New Market May the 23 1778

Sir/

Inclosed herewith I have sent you my monthly Return of what provisions I have purchased for the use of the Continental Army for the present month. I should have been very glad that it had been convenient to have sent me more Money before this as I have Reason to think I should have collected more provisions, I have been out of Cash some time and the people in does not like to bring in their Bacon without their Money there is still a good deal of Bacon to be picked up in Anne Arundel County, I have purchased 3000 ℔ that is not yet Rec^d. I should have been glad to have Rec^d your instructions what to have done with the live cattle, have Concluded to send them to Col Hollingsworth at the head of Elk as they are fit for Slaughter. You'l please to Forward me seven or Eight hundred pounds of this or first Opportunity that may happen hereafter. which will Oblige sir your very humble Servt
