SIX DAYS LATER FROM MEXICO.—Departure of Santa Anna for Monterey—Paredes on his way to Europe.—By an arrival at Philadelphia, from Havana, intelligence has been received from the city of Mexico to the 30 ult., and from Vera Cruz to the 1st inst. Santa Anna has marched from the city of Mexico at the head of about four thousand men, for the seat of war. A decree had just been published, reducing the duties on imports fifty per cent., and suspending the prohibition of certain articles heretofore considered contrabrand. Commodore Sloat arrived at Havana on the 10th inst., from Monterey, on the Pacific. He left in the harbor of Monterey the U. S. ship Congress, bearing the broad pennant of Com. Stockton. Officers and crew all well. Commodore Sloat was to have hoisted his flag on board the U. S. brig Perry, at Havana, to sail in few days for Norfolk or Charleston. Gen. Paredes had arrived at Havana, and was to embark immediately for England to recruit his health.

NOT THE CASTING VOTE THIS TIME.—When the Hon. Geo. M. Dallas went to the poll on Tuesday last, a wit who was standing in the vicinity said, "Step back, gentleman here comes the casting vote ,, Mr. Dallas, himself, was forced to smile.—[Philadelphia Sun.

OUT AT LAST.—The Secretary of the Treasury has given notice that he will issue $3,000,000 of Treasury notes, bearing an interest of five and two-fifths per cent. per annum, and invites individuals and corporations (those horrid things, the banks, we presume,) to come forward with their specie, in sums of not less than $1,000 and swap! The Union, in announcing this "interesting" event, gives a new definition of Treasury notes, and says they "must be regarded in the light of SPECIE bearing interest."—This is rather a hard definition, and we doubt whether it can be found in Johson Webster, or Walker.—Ale. Gaz.

CAPTURE OF A MEXICAN BRIG-OF-WAR. From a letter published in the city of Mexico, it aappears that the Mexican brig-of-war Malek-Adel, was captured in the port of Mazatlan, by one of our vessels, supposed to be the sloop-of-war Warren. The Warren being outside, dispatched five launches, well armed, to capture the Mexican then at anchor in the bay. The officers and crew on board the brig, unprepared for an attack, took to their boats in great confusion on the appearance of the Americans. Two officers, named Zuregi and Cililio, and several sailors, were taken prisoners. The moment the "Yankees" found themselves masters of the vessel, they cut her cables and made sail for the frigate.

EXPENSES OF THE WAR.—The Washington correspondent of the Journal of Commerce says.

"According to a recent official estimate, the charge on the Treasury for the army movements for the next eight weeks will be ten millions. As there are now probably two or three millions left in the Treasury, Mr. Walker may be able to get along until Congress assembles with a loan of eight millions.

The Government must and will abandon the Subtreasury scheme.—Early in the next session modifications of the system will be proposed. The specie clause will be further postponed and the banks and bank notes and bank checks, will be again resorted to by the Government."

According to this estimate, if the war should happen to continue twelve months longer, and we see no reason to suppose that it will not, the country will find itself saddled with a debt of $120,000,000.

The Washington Union of yesterday says—

We state positively that no despatches have been received from General Taylor about the seige of Monterey since the 25th of September; and that every word which the Secretary of War has received on the subject of General Butler's conduct at Monterey has been published in the "Union," in General Taylor's despatches, which brought to this city by Captain Eaton, on the 11th instant.

There are in Paris, says the Edinburg Weekly Register, myriads of little newspapers scarcely bigger than a sheet of letter paper, which exist only on defamation and scandal.

The Washington Union says that Capt. THORNTON has left that city to rejoin his company in Mexico.
