss sustained on that account it is not believed that sufficient frauds or irregularity can be shown to invalidate the certificate held by Mr. Campbell, while the friends of that gentleman claim, on the other hand, that they can show more frauds on the republican side that can be established against the democrats.

TRIAL OF A CHILD FOR MURDER.—The trial of little Jno. Butler for the killing of Gustave Thau, a juvenile associate, will be commenced in Hudson county, New Jersey, this week. The prisoner was ten years old in August last. He lived in Greenville at the time of the homicide.—The child was playing ball with Gustave Thau and several other boys. The ball was knocked over into a fenced garden, and little Johnnie ran after it and threw it back. On his return Thau was throwing it up and catching it, when little Johnnie asked him for it. Thau continued pitching it up, when little Johnnie pushed his playmate and he missed catching it. Thau, who was the bigger boy, then knocked little Johnnie down, and the latter arose and inflicted the fatal blow.

ORPHANS HOME.—The managers of the Home for Friendless Children on the Eastern Shore, intend to open that Institution on the 1st of January, 1871.—It may not be generally known that other contributions beside money will be acceptable. Let it be bore in mind, that in opening "The Home," the house is to be furnished. They therefore solicit donations of every kind; house-furnishing articles of every description, dry goods, groceries, meat, meal, vegetables, &c.

Will not housekeepers, those especially who are breaking up and selling off their furniture, look over their houses, and see if they have not some articles they can do without and send to "The Home?" Will not merchants and dealers generally spare something from their stores, and farmers from their granaries, poultry yards, and other produce of their farms, in addition to their contributions in money, to this object?

Is it necessary, in order to stir you up to acts of beneficence on this behalf, to remind you of the design of the Institution? It is to gather little ones bereft of parental care into a home, where they will be sheltered and protected, watched over in health, carefully tended in sickness, educated, taught the means of self-support, and, more than all, instructed in the Word of God, and brought up in His fear and service.

Help, then, in every way you can, to establish and sustain such a charity, remembering whose word assures us, "There is that giveth and yet increaseth."

All donations to be sent to Mrs. Elias O. Dawson, Easton, Talbot county, Md.

SENTENCE COMMUTED.—The Cecil Whig states that George Harris, who was convicted of murder some time ago and came very near being hung before his first respite came to hand, has been respited again until the 16th of December, when his sentence will be commuted to imprisonment for life in the penitentiary.

The Great Pictorial Annual.

Hostetter's United States Almanac for 1871, for distribution, gratis, throughout the United States and all civilized countries of the Western Hemisphere, will be published about the first of January, and all who wish to understand the true philosophy of health should read and ponder the valuable suggestions it contains. In addition to an admirable medical treatise on the causes, prevention and cure of a great variety of diseases, it embraces a large amount of information interesting to the merchant, the mechanic, the miner, the farmer, the planter, and professional man; and the calculations have been made for such meridians and latitude as are most suitable for a correct and comprehensible NATIONAL CALENDAR.

The nature, uses, and extraordinary sanitary effect of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS the staple tonic and alternative of more than half the Christian world, are fully set forth in its pages, which are also intarspersed with pictorial illustrations, valuable recipes for the household and farm, humorous annecdotes, and other instructive and amusing reading matter, original and selected. Among the Annuals to appear with the opening of the year, this will be one of the most useful, and may be had for the asking. Send for copies to the Central Manufactury, at Pittsburg, Pa., or to the nearest dealer in HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. The BITTERS are sold in every city, town and village, and are extensively used throughout the entire civilized world.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

For all the purposes of a Laxative Medicine.

Perhaps no one medicine is so universally required by everybody as a cathartic, nor was ever any before so universally adopted into use, in every country and among all classes, as this mild but efficient purgative Pill. The obvious reason is, that it is a more reliable and far more effectual remedy than any other. Those who have tried it, know that it cured them; those who have not, know that it cures their neighbors and friends, and all know that what it does once it does always—that it never fails through any fault or neglect of its composition. We have thousands upon thousands of certificates of their remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood, and we need not publish them. Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates; containing neither calomel or any deleterious drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar coating preserves them ever fresh and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

Minute directions are given in the wrapper on the box, for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure:—

For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Listlessness, Languor and Loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach and restore its healthy tone and action.

For Liver Complaint and its various symptoms, Bilious Headache, Sick Headache, Jaundice or Green Sickness, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.

For Dysentery or Diarrhœa, but one mild dose is generally required.

For Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the Side, Back and Loins, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change those complaints disappear.

For Dropsy and Dropsical Swellings they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For Suppression a large dose should be taken as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.

As a Dinner Pill, take one or two Pills to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.

An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these Pills makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus.

Manhood: How Lost, How Restored.

Just published a new edition of DR. CULVERWELL'S CELEBRATED ESSAY on the radical cure (without medicine) of Spermatorrhœa, or Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Seminal Losses, Impotency, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage, etc.; also Consumption, Epilepsy, and Fits, induced by self-indulgence or sexual extravagance.

Price, in a sealed envelope, only 6 cents.

The celebrated author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstates from a thirty year's successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of intenal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself, cheaply, privately, and radically.

This lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land.

Sent, under seal, in a plain envelope, to any address, postpaid on receipt of six cents, or two post stamps.

Also, Dr. Culverwell's "Marriage Guide," price 25 cents. Address the Publishers,
