Chancery Sale.

A RARE SITUATION.

BY virtue of a decree from the High Court of Chancery, I will offer at public sale, in the village of New Market, on SATURDAY, the 30th day of January, inst., between the hours of 10 o'clock, A M, and 4 o'clock, P M, the farm whereon the late Joseph Ennals resided; called, or known by the name of "Indian Land, No. 1," and "Indian Purchase," containing about 253 1-4 Acres.

This situation is regarded as one of the most eligible in the county, being finely situated on the Choptank River, and combining advantages that are rarely to be procured. Among these are a very good Mill privilege, an abundance of fish, oysters, and ducks, a most delightful neighborhood, together with proximity to New Market, one of the principal towns in the county, from which it is only 2 1-2 miles distant.—

The HOUSE is of brick, and very capacious, having two large rooms and a large passage below stairs, with a good cellar, and three rooms above; requiring but little improvement to make it a fine mansion. The internal resources for improving the land are good and abundant. A good orchard of APPLES and PEACHES, good drinking water; and a sufficiency of timber for the supply of the farm.

This situation is about 11 miles from Cambridge.

The above property will be sold free from all incumbrance whatever.

The terms of sale are, one fourth cash on the day of sale, and the remainder of the purchase money in 6, 12 and 18 months, all secured by bond and security approved by the Trustee, with interest from the day of sale. On payment in full of the purchase money, a conveyance will be made to the purchaser.

Chancery Sale.

IN pursuance of authority derived from the high court of Chancery, I will sell on MONDAY, Feb'y. 1st, 1847, at some one of the stores at Church Creek in Dorchester county, the small FARM or tenement formerly owned by William Parker, containing 76 acres, called "Colston's Puzzle and Blackford." Also lots No. 6, 7, and 8; containing 25, 25 & 24 1-2 acres, of wood land, in the neighborhood of Church Creek. These are parts of the Willians' lands. It is presumed those intending to bid or purchase will examine the property for themselves prior to the day of sale, as I could not give a fair description if I were to undertake it. The terms of sale will be according to the decree, one third cash, the balance in one and two years, to be secured by bond with security, and interest from the day of sale. Sale to take place at or about 12 o'clock.

MAGISTRATE'S BLANKS, of every description printed and for sale at the office of the Cambridge Chronicle.

$250 Reward.

Ranaway from home (Glascow) on Wednesday night last, negro woman Comfort and her two daughters, Nice and Ann. Comfort is about 40 or 45 years old, dark chesnut color, 5 feet 1 or 2 inches high, her clothes not recollected. The daughters are both of a dark chesnut color, Nice rather the darker of the two, more delicately made, both have large lips, and I think small scars on their necks. Nice is about 18 years old, and has a down look; Ann about 16 years old. Their clothes were nearly the same, viz: blue and white plaid domestic, dark brown and blue calico, and new dresses of rich colors, and other clothes not recollected.

The above reward will be given for the apprehension of the above negroes, or $100, for each of the daughters, and $50 for the mother, if taken out of the State; or $50 for each of the daughters, and $25 for the mother, if out of the County, and $25 for each of the daughters, and $12 for the mother, if in the county.

It is required that they be secured in this county or Baltimore Jail, clear of any charges against me.

Farm for Sale.

THE Subscriber will offer at public sale, on a reasonable credit at Bradshaw's tavern, Cambridge, on Monday, 4th January—if not previously disposed of, the farm in Transquakin, between the lands of Dr. William H Muse, and Dr Phelps, containing 315 acres—230 of which, is in cultivation, and 85 in valuable timber.

This Farm, from its variety of soil—possessing a clayey loam, and a siliceous loam, and intermediate grades, is adapted to a variety of crops; and the infallible prospect of a future growing, and permanent demand for our Breadstuffs—especially, Indian Corn, in foreign markets, offers a strong incentive to agricultural energy and enterprise, which, for many years have been parallyzed. Endless resources of manure are presented on this Farm to make it a rich investment, by a moderate share of skill and attention. It has a neat small and nearly new dwelling house, two rooms on each floor; also two corn houses, one of them lately built and in the best manner, and vill hold 3000 bushels;—the other 2000;

A well of pure, soft water is directly at the door, and many fine springs, elsewhere on the land.

THE SUNDAY EXTRA.

A new weekly paper, devoted to Polite Literature, Foreign and Domestic News, Science and the arts, Critical Essays, Philosophy, Satire and Humor.

THOMAS R. WHITNEY, Editor.

One dollar per annum payable in advance.

The undersigned has the pleasure to announce that he will issue on Sunday, the 6th of December next, a new Weekly Paper, to be called the SUNDAY EXTRA. The principal aim of the editor will be to make the "Sunday Extra" a complete mirror of the times, in which will be faithfully reflected, in an interesting and condensed form, the News of the Week, Cream of New Works, Tales of Fiction, Fact and Romance, original and selected, Gems of Poetry & Prose, Fetters on Science and Art, Keviews, satire, Wit, the Stage, &c., &c.,—in short to make it an acceptable Fireside Journal, complete in all its parts, and unexceptionable in point of morals. The "Extra will maintain a high tone in all its departments; and whilst eschewing politics, as such, reserve to itself the right freely and candidly to discuss all questions of acknowledged public interest and importance. A number of correspondents of known and approved talent, resident in different parts of the Union, have been secured, who will contribute their best efforts to the "Extra;" the aid, also, of an eminent Foreign Correspondent will add a valuable feature to its columns. The several departments of Literature, Science, and the Arts will be placed under the charge of experienced writers, and the editor will spare no exertions to make the "Extra" a complete Paper, while he confidently expects, as he intends to merit, the substantial endorsement of the public to his exertions.
