For it was the Saviour's eall.

He has gone from his dear ones, Whom he willingly toiled for,

And loved as his life. Oh. God, how mysterious And strange are Thy ways To take from us this loved one In the best of his days. Farewell, Ed., but not forever, There will be a glorious dawn;

We shall meet to part, no never; Tho' thy darling form lies sleeping In the cold and silent tomb; Thou shall have a glorious wakening When the blessed Lord doth come.
